VALENTINO'S LIFE STORY, WRITTEN BY HIMSELF

Begin It Today

'There Is No Sorrow Like a Love Denied'

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

NIGHT LATEST

A HOME PAPER FOR PEOPLE WHO THINK

VOL. 23—No. 131 BOSTON, THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1926 2 CENTS WITHIN 50 MILES OF BOSTON, ELSEWHERE 3 CENTS

McDade Resigns to Save Girl

BARRED MOB SMASHES WAY THROUGH VALENTINO GUARD

POLA NEGRI WEEPS FOR SHEIK

While the tragic death of Rudolph Valentino bowed the whole world in sorrow, no heart was touched as deeply as that of the Polish screen star—Rudy's fiancee. Here she is seen watching the "Greatest Lover" ride out of her life through a film of tears. She is speeding East to attend the funeral and glimpse her fallen sheik for one last time.

ACCUSED DEER ISLAND DEPUTY SHIELDS 'MISS BLANK' BY QUITTING JOB

Declaring he would not sacrifice the reputation of a young woman for the sake of a job on Deer Island, Deputy Master James H. McDade resigned today, bringing to an abrupt end the public hearings at which he was fighting removal from office.

"The age of chivalry is not dead," he said. "The only way I can win exoneration is by bringing the unnamed 'Miss Blank' to testify, and I refuse to expose her identity in that way."

His resignation was accepted by Master James L. Mahoney, but McDade was permitted to make a statement from the witness stand in which he charged that a drink either of straight alcohol or knockout drops was served to Miss Blank at the home of Assistant Deputy Master Paul Campbell, and that this gave rise to the incident which led to his removal.

He denied attempting to disrobe at that time or fleeing from the house from a bedroom window. Although officials refused to discuss the matter, it was hinted that certain phases of his story may result in further investigation of conditions at the prison.

When he finished his testimony, McDade said in reply to a question from Assistant Corporation Counsel Farnsworth:

Continued on Page 8, Column 4

Valentino's Story of His Life

By Rudolph Valentino

Chapter 2. Under Italian Skies

(Reprinted from Photoplay Magazine by permission of James R. Quirk, the editor. Copyrighted by Photoplay Publishing Company.)

My father left a comfortable little fortune, but it had been somewhat depleted in the year following his death, and there was not sufficient to enable me to realize my great ambition.

When my mother explained this we compromised upon the Royal Naval Academy. I did settle down to my studies for once and got myself into excellent physical trim. When the fateful day arrived for examination in the academy at Venice, Candidate Guglielmi, proud and confident, was found to be one inch shy in chest expansion. My humiliation was complete. The only thing that saved me from throwing myself into the Grand Canal was the failure of another boy by a half-inch.

Rudy's Mother

Life was over. Here I was, fifteen, and a complete failure. Nothing mattered. No one loved me—no one. Even my mother must be tired of me by this time. So I gloated tragically as the train took me toward home. But my tragedy passed away in my mother's arms—just as many another fellow's has.

She protested that she had never liked the idea of me becoming a naval officer. It was altogether too dangerous. No, indeed, she was really delighted that I had not been accepted. Better far that I go to the Royal Academy of Agriculture and study to be a scientific farmer. Italy needed scientific farmers far more than she needed soldiers or

Continued on Page 26, Column 1

FLYING WEDGE MOB CRASHES DOORS TO SEE FILM SHEIK IN DEATH

New York, Aug. 26.—Punching and slugging and kicking a mob of more than 100 men and women rushed police reserves at Campbell's Funeral Church early today after the doors had been locked, and battled their way into Rudolph Valentino's bier.

The new disorder came as a result of decision to far further viewing of the screen star's body because of the continued outbreaks in the street in an attempt to get to the side of the casket, and the general irreverence displayed by the public.

On orders of S. George Ullman, manager for Valentino, the funeral church doors were closed against the milling public outside shortly after midnight.

Six deep in the line the mob was standing then and they first became angry, then frenzied, when the news of the lockout was borne through their ranks.

IN "FLYING WEDGE"

A howl went up, then a struggle began, mounted police attempting to disperse the throng, but with little success. Fists flailed freely, hands clutched at the officers to pull them from their horses and boots thudded against yielding flesh in the heat of the battle.

Then a wedge of more than 100 men and women formed, poised for an instant in indecision, and moved forward in an unstoppable mass, through the ranks of the police, through the door whose lock gave like paper and into the hushed, dimlighted room where the screen idol lay, sleeping his last sleep.

Meanwhile, a call for more police had gone out and reinforcements arrived on the run, their weight, or numbers and their clubs proving an effective counter against those who had gained entrance.

The intruders were hurled into the street, once again the door was made fast and this time the mob was driven back through the streets, with constantly thinning ranks, until it had dispersed.

Whether the final resting place of

Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

FINGERPRINTS FOUND ON CARD IN HALL CASE

Somerville, N. J., Aug. 26 (A.P.).—A card which was on the body of the Rev. Edward W. Hall, when it was found with that of his choir singer, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, Sept. 16, 1922, is in the possession of the State and fingerprints on it correspond to those of one of the three people held for the murder, Senator Simpson declared today.

The finding of the card, which had been reported missing, was announced at a hearing before Justice Parker this morning for the admission to bail of Henry Carpender and Willis Stevens, held for the murders.

Seated on the bench with Justice Parker was County Judge Frank L. Cleary, before whom the special hearing which resulted in Carpender and Stevens being held without bail for Grand Jury action, took place. Neither Carpender nor Stevens was present when the court convened.

Edwin Carpender, brother of Henry Carpender, and Peter Tumulty,

Continued on Page 5, Column 1.

DR. E. A. CODMAN JAILED; WON'T PAY $10 FINE

Dr. Ernest A. Codman, well-known physician of No. 227 Beacon street, is today in a cell in the basement of the building housing the county district court. If he persists in his refusal to pay a fine of $10, assessed for speeding, he will spend the next 20 days in a cell at Dedham Jail.

Dr. Codman was fined the charge brought by Patrolman Hanna of the Milton police. Hanna said Dr. Codman was making 35 miles an hour through Milton. On the stand the doctor said he was making but 25 miles an hour when he was arrested, but admitted that he had been making 30 miles shortly before his arrest.

He was fined $10. The physician not only refused to pay the fine, but also refused to use his right of appeal. There was no other course for the court than to order him into the prisoners' dock, and then he was escorted to the basement of the building by two court officers who locked him in a cell.

After remaining adamant in his refusal to pay the fine or appeal he will serve, paying the fine at the rate of 50 cents the day.

14 ESCAPE AS HOUSE FALLS

Fall River, Aug. 26.—Two minutes after fourteen men, women and children fled to safety in their nightclothes, a two-and-a-half story wooden house at No. 490 South Main street collapsed today with a resounding roar and crumpled over against a nearby garage.

Police who responded to a telephoned warning that the structure appeared to be in danger of collapsing, aroused the occupants and got them into the street just in time to escape death or serious injury.

The deafening crash which the building made in falling, as beams and supports snapped off and the upper floors folded up like cardboard awakened persons all over the city. The fire department was called and police roped off the area, even forbidding lodgers to return for their clothing and belongings, which were buried beneath the wreckage of the house.

The structure was being raised to build stores underneath and the collapse was due, police said, to the undermining by rain water of the piling on which the house poised ten feet above the ground.

A plugged waterspout caused an overflow of water into the basement pit and weakened the support on which the pilling rested.

As the house first began to slide

Continued on Page 3, Column 8.

SEN. FERNALD LAID TO REST

West Poland, Me., Aug. 26 (A.P.).—United States Senator Bert M. Fernald today was laid at rest in the little fenced cemetery in the dooryard of the church, but a few hundred yards from the home he loved so well. In keeping with his often expressed wishes, the services were simple and in tune with the austerity of the small white church which seats less than 200.

Dr. James F. Dolan, a friend, delivered the eulogy, the only spoken words except for prayer at the brief services.

Although no official Congressional committee was appointed to attend the funeral, this by the Senator's wish, several of his colleagues were present, including the Maine delegation. The casket was borne by four veteran employes of the Senator, whose records of services amount to 160 years. They were E. L. Dudley, H. G. Berry, Almon Keene adn Edwin Farr

STENOGRAPHER TRIES TO SWIM CHANNEL

Folkestone, England, Aug. 26. (I.N.S.).—Miss Mercedes Glettle, the London stenographer, entered the water at 2 o'clock this afternoon in another attempt to swi mthe English Channel. Conditions were unfavorable.

POSSE HUNTS WOODS FOR THREE LOST BOYS

Gardner, Aug. 26.—Three Gardner boys have been missing since Tuesday and are believed lost in the woods, their parents reported today, and police and a Boy Scout posse began a search.

The boys are: Edward Mulcahy, fifteen; his brother, Raymond, nine, and Edward Cunningham, twelve. The Mulcahy boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mulcahy, living at No. 143 Temples treet, Cunningham, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Cunningham, lives at No. 143 Temple street.

The boys had built a camp in the woods back of their homes and they went into their nods on Tuesday. Edward Mulcahy returned home soon after, made up a lunch of sandwiches and again went into the woods. Since then the three boys have not been seen.

Although Edward Mulcahy is a Boy Scout and the Scout whistle was blown continuously, there came no answer back, which leads to belief that they must have wandered far.

PORTLAND SHIP IN MUD; SIGHTSEERS IN 'PANIC'

Portland, Me., Aug. 26 A.P.).—The large excursion steamer Pilgrim of the Casco Bay line went ashore on House Island, in the lower harbor, today, while moving slowly through a very thick fog on her morning trip to Peaks Island.

The steamer rested easily with her nose in the mud and eel grass at dead low tide and was hauled off shortly afterward by Coast Guard cutter Chicopee. The five passengers aboard were taken the short distance to Forest City landing, Peaks Island.

As an aftermath of the accident a capacity crowd of passengers aboard the smaller steamer Emita of the same line was nearly in a panic later, when they gathered along the port rail in an attempt to see the grounded steamer.

The crew quickly ordered them back to their places.

THE WEATHER
HIGH TIDE
1:46 A. M.
2:19 P. M.
SUN
Rises 6:02 A. M.
Sets 7:30 P. M.
Light AN Vehicles at 8:00 P. M.

CLOUDY FAIR RAIN RAIN COOLER WARMER

TODAY and EVERY DAY THIS WEEK—DAILY STEAMBOAT EXCURSIONS PLYMOUTH
$1.25 ROUND TRIP $1.25
35 Cents Children (5 and Under 12)
Leaving 38 A. M. (Monday to Friday)
Saturday 2 P. M.
Steamers leave from ROWE'S WHARF

FRANKLIN SAVINGS BANK
Inc. 1861
6 PARK SQUARE, BOSTON
Interest Begins Sept. 1

ALA 1907
Our Service Now Covers the United States and Canada
Including legal defense, towing and repair service on the road. Complete towing service—Green Book, maps and many other benefits. Most Complete and Efficient Service Now Offered.
Annual Membership Fee Now $10
Automobile Legal Association
Park Sq. Bldg., Boston, Mass.

Hoodsies each day keep the little folks away. Hood's Vanilla Ice Cream and Orange Sherbet now comes in the exclusive Hoodsie cup.
5¢
Hoodsie

Last Four dividends at rate of 5%. Dividends payable Oct. 15 will also be at the rate of 5%.
Interest Begins Sept. 1
5%
Interest compounded quarterly.
Assets, $6,500,000. Capital, $500,000. Surplus & undivided profits, $150,000.
Send Deposits by Mail
HIGHLAND TRUST COMPANY
Davis Sq., Somerville, Main, Union Sts.

Snap!
That's it—something just a little better than any ginger ale you tasted before!
PUREOXIA GINGER ALE

Fall Is Coming!
Now's the time to buy that new home. Get your family snug and comfortable before the frosts. Look today in the Real Estate Ads for a cozy home suitable to your needs and income.
Class. 78, 82
Classified Ads on the next-to-the-last pages

Today

One Man Enough?
Welcome, the Voice.
The State Kills Also.
Safety in Fear.

—By Arthur Brisbane—

Copyright, 1926, by Star Company.

"MUSSOLINI WILL appoint rulers in each Italian city and town." That is the latest. A Fascist decree is expected, forbidding elections that are pending, putting an end to woman suffrage, and establishing ONE man government—the man being Mussolini.

IN AMERICA we cling to the theory that men can govern themselves, with National Congress, State Legislatures, Boards of Aldermen, etc., the citizens voting—although it must be admitted that many of the poor things don't know why they are voting or what for. Are we right? Is Mussolini right? Who knows?

YOU REMEMBER, in Darwin's "Voyage of the Beagle," his description of the miserable Fuegians, shivering in the cold near the Straits of Magellan. Their trouble, according to Darwin, was that they had an absolute republic. No man was boss, no man ruled. And they all stayed in degradation of flat equality.

They lived under Communism, by the way, and when one got a piece of cloth his companions tore it into shreds, each took a tiny piece and the cloth was worthless to anybody.

WHATEVER OUR defects may be in the United States, we cannot be accused of dividing things up. When an American gets a big piece of anything, he keeps it and add to it.

KRISHNAMURTI IS HERE, with "the voice of the Messiah," and walks ashore, hoping

(Continued on Page 6, Column 4.

Rail and Steamer Excursion to Marthas Vineyard—Nantucket
Boat train leaves Boston 6.05 a. m. Tues., Aug. 31st, returning due Boston 8.15 p. m. Round Trip Fare to Oak Bluffs $2.50, to Nantucket $3.50. Factory Tires. Tickets now on sale Steamer Limited. Purchase in advance at No. Station, Rear Bay of Franklin Street.
The N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. Company.

RUDOLPH VALENTINO'S POPULARITY GREATER THAN EVER NOW THAT HE HAS PASSED TO THE GREAT BEYOND

DAILY SCENE BEFORE MORTUARY ROOMS

Portion of the crowd attempting to gain entrance to the Campbell undertaking rooms in order to view Valentino's body lying in state. Mounted officer on sidewalk is keeping the sheik's admirers back so that the line may be formed.

MOB MILLING TO GAIN ENTRANCE TO CAMPBELL ROOMS

Before police reserves arrived the lone cop at the entrance of the undertaking parlors had the toughest job of his career attempting to exclude the hundreds of film fans pushing forward to gain entrance to view Valentino's remains. (Both photos by Int. Newsreel.)

"FLYING WEDGE" BREAKS IN DOORS TO SEE RUDY

Continued from First Page.

Valentino will be in Italy, the land of his birth, or in America, the land that gave him fame and wealth, will be determined next week when Alberto Guglielmo, his brother, arrives on the liner Homeric.

Pola Negri, who announced some time ago that she was engaged to Valentino, left Hollywood yesterday to attend the funeral. She was accompanied by her secretary and a trained nurse.

Rock Island Railroad officials in Chicago said they had orders to make Miss Negri's trip as comfortable as possible while in their territory, and to honor a return ticket bought by Valentino in Los Angeles if his body is shipped back there from New York.

Before he sailed Guglielmo received a message from the people of California, expressing the hope that "Rudy" would be buried in Los Angeles—near his home and where he toiled before the camera first as an extra and finally as the highest paid actor in the world.

"I am deeply appreciative of the honor California does my brother," Guglielmo said when he had read the message. "They are very kind, but I hope they will not insist upon my making a decision immediately. I must communicate with my sister. Above all, I must take into consideration what would have been my brother's wishes."

The Great Sheik in death received the emotion-hungry crowds Wednesday. Forty-five thousand persons passed by his bier.

The crowds came in single file, swiftly, but not swiftly enough for all to gaze on the lifeless face of Valentino before the doors of the Campbell funeral church were barred to the public at midnight. ground floor that on the first day had been turned into an emergency hospital.

The casket stood in the center against a background of tall palms. At the head was a crucifix and a vigil light and lighted candles. Everywhere were flowers.

The covered part of the casket was draped with a blanket of tiny yellow roses and purple orchids, a blanket so long and broad that it trailed several feet on the floor. Across it ran a violet ribbon bearing in silver the words, "Our Love—Norma and Joe."

"Norma" and "Joe" are Norma Talmadge and her husband, Joseph M. Schenck, Valentino's chief.

SINGLE FLOWER DROPPED.

At the foot of the casket was a gigantic wreath of blood-red roses, tied with great streamers of the Italian national colors, and inscribed in gold letters, "From Benito Mussolini." The flowers were ordered by cable and the New York section of the Fascisti attended to their delivery.

There were innumerable large wreaths and sprays of flowers, most of them sent by professional friends of Valentino, but a few came from unknowns.

Floral tributes continue to pour in. It was estimated that 400 pieces had been ordered from florists and would be arriving every hour.

Mingled with the expensively gotten up designs were here and there bees ordered from florists and floured by weeping women.

More than one single flower was dropped on the unbreakable glass that covers the dead, along with other mementoes.

One woman left there a lace-trimmed handkerchief that had been made in Valentino's native land.

Word came today by cablegram from Paris from Natacha Rambova, formerly winifred Hudnut, Valentino's second wife. It was the first direct word from her and was a brief expression of her regret that he was dead.

Valentino's brother, Alberto Guglielmi, now on the liner Homeric, en route to New York, is not expected to arrive next Wednesday.

The Valentino manager today arranged further details for the funeral next Monday.

There are only 540 seats in St. Malachi's Church where the service will be held.

It was announced that 500 cards would be issued and only those holding the cards will be admitted.

On Tuesday Valentino's body will be placed in a big copper case, sealed, privated, in compliance with the health department regulations and in preparation for its shipment to the final resting place.

Guglielmo Cables Thanks to Hearst

Los Angeles, Aug. 26.—Following cablegram was received today by William Randolph Hearst from Alberto Guglielmo, Valentino's brother:

Paris, France,
August 25, 1926.

"William Randolph Hearst,
"Los Angeles, Calif.

"Grateful and appreciative of your kind sympathy. Knowing my brother's great devotion and friendship to you, I take liberty appealing you co-operate in carrying out what would probably been his last wishes. Understand funeral planned for Monday. Hope it can be deferred until my arrival on Homeric as I would like be present. Request interment plans be delayed until family takes decision. There's not yet been time to secure opinion of my sister in Turin, whom I telegraphed this morning. Death came so suddenly I cannot realize it. With all my gratitude and hoping see you in California,

"Sincerely,
"Alberto Guglielmo."

NATCHA OFFERS FAMILY VAULT

New York, Aug. 26.—A cablegram today from Miss Natcha Rambova to George Ullman offered the use of the Hudnut family vault in Southern California, near Los Angeles, as a final resting place for Rudolph Valentino's body.

She also expressed a desire, Ullman said, that Valentino's body be cremated.

Ullman said that he had replied to this request by saying it was impossible because funeral services for Valentino are to be said in a Roman Catholic church. Before Valentino died he received holy communion.

Several years ago, Ullman revealed, he, Valentino and Miss Rambova were discussing the subject of cremation and, he said, Valentino laughingly made the following remark:

"When I die I'd like to be cremated and have my ashes scattered to the winds."

But, according to Ullman, Valentino did not mean what he said at that time—he was joking.

FUGITIVES OFF FOR CANADA

Machias, Me., Aug. 26 (A.P.).—The five prisoners, who escaped from Washington County Jail Tuesday night, where they were being held for minor offenses, are headed for the Canadian border.

Sheriff James A. Cummings, in expressing this opinion today, said the zone in which the men are located is fast being surrounded and he was confident of their capture within 48 hours.

The jail-breakers were seen as they ventured from the woods and purchased two loaves of bread and some chocolate bars at a road house.

Blazers of Bright Hues Real Thing at Deauville

Deauville, France, Aug. 26 (A.P.)—Blazer coats of bright colored velvets have made their appearance here in ultra-fashionable circles.

These are worn with white and light colored frocks. Bright amber beige seems to be the most favored color. Some women have the blazers in tones to match their gowns.

The classified ads on the next to the last pages will satisfy your every need.

MAN PUTS HIS 5 TOTS IN HOMES

His wife mysteriously missing, Peter J. Nicoletta of Essex court, Cambridge, placed his five children in homes today.

Before bidding the children a sad good-by, he finished ironing their spare clothes which the mother left partly done. To the clamor of the younger children for their absent mother, he could give no answer except tears.

According to Nicoletta's report to the Cambridge police, Mrs. Nicoletta left after telling her oldest son she would never return. The children range in age from two years to ten.

FASCISTI QUIT RUDY'S BIER

New York, Aug. 26 (I.N.S.).—The honor guard of Fascisti at the chapel where Rudolph Valentino's body lay in state was removed today.

This ended a tense situation, but police announced they will be on guard at St. Malachi's Church Monday for the funeral.

Reports that Valentino was anti Fascist and that Premier Mussolini of Italy did not like him were denied by the Valentino manager, who said the recent demonstrations in Italy were not made by the Fascisti, but by hoodlums who were incensed because Valentino had taken out American naturalization papers.

POLA NEGRI ON WAY EAST

Los Angeles, Aug. 26 (I.N.S.)—Pola Negri, bereaved fiancee of the late Rudolph Valentino, is on her way to New York to attend the actor's funeral Monday and to obtain his brother's sanction for the burial of Valentino in Hollywood.

The Polish star was in deep mourning and deathly pale. She wore no veil. She leaned heavily on the arm of Charles Elyton, a studio executive and a close friend, as she entered her compartment at the Southern Pacific station.

Before she entered her compartment, Pola kissed Miss Marion Davies, who accompanied her to the station, and wept openly.

14 FLEE WHEN HOUSE FALLS

Continued from First Page.

sideways, a large crack opened in the wall of a bedroom on the first floor and this noise awakened one of the eight lodgers of Marcus Townsend. He investigated and got someone in the Thomas Motor Company garage to notify the police so the contractor could come and prevent further danger.

Police rushed to the scene and after a quick survey Patrolman James T. McKnight ran through the house warning all the tenants to leave without delay. Besides the nine persons on the first floor, the house was occupied by the family of Ullah Tripp.

The house crashed down sideways like the Pickwick Club building which fell in Boston with a loss of 44 lives on July 4, 1925. Part of it heaped up in the foundation pit, but most of it fell against the garage on the next lot.

There is a used car for every need listed in the classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages.

ACTRESS GRIEVING OVER RUDY IS FOUND DEAD

London, Aug. 26 (A.P.)—The Daily Mirror says Peggy Scott, an actress, 27 years old, who was a friend of Rudolph Valentino, was found dead in her flat in London.

The newspaper does not give the cause of the young woman's death, but it says she had been intensely affected by the illness and death of Valentino, whom she greatly admired.

The Mirror quotes a friend of Miss Scott as saying that she and Valentino met while spending a vacation at Biarritz, that they were often together and at one time there was a rumor of a love affair between them.

Many autographed photos of Valentino are said to have been found in the woman's flat, according to the newspaper, which adds that the police, who were summoned when the body was found, took possession of a number of letters. An inquest will be held.

NOTED STARS OF THE FILM WORLD WHO PRECEDED RUDOLPH VALENTINO ACROSS THE GREAT DIVIDE

BARBARA LA MARR
Noted movie actress, who died in Hollywood last year, following a nervous breakdown.

MARGUERITE MARSH
Famed film star, who died two years at at the age of thirty-three from an attack of pneumonia.

OLIVE THOMAS
First wife of Jack Pickford, died in Paris, a victim of poison, in 1922.

MARTHA MANSFIELD
Screen actress, was burned to death when a cigarette set her clothing on fire.

LUCILLE RICKSEN
Child star, who died at the age of seventeen, when success was actually assured.

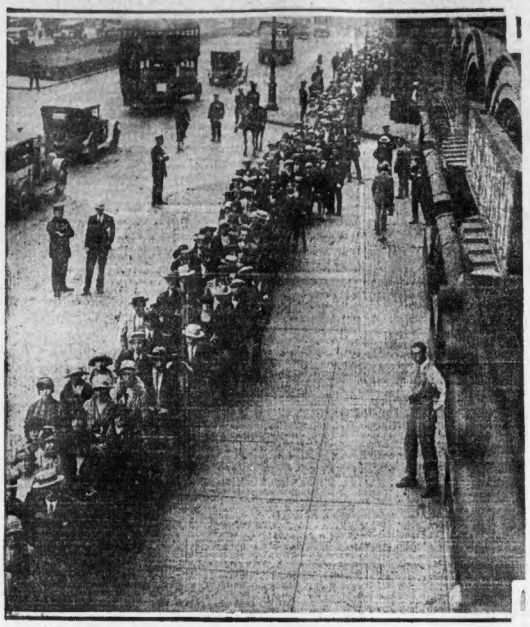
WALLACE REID
Screen's speed king, was drug victim. (All photos by Int. Newsreel.)

All your wants are waiting for you in alphabetical order in the Classified ads.

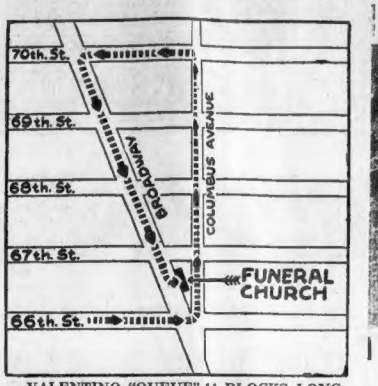
BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
A HOME PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE WHO THINK
BOSTON, THUSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1926

GENERAL NEWS SECTION

FIELD WHERE SWEAT-DRENCHED 'SHEIK' TOILED WHILE NONE LOOKED AND MOBS WHO FIGHT TO SEE HIM NOW



STANDING ALL NIGHT TO IDOLIZE THE DEAD
This photograph shows a part of the line which formed when Rudolph Valentino's body was conveyed to the Campbell Funeral Church, and which has not yet dispersed, although 75,000 have seen him in death.



VALENTINO "QUEUE" 11 BLOCKS LONG
Map of Broadway-Columbus avenue area, showing the stand of the line, eleven blocks long, that waited for many hours to view Valentino's body. —Photos by International Newsreel

CAN YOU VISUALIZE "PERFECT LOVER" AS FARM TOILER?
Photo of fields adjoining the Cornelius Bliss, Jr., estate, Wheatley Hills, L. I., where Rudolph Guglielmi, the unknown, labored by the sweat of his brow for food while no multitude gathered to see him, although he was the same man thousands strive now to see.

THREE HURT AS AUTO HITS POLE

Two men were painfully injured and another received a severe shaking up, early today, when an auto crashed into an electric light pole at Hancock and Bowdoin streets, Dorchester.

Dennis Riley, 24, of Eastman street, Dorchester, is at the City Hospital with two broken legs, and James Clifford, Telegraph street, South Boston, is being treated for a fractured thigh.

George Noble, 21, of Monadnock street, Dorchester, alleged driver of the car, is locked in the Fields Corner station on the charge of being drunk.

The automobile was demolished and the three were thrown clear of it. An additional cause for the accident, police say, may have been that a fog bank covered the road.

Noble escaped without receiving any serious hurts.

Rescue Bather in Fit

Daniel McGaffigan, 33, of No. 11 Winthrop street, Stoneham, while bathing at Sandy Beach, Mystic Lake, Winchester, was seized with a fit and was saved from drowning by Harry Bridges of No. 14 Lloyd street, Winchester, another bather.

WHO AM I? HE ASKED POLICE

Concerted efforts of the police and hospital authorities brought about the identification, early today, of a young man who walked into Lagrange street police station to announce that his mind had gone blank.

Displaying an ugly bump on his head, the man came to Lieutenant Dunlap and said that he had been injured and that his mind had failed him.

An examination of the visitor's head revealed what turned out to be an old fracture of the skull. A birth certificate that was taken from his pocket recorded the name Joseph Kelley.

An old City Hospital record, combined with belief of employes at the hospital that they knew the fellow once, established Kelley's identity.

Dr. Robert Coleman at the City Hospital brought out an X-ray plate, which showed that in 1914 the young man, then 21 years old, was treated at the hospital for skull fracture.

Further probing showed that he had been an employe of the institution.

He is Joseph Kelley, twenty-three years old, No. 6 Gordon street, Jamaica Plain.

Horseshoes! Town Is in Luck! Gets New Smithy

George's Mills, N. H., Aug. 26 (A.P.)—This little hamlet on the shores of Lake Sunapee which came into prominence recently when it advertised for someone to run its blacksmith shop has had its faith in the power of the printed word renewed.

A deluge of inquiries brought a satisfactory applicant who will open the old place. It was announced. The last smithy abandoned his forge three weeks ago when he decided the automobile had killed his business.

4 U. S. SOLONS TAKING PART IN GENEVA PARLEY

Geneva, Switzerland, Aug. 26 (A.P.)—The parliamentary system of Government, disarmament, European customs agreements and codification of international law are among subjects of the agenda of the permanent committee of the interparliamentary union which began sessions today.

American delegates include United States Senator Claude A. Swanson of Virginia and Pat Harrison of Mississippi and Representatives Stephen G. Porter of Pennsylvania and Theodore E. Burton of Ohio.

OFFICER, SHOT, KILLS CRAZED ATTACKER

Half kneeling and nearing a coma with a rifle bullet in his thigh, Patrolman Frank Barber, of Medford, killed Henry D. Hutchinson, fifty-nine, as the latter still menaced him with a rifle.

After firing the shot, Patrolman Barber collapsed and was unconscious when Frank McDonald, of No. 18 Fulton street, witness of part of the affray, reached his side. The patrolman is recovering in Lawrence Memorial Hospital, Medford.

The fight occurred in the yard of Hutchinson's house, No. 50 Fulton street.

The later, a carpenter, apparently had been drinking heavily. McDonald encountered him running about, hatchet in hand, threatening to get someone.

McDonald managed to get the hatchet away from Hutchinson and induced him to return to his house. McDonald later told Patrolman Barber, and Barber went to the house.

A little later Hutchinson again appeared on the street armed with a knife. Barber again went to the house and managed to get the man into his house. Cowering inside were Mrs. Hutchinson, his 22-year-old niece, Miss Kathleen Rooney, and his 90-year-old aunt, Mrs. Kate O'Neil.

Running into the dining room, Hutchinson seized a rifle and followed the patrolman to the door, shouting: "Here's a gun that's never been fired but it's going to be tonight." The bullet entered Barber's thigh.

The policeman pulled his pistol and fired three times, he said, but as the man fired again, Barber killed him.

Walk 4,250 Miles

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Aug. 26 (A.P.)—Guillermo and Jorge Rojas, Chilean pedestrians, have arrived here, completing a hike from Santiago, Chile. The distance covered was about 4,250 miles. They began their walk January 20.

DETECTIVES ON WATCH OVER PRIMARIES

Manchester, N. H., Aug. 26 (A.P.)—The Manchester Union says today that primary campaigns in various states are being watched by detectives employed by an organization of national scope, devoted to clearing up political conditions.

The organization, while not named, was said to be without partisan purpose. The Union declares that its information is based on dependable authority and names William H. Barbour of the William J. Burns Detective Agency as head of a group of 18 detectives operating in New Hampshire.

The detectives have been sent to New Hampshire, according to the Union, "for the express purpose of watching the operations of the candidates in the primary election which comes on September 7 and learning to what extent money is being employed in influencing the result of the election."

"Similar investigation," the article continues, "are in progress in other States where the practice of spending large sums of to procure nomination has been in vogue and the information gleaned will be made public for the guidance of both State legislatures and Congress in dealing with the evil of money-bought nominations under the direct primary."

"DOUG, MARY" BACK IN U. S.

New York, Aug. 26 (I.N.S.)—"Doug and Mary" are home today. They arrived, together with a galaxy of ..., and stage stars, on the White Star liner Majestic, completing a five-months' holiday in France and Italy.

"See you in an hour," a kimonoed Fairbanks told reporters who besieged their suite while the liner lay anchored in Gravesend Bay, waiting for the fog to lift.

Both Doug and his wife, Mary Pickford, were profoundly shocked by the death of Rudolph Valentino, who was a close personal friend. Mary sobbed when the news of the actor's death was flashed out by radio to the Majestic Monday.

"HELLO, HOME! WE ARE GLAD TO BE BACK"

EUROPE'S GOOD, BUT OH, YOU U. S. A.
Douglas Fairbanks and his wife, Mary Pickford, waving howdy to the Statue of Liberty as they steam into New York after a long stay in Europe. —International Newsreel Photo

RAINY SPELL MAY CONTINUE OVER SUNDAY

While the Gulf States emerged today from a tropical hurricane that took at least tone life, drove thousands from their homes, and piled up a heavy property damage, sullen skies lingered over Boston and promised a wet week-end.

Rain clouds also hovered over the greater part of the country with the exception of the southwestern States, where Summer sunshine prevailed.

The forecast for Boston and vicinity reads: Partly cloudy tonight and Friday; not much change in temperature; moderate shifting winds.

The Gulf coast was smitten by a storm which reached the proportions of a hurricane. The storm swept in from the Gulf of Mexico and raged over New Orleans, spending its force inland in Louisiana and Texas. Heavy rain fell in Florida.

A workman at Ship Island, Miss., was killed when struck by a live wire brought down by the gale. The wind reached a velocity of sixty miles an hour. Windows were blown in and roofs torn from houses. More than a score of minor fires were reported in New Orleans as the result of the storm.

Washington, Aug. 26 (A.P.).—The tropical disturbance passed inland early near Morgan City, La., and today was north of New Orleans, the Weather Bureau reported today.

The barometer read 29.60, and the intensity of the disturbance had decreased greatly. Weather officials expect the disturbance to move northeastward attended by rapidly decreasing winds and copious rainfall.

NEW YORKERS BIDDING FOR CHICAGO TRACTION RIGHTS

Chicago, Aug. 26 (A.P.).—A new element has entered the municipal transportation situation in the bid of New York interests for a twenty-year franchise to operate surface car riers. The proposal to Mayor Dever relates to surface cars and city buses, but suggests the proposed organization could readily branch into subway service.

WITH BILL DWYER, GENIAL "BOOTLEG BARON," AT HIS "CASTLE" AT BELLE HARBOR, ON LONG ISLAND

MOWING THE LAWN
William V. "Bill" Dwyer pushing the lawn mower at his home. Above he is seen with one of his prize German police dogs. Photo by I. N. R.

THE LONG ISLAND "CASTLE"
Here "Bill" Dwyer has retired, on $50,000 bail, pending outcome of his appeal from conviction of conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws. He had been in the Tombs. Photo by I. N. R.

TAKING HIS EASE
"Bill" Dwyer likes to occupy an easy chair on the veranda of his home and read his newspaper these while. Photo by I. N. R.

CONTRACTORS CALLED IN BIG GRAFT PROBE

Accountants Check Up Books of Firms Who Sub-Let City Contracts

This was "contractors' day" in the $2,000,000 municipal graft probe being conducted by District Attorney Thomas C. O'Brien. Two groups of contractors that had bid for street paving contracts were summoned—those who secured contracts and sub-let them and those who claim lowest bids were ignored.

Edwin L. Pride, expert accountant who with assistants, has been examining books and accounts in City Hall, today began a careful checking up of the books of contracting firms that were awarded contracts and then turned them over to another local firm.

SUBMITS REPORT.

Mr. Pride has submitted a report of his research in the Public Works Department. It is understood that the evidence discovered warrants Grand Jury action.

Accountant Pride and Guy Emerson, consulting engineer of the Finance Commission held long conferences with District Attorney O'Brien and his assistants, George Alpert and Timothy Callahan.

Frequent visits of Mr. Emerson and obvious indications that street paving contracts figure prominently in the probe revive bitter attacks made on the city paving contracts by the Finance Commission.

MAY AID INQUIRY.

These adverse reports are likely to shower light on the present inquiry, about which District Attorney O'Brien and his assistants are calm.

The Finance Commission in one of its reports said:

"The city paid approximately $3 per square yard for this type of pavement, although the average cost to the contractors—exclusive of profit and some items of overhead—was 75 cents per square yard."

BOOTLEG FREED BY COOLIDGE

Chicago, Aug. 26 (I.N.S.).—Spectators as to how Abe Levin, millionaire Chicago bootlegger was freed from Atlanta Federal Penitentiary two months before he was eligible to parole, was cleared up when it was revealed that he was discharged under a "conditional commutation" granted by President Coolidge.

Levin served only six months. His sentence was for two years with a $10,000 fine. Under the law a Federal prisoner must serve at least one-third of his sentence before becoming eligible for parole.

Chicago friends were wondering today if Levin bought his freedom by making a clean breast of official corruption in Chicago in enforcement of the dry laws.

In Beauty Test

MISS BAY RIDGE

Florence Mayer, 21 and blonde, is the candidate sent from the Bay Ridge section of Brooklyn to compete for the title "Miss America" at the Atlantic City pageant next month.

Can't Have Caddy Until He Pays Alimony

Los Angeles, Aug. 26 (A.P.).—Saul H. Brown, architect and links enthusiast, is under sentence to carry his own golf clubs until his business improves.

Brown was haled into Superior Court to explain a $325 alimony delinquency. He said he had no money.

"You play golf a good deal and you hire a caddy?" an attorney for Mrs. Helen Brown queried.

"The caddy is one expense item you can eliminate," the court put in, and ordered the golfer to catch up with his payments.

SAFE ROBBED AT OLD ORCHARD

Old Orchard, Me., Aug. 26. (A.P.).—Burglars entered the Bowling Cafe during the night, knocked off the combination lock knobs and made away with $1,000 in cash, according to a report made to the police today. Police are guarding the wrecked safe until experts get fingerprints.

MARIE MUST PAY HER WAY; U. S. TO 'BE COURTEOUS'

Washington, Aug. 26. (I.N.S.)—Queen Marie of Rumania will be shown all the courtesy due the head of a friendly State during her proposed tour of the United States, but she will pay her own way.

Officials who have considered just how the royal visitor should be treated were said today to have decided that no obligation rests upon the government to become an official host.

The State Department is still without official intimation of her impending visit.

Hiram Backs Ticket

San Francisco, Aug. 26.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson will make his final address of the State campaign tonight at Dreamland Rink in support of Lieut. Gov. C. C. Young for governor and Robert M. Clarke for U. S. senator.

GEM THIEF GETS 40 YEARS

New York, Aug. 26 (A.P.).—George Cohen of Chicago, who had pleaded guilty to participation in a $18,000 jewel robbery in Maiden Lane last month, was sentenced today to serve forty years in Sing Sing prison.

Cohen admitted taking part in holding up the establishment of Abraham W. Faigin.

OLDEST BANKER, 104, IS HOST TO 5 GENERATIONS

Morristown, N. J., Aug. 26 (I.N.S.). John A. Stewart, chairman of the board of trustees of the United States Trust Company, today celebrated his 104th birthday.

Gathered around the patriarch, who is still active and alert of mind, were five generations of his family. Mr. Stewart is America's oldest banker. He was one of President Lincoln's advisers during the Civil War, and has been an important figure in Wall Street for nearly seventy years.

He retired from active participation in business affairs on his 100th birthday.

DOOLITTLE RECROSSES ANDES INTO CHILE

Santiago, Chile, Aug. 26 (A.P.).—Lieut. James H. Doolittle, American aviator, has returned to Santiago from his flight to La Paz, Bolivia, by way of Antofagasta and back. Owing and coming the aviator had to cross the Andes mountains at an altitude of 15,000 feet.

8 WINTER ST. — Boston's Biggest Upstairs Furriers — KLAFF & MACK — Guarantee LOWEST PRICES Or Your Money Back — Take Elevator to 4th Floor

STORE HOURS: 9 to 7 P. M., including SATURDAY, during this sale.

COME EARLY, but if you can't come early get here before 7 P. M. and we will stay open as long as necessary to permit unhurried selection.

HURRY! Only 5 Days More!

To take advantage of the TREMENDOUS SAVINGS in our

AUGUST SALE of FUR COATS

"The Longer You Delay, The More You'll Pay!"

THIS IS A FUR COAT YEAR! Fashion has discarded the cloth coat and turned the full smile of her approval on the smarter, warmer, longer-wearing and more becoming Fur Coat. Every woman has always wanted a fur coat. This season, no woman will be considered stylishly attired unless she wears a Fur Coat!

CARACUL — Sketched by Newspaper Artist Direct From Coat in Our Stock — $115.

RACCOON — Sketched by Newspaper Artist Direct From Coat in Our Stock — $115.

The TRUTH About The FUR MARKET

For 18 weeks a strike of 20,000 fur workers in New York practically paralyzed the fur industry, the last 5 weeks including the period normally the peak of production. When the men returned to work, several weeks ago, there was no actual manufacturing shortage of 4 MONTHS to be overcome.

Here are the difficulties all the MANUFACTURERS are now facing, which later will result in higher prices, both to dealers and women who want fur coats:

The fur workers received an INCREASE of 10% minimum, which is equal to 20% average. The WORKING TIME WAS CUT 4 HOURS, which means another 10% for the cost of manufacturing.

There is to be NO OVERTIME and NO NEW APPRENTICES until February, 1928, which means a serious curtailment of production because the men who dropped out through economic pressure of a long period of idleness can not be replaced—neither by overtime nor by new help.

The MANUFACTURER is paying the HIGHER PRICES NOW! You can avoid paying higher prices LATER by selecting your Fur Coat NOW—at KLAFF & MACK.

The overwhelming approval of the new model Fur Coats has created a demand absolutely without precedent. There is an actual manufacturing shortage of desirable fur coats NOW. Wholesale prices are rising. The woman who puts off buying NOW will find

PRICES MUCH HIGHER LATER!

Everybody in the fur trade knows this is THE TRUTH! Every coat in our stock could be sold NOW, at wholesale, for more than we paid for it. We could make a nice profit simply by holding our coats and waiting for cold weather to send both the demand and THE PRICES UP. Why don't we do it? Why do we take big newspaper space TO TELL THE TRUTH to the women of New England?

Simply because this organization has always operated on the policy of selling a huge volume of Fur Coats—For CASH only*—at prices that guarantee a worth-while saving to our customers. The present situation, we believe, will cause coats to be MUCH HIGHER LATER—fully 50 PERCENT OR MORE—than the same coats can be bought for now.

We want to keep faith with the women of New England! Their confidence in us in the past has made us the LARGEST Upstairs FURRIERS IN NEW ENGLAND. We don't want YOU, and our many other friends—to come to us later and say: "Why didn't someone, why didn't YOU, tell us THE TRUTH IN TIME?"

We have plenty of Fur Coats NOW—bought months ago—for cash—at prices less than present cost. We tell you THE TRUTH—NOW!—in plenty of time to act. You have 5 MORE DAYS and ALL YOU NEED

To Protect Yourself Against HIGHER PRICES LATER Is

MUSKRAT Natural Golden Silver

CARACUL Gray Brown

HUDSON SEAL (Dyed Muskrat)

NORTHERN SEAL (GENUINE 1st Quality New Zealand Buck Conies)

SUPER-BARGAIN — An assortment of 15 coats, in practically all sizes up to 40, grouped on one rack. Come early for these. (None to dealers.) AMAZING VALUES AT $55

We Are NEVER Undersold!

$5 DEPOSIT Now!

RACCOONS

SQUIRRELS

JAP MINKS

MENDOZA BEAVER (Dyed Hare)

Big Range of STOUTS!

EXTRAORDINARY SPECIAL — A limited number of fur coats, squirrel trimmed, beige squirrel, fox trimmed and fitch trimmed. Sizes up to 40. TO CLOSE OUT QUICK $72.50

TAKE A TAXI at our expense from North or South Station or Boat landing. Tell driver 8 Winter St., pay driver, take receipt, bring to KLAFF & MACK, 4th Floor, and we will refund taxi fare upon purchasing.

★FOR CASH ONLY! Do not expect to buy a Fur Coat at KLAFF & MACK'S "Guaranteed - LOWEST - in - Boston" PRICES—on long-time credit. It can't be done. Your friends will know your fur coat is paid for when you buy at KLAFF & MACK.

FREE STORAGE FOR 2 YEARS

R. R. Fares Allowed Out-of-Town Customers

KLAFF & MACK

THE BIG 4TH FLOOR Furriers

8 Winter St. 4th Floor

2-Year Registered GUARANTEED BOND with Every Fur Coat NOW!

Absolutely

GEM PERFECT

Blue-White

DIAMONDS

At a remarkably low price

Visit our salesrooms and make your own selection from this importation of diamonds. You may also have your choice of a wide variety of the very latest style ring mountings in 14K Solid White Gold. Our Extraordinarily low price for the diamond ring complete is

$85

Money refunded if any of these diamond rings can be duplicated elsewhere for less than $125.00.

Diamonds Sent for Inspection Before Payment, If Desired

Mail Orders Filled

Write for Diamond Catalog

OUR STORE IS OPEN ALL DAY SATURDAY

JASON WEILER & SONS

Manufacturing Wholesale & Retail Jewelers Diamond Importers Since 1870

376 Washington Street

Corner of Franklin—2nd, 3rd and 4th Floors

BOSTON, MASS.

HALL CASE ATTORNEYS IN TILT ON NEW EVIDENCE

Continued from First Page.

Henry Carpender's chauffeur and who was chauffeur for the Halls at the time of the murder, were sitting in the courtroom near the defense counsel.

The defense counsel were: Robert H. McCarter, Timothy N. Pfeiffer, State Senator Clarence Case, Arthur Neilson and Nathaniel Palmer.

With special Prosecutor Simpson were Prosecutor Francis Bergen, of Somerset County, Chief Investigator Patrick Hayes and Inspector John Underwood.

OFFERED FURTHER PROOF

Senator Simpson, before informing the court of the finding of the card, told Robert H. McCarter, former State Attorney General and chief of counsel for the defense, that he did not wish to withhold any information from the defense.

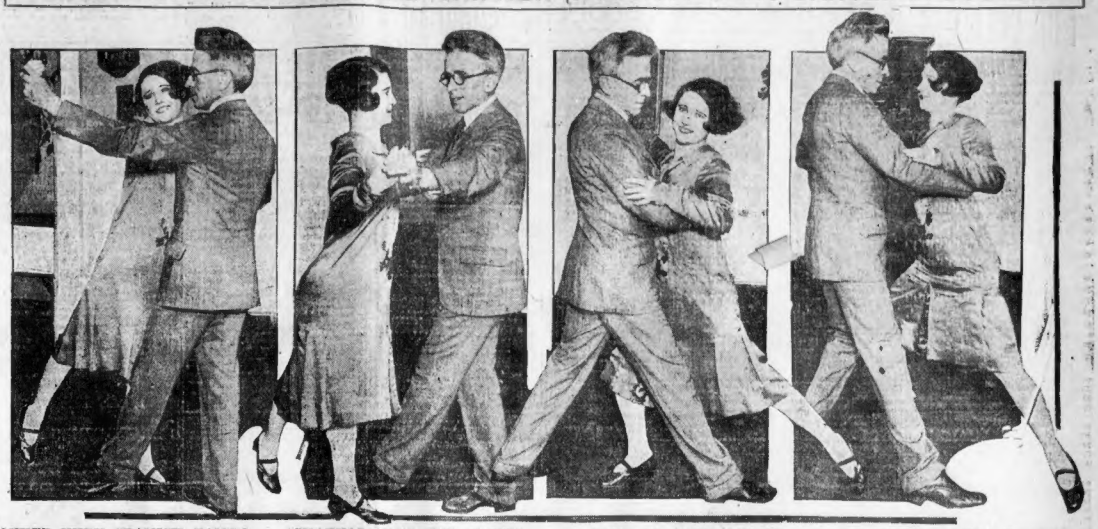
Simpson offered to submit supporting proof to that adduced at the preliminary hearing. This was objected to by Mr. McCarter, who quoted from the records of the hearing in which Simpson said all the State's testimony was in.

Mr. McCarter said he saw no reason for permitting the State to add to the record.

In reply to a question by Senator Simpson, Mr. McCarter declared he did not expect to call any witnesses or submit any affidavits except that one of the defendants .

If you desire a splendid apartment turn to the classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages.

HERE'S CHARLESTON'S RIVAL—THE NEW VALENCIA—BEING DANCED IN BOSTON



MIXED WITH SPANISH TANGO
Miss Peggy McMahon and Edmund Curran showing the new Valencia dance in O'Brien's School of Dancing.

"SKATING INTO THE SLIDE"
Second step of the new Valencia showing the "Valencia slide." This dance is hailed as the rival of the Charleston.

"THE SPANISH BREAK"
This is the third step in the Valencia, hailed by dancing masters for its grace and freedom of movements.

"MILITARY GLIDE FINISH"
This is the final of the four steps which Hub dancers are expected to favor in sounding Charleston craze doom.

Boston Evening American staff photos.

Tuttle's
2 STORES:
604 WASHINGTON ST. WASHINGTON-ESSEX BLDG.
33 SUMMER ST. CORNER OF CHAUNCY ST.

New Fall Models

Smart Black Velours

Illustration shows the cutest hats of the season, finely tailored in quality velour, ornament and grosgrain ribbon trim. Tuttle Price ..... $3.98 Mail Orders No Extra

Both Stores OPEN SATURDAY All Day 9 to 6

You will find the best home bargains in the classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages.

McDADE QUITS; SHIELDS GIRL

Continued from First Page.

uel Silverman, who represented the city, that he would not seek vindication any further, either in the courts or elsewhere.

TELLS OF BOSTON PARTY.

After citing his war service as a captain on the Mexican border and in France, and his promotion to the rank of major during the World War, McDade plunged into his story of the night of Miss Blank's visit to the island.

"Prior to the night in question, Mrs. Campbell complained of being lonesome and said that life on the island was setting her crazy," testified McDade. "She wanted to go up to some of the places her husband had told her he had been prior to their marriage.

"She suggested to me to arrange a party, and, as a result, the four of us, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Miss Blank and I, met that night in Boston and went to a Huntington avenue Chinese restaurant. We had no liquor."

He said that Mrs. Campbell quarreled with her husband during the meal and later, after Mrs. Campbell went out ahead and paid the checks, the party split and the two men returned together to Shirley Gut en route to Deer Island.

"I crossed in the boat with some crackers and cheese and ginger ale, while Campbell waited there for his wife," said McDade. "I went to my room and when I saw lights appear in the Campbell house I went and joined the other three.

COLLAPSED AFTER DRINK.

"I drank no liquor that night. In fact, I have not taken a drink on Deer Island at all. My last drink was several years ago when I left the employ of a Boston concern I had worked for during twenty-one years, and the boys gave me a little party.

"While at the table that night I suddenly saw Mrs. Campbell pouring some stuff from a bottle into my glass. 'For Heaven's sake, what are you doing?' I asked her. She did not reply and I took my glass and tossed the contents into the sink. Then I refilled it with ginger ale.

"But she put some of the stuff into Miss Blank's glass and shortly afterward, Miss Blank became sick and left the room. Mrs. Campbell joined her and put her to bed, saying she was deathly ill. Later we heard a noise in the bedroom and running in found Miss Blank unconscious on the floor.

"Campbell gave her first aid and she came to in ten or fifteen minutes. Afterwards I went to the bedroom door and asked if she felt better and she said she was very sick.

"I went to the kitchen and questioned both the Campbells as to what was put in the glass. 'You must have given her straight alcohol or put something in to knock her out,' I told them. Campbell got angry and I left.

"That is the story of that night and the whole affair as told by the Campbells on the witness stand is untrue."

COMPLAINED ABOUT LIQUOR.

McDade said that as far as he knew, Miss Blank drank but one glass of the ginger ale with the mysterious liquid in it, while he himself and the Campbells drank only ginger ale.

"On several occasions I complained to Penal Institutions Commissioner Chapman and Master Malloy about the use of liquor in the Campbell apartment," he declared. "On one occasion the master came to me and said he had orders to search all officers for liquor and was going to start doing it.

"I said, 'Did you tell Campbell this?' He said he did. I said, 'Well, you might just as well stop searching for liquor, for liquor coming to the island is brought mostly by officers living in Campbell's house. You know as well as I do that drinking parties go on regularly in Campbell's house.'

"Malloy said to me, 'You know the connection with Campbell as well as I do and I am not going to get into any trouble about it.'"

"Did you ever see the master take any liquor?" asked Silverman.

"I would rather not answer that question," replied McDade.

Kay's most Sensational LAMP SALE

A Value and Sale—that eclipses our big lamp sale of several months ago—when we sold out two big lots in 24 hours.

Lamp with Shade 21 inches high

Nearly three times as large as illustration

25¢ DOWN 25¢ a week

$3.95 Only one to a customer

Electric Table Lamps On Sale FRIDAY Come Early

None Sold for Cash

These beautiful lamps are of Art Glass in an assortment of paisley designs in colors of old rose and blue, wired with 5 ft. silk cord and two-piece plugs. 15 in. shade made of asco silk with tinsel braid and floral spray in colors to match the lamps.

Positively unequalled in Boston for value, to our best knowledge and belief.

Open All Day Saturday till 9 P. M. 594 Washington St.

KAY JEWELRY 594 WASHINGTON ST. WASHINGTON-ESSEX BLDG — FORMERLY — SIEGEL BLDG

Open All Day Saturday till 9 P. M. 594 Washington St.

NO MAIL ORDERS

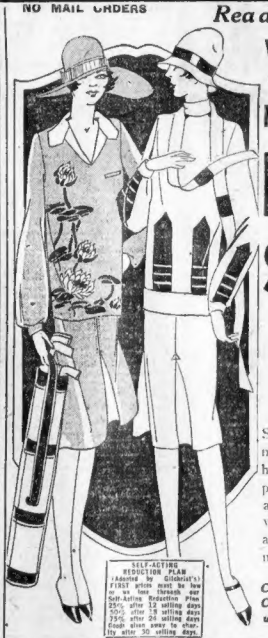
NO PHONE ORDERS

GILCHRIST'S SELF-ACTING BARGAIN REDUCTIONS BASEMENT

Remember! Legal Stamps Mean 2 Percent Additional Saving!

NO MAIL ORDERS

Ready Friday---Sharp at 9



SELF-ACTING REDUCTION PLAN (Adopted by Gilchrist's) FIRST prices must be low as we have through our Self-Acting Reduction Plan 25% after 12 selling days 50% after 24 selling days 75% after 36 selling days Goods sold only at reduced prices after 36 selling days.

Wool, Rayon and Wool TWO-PIECE JERSEY DRESSES $6.99

Sizes 16 to 38 in lot

So popular manufacturers can't make them up fast enough—yet here they are at a decidedly low price. They're ideal for practically all sport and school-time wear. In many new colors—and contrastingly trimmed models.

Colors — Picardy, Toreador Red, Chinese Blue, and Yellow—even white, too!

Makers' Close-Outs

Girls' Wash DRESSES $1.15

Bright figured or "Border" coin dot material—contrasting collars and ties, sash belts. Many smart girlish styles to choose from. 7 to 14 years.

On the Stroke of 9

Big Lot FELT HATS $1.69

Felts in sport models—felts in many other styles. Rose, wood, browns, sand, green, gray and black. Truly a remarkable lot. Don't fail to be here—at 9.

Two Jobbers' Odd Lots— Famous Name Shoes Included

Girls' Shoes $1.69

Patent leather strap pumps with gray kid lining — rubber heels. Sizes 11½ to 2. Also tan leather pumps, novel front buckle or patent leather gore—rubber heels. Sizes 8½ to 2 in lot.

Makers' Odd Lots and Seconds at a Decided Low Price

Women's Shoes

Step-In Strap and Other Styled PUMPS $1.99

Black patent leather, velvet, black or brown satin, blonde, gray or tan leather.

Boston's Only Self-Acting Reduction Basement Giving Legal Stamps

TWO NEW AIDES FOR WILLIAMS

Appointment of two assistants in the office was announced today at the Federal Building by U. S. Attorney Harold P. Williams.

Telephone LeBoutil, a practising attorney of Webster, and John V. Spalding of Newton, at present assistant legal adviser to Prohibition Administrator Parker, are those named by Washington on the recommendation of U. S. Attorney Williams.

The Webster lawyer has been appointed special assistant, while the Newton man will replace Asst. U. S. Atty. Bennett Sanderson, resigned.

Both appointments take effect on September 1 and will increase the legal force in the office of the United States Attorney to ten.

You can't go wrong by following the classified ads on the next to the last pages.

LET US REPAIR YOUR WATCH
Unbreakable Crystals While You Wait
3.00
NOT $2.85 OR $3.50 EACH
Quick Service In Our While-You-Wait Repairing
We are selling these LARGE EYE SKULL TEMPLE SPECTACLES at $3.00—no matter what the other fellow charges. All Glasses Guaranteed whether you pay WILSON BROS. $3, $6, $8, $10, $12, $20 or $25. We have up-to-date facilities and employ Seven Specialists in Optometry who are competent to make careful examination of your eyes when even the most complicated glasses are required. We believe we are doing the largest optical business in Boston. Come and see.
WILSON BROTHERS' BIG JEWELRY STORE
28-30-32 SCOLLAY SQUARE
In a Safe Place to Trade
John W. Wilson Chas. S. Wilson
OPEN SATURDAY NIGHTS

"I'M A DOG-EATIN' FIEND! BRING ON YOUR POSCO!"

Boston Evening American staff photo.

MIKE AND A FLOCK OF "PUPPIES"

Mike Valletta, Summer street barber, is out with a defi to Thomas Posco of Fitchburg for a hot dog-eating contest for the world's championship. "He only ate 46," says Mike. "I'll devour 50 or quit."

KELIHER SAYS 'SHOW ME'

In suport of the old saw that "the proof of the pudding is in the eating," Sheriff John A. Keliher challenges his opponent for the Democratic nomination for sheriff to produce the alleged letter of commendation from New Bedford weavers.

In a tour of house rallies through South Boston, East Boston and Roxbury, the sheriff urged Councillor Curran to "produce the goods."

"Candidate Curran has no such letter and he knows he has not," said Sheriff Keliher. "I have several letters on the subject of his rank betrayal of the weavers of the State—some bearing recent date."

During the closing hour of the drive to enroll prospective voters for the primaries the workers of Attorney William J. Foley, candidate for the Democratic nomination for district attorney of Suffolk County were particularly busy, especially in South Boston.

221,907 TO VOTE.

After the lists closed, it was figured by statisticians enlisted in Mr. Foley's support that there are exactly 221,907 persons entitled to vote in the city at the State primaries on Sept. 14. Of this number 156,841 are men and 64,166 women.

John J. Sullivan of South Boston withdrew in favor of James F. Powers, a neighbor, in the fight for the Democratic nomination for the Governor's Council in the Fourth district. This is the second withdrawal in favor of Candidate Powers, Captain John J. Lydon of South Boston having dropped out two weeks ago.

WILL NOT WITHDRAW.

Thomas D. Lavelle, candidate for the Democratic nomination for district attorney of Suffolk County, at rallies in the South End and Dorchester, again spiked rumors that he is to withdraw in favor of another candidate.

"I assure my friends that the rumor is without foundation. I am in to stay," he said.

William J. Patron, candidate for both the Republican and Democratic nomination for district attorney of Suffolk County, spoke to voters in Jamaica Plain and Hyde Park and promised to appoint a woman assistant if elected.

Daniel W. Harrington, of Roxbury, Democratic candidate for the nomination for sheriff of Suffolk County, is basing his campaign on the claim that he is the only "100 per cent" Democrat among the six candidates for the party delegation.

ONION CROWN HAS GONE TO HOOSIER STATE

Chicago, Aug. 26 (A.P.).—New York State has been deprived of its laurels as the champion onion producer of the country. A report today from the Government Bureau of Agricultural Economics says: "The East seems to be losing prestige. Indiana has apparently gained first place among the main-crop States."

Indications are that the total onion crop of the country this season will exceed 16,000,000, an increase of nearly 10 per cent. over last year. The official forecast is 2,190,00 bushels for Indiana, 2,574,000 for New York.

TODAY

Continued from First Page.

to revitalize faith in the United States.

There was talk, which fortunately came to nothing, about holding up the young Hindu on grounds of "moral turpitude." Aged thirty, weighing only 100 pounds, he is as far from the average idea of turpitude as a new blown buttercup.

COMING FROM India gives him special rights. The greatest Indian prince, the Grand Nawab, has three hundred wives in his Zenana, and considers himself temperate—his father had seven hundred. If he came, we wouldn't keep him out, turpitude or no turpitude. Explain that, and we tried to keep out Lady Cathcart, with no Zenana at all.

EMANUEL SILBERSTEIN, a neurotic youth, aged nineteen, killed his tutor, aged sixty-three, beating him on the head with a hammer, and smiled as he told the judge, "I think it was funny to kill this fellow."

The boy, smiling after committing murder, was once a youthful prodigy, having made effective Liberty Bond speeches at the age of ten.

ALIENISTS WILL examine him. Suppose they declare him sane, what will the State do?

The youth calls it "funny" to kill a man. The State calls it "just and necessary" to kill a murderer. One statement is as preposterous and insane as the other. The State, to discourage murder, proceeds to kill.

AN UNIDENTIFIED man, presumably insane, killed himself and a bank official. Injured 130 in a Pittsburgh bank, by deliberately exploding a bomb with his feet. The bank officials had refused to give him $2,000.

Business men, worried, ask: "How can we protect ourselves against such a threat? The answer is: "Nature protects you, exceptions occur, but generally you need not worry."

THREE PASSIONS rule the human race. First, and strongest, self-preservation; second, reproduction, the family instinct; third, ambition, which moves the whole human family forward.

Men ordinarily will not kick explosive bombs when they cannot get $2,000, because they don't want to kick themselves out of life. Life is not too pleasant, when you need $2,000. But nature's powerful instinct makes you stay and struggle.

Take away the instinct of self-preservation and all life and civilized [illegible] impossible. We would be like wild beasts, hiding from each other.

PROFESSOR WILLIAM Z. RIPLEY of Harvard wants big corporations, with their hundreds of thousands of millions of property, to tell the public exactly what they have, what they own, how much it is worth.

Professor Ripley, if he could make corporations tell all they know, could be a rich professor in a short time. Some stocks selling for a few dollars are actually worth forty times the market price. Of some stocks it is impossible to estimate the value. How could you estimate the wealth that Standard Oil owns below the ground in California, for instance, or how could you estimate the wealth in such a brain as that of Henry Ford?

If you are furnishing a home buy through the classified ads.

HOUGHTON & DUTTON CO.
Legal Stamps Given and Redeemed
Continuing the Advance Sale
Fur Trimmed Fall Coats
Many new models rushed from New York have been added for Friday
$37.50
Collars, cuffs, revers and banding of wolf, fox, Manchurian fur, beaver, dyed rabbit, squirrel, mandel.
Materials include velsheen, arabella, astrulla, venise, broadtail plush, muskrat plush, seal plush, caracul plush, imported tweeds and plaids. Colors are grackle blue, chanel red, black, oak, gypsy, gray. Sizes 16 to 20, 36 to 44 and 42 to 52.
Buy now—Pay November first
A 20% deposit will hold any coat in this sale until November 1st. Charge purchases will appear on bill rendered November 1st.
THIRD FLOOR
Cleanup! Summer Shoes
Our $1.00 to $2.00 kind
Women's white canvas or duck oxfords or strap pumps and white buckskin laced boots. Also misses' white canvas boots.
50c
Our $1.00 to $2.00 kind
Boys' fibre sole oxfords, sizes 1 and 2 only. Boys' and girls' tan leather barefoot sandals, sizes 9 to 11½ only.
69c
Our $1.15 to $1.25 kind
Boys' and Men's white canvas sport shoes, high cut, white rubber soles, sizes 11½ to 6.
95c
STREET FLOOR. No mail, phone or C. O. D. orders
Boys' Four-Pc. Suits
Mothers will appreciate finding such a value in suits just before school opens. Choice of suits with one pair of long trousers and one pair of knickers or two pairs of knickers. Broken lots and patterns, sizes 7 to 17.
$5.69
Boys' Knickers
Mixtures and suiting patterns, lined throughout, sizes 7 to 17
1.29
Boys' Blouses
Fine madras, percales, English cotton broadcloth, blue, white or tan, sport or high necks
69c
All Wool Sweaters
Cricket or sport styles, Indian colors or plaids, sizes 28 to 36
2.98
Wash Suits
Middy or button-on styles, durable fabrics that wash and wear well, sizes 3 to 7..
69c
STREET FLOOR

NEDELL FUR CO. 149 TREMONT STREET
7TH FLOOR, LAWRENCE BUILDING
OPEN SATURDAY
Boston's Greatest AUGUST FUR SALE Final Days!
450 Quality FUR COATS
Come Early
Your Choice for Friday and Saturday
Open Saturday All Day!
$95
Buy Now! Pay Later!
95
Open Saturday All Day!
Values to $195
IN ALL our tremendous purchases made for this great fur season, one group of fur coats stand out as our greatest "scoop." There are only 450 and each one was carefully made by the exclusive manufacturer. In quality and styling they are supreme, but because of Nedell "Value-First" policy they go on sale tomorrow at actually 50% below their real value. Included are 25 EXTRA SIZE STOUT COATS at $95. You Save BIG!
As Sketched $95
Gorgeous Furs
Northern Muskrat Beige Squirrel
Silver Muskrat Russian Pony
Platinum Caracul Marmink (Dyed Marmot)
Natural Opossum Blonde Caracul
Natural Squirrel Black Caracul
PRICED ACCORDING TO FURS
Fine Trimmings
Rose Marten Rich Mink
Beige Squirrel Squirrel
Red Fox Brown Fox
Fine Marten Skunk
Fitch Beaver
EVERY FUR COAT IN THIS SALE CARRIES THE NEDELL ABSOLUTE GUARANTEE
Small Deposit Holds Coat
100's of Styles
Squirrel with Fox Collar $250
Other Great FUR VALUES
Fine Northern Raccoon Coats
In the Tom Boy style. Finest quality pelts. Silk lined. $350 value
$195
Platinum American Broadtail Coats
The newest tailored model. Fitch trimmed. Beautifully made. $425 value
$295
Smart Hudson Seal (Dyed Muskrat) Coats
Straight-line model coat. New shawl collar. Fitch or Beige Squirrel Collar and cuffs. $395 value $195
Extra Fine Cocoa Caracul Coats
Beaver shawl collar. Straight-line model. Highest quality. $450 value $225
Hair Seal Coats
With Fox or Beaver Collar. A popular sport model. Of finest pelts. $400 value $195
Natural Siberian Squirrel Coats
A splendid model, beautifully self trimmed. Gorgeous lines. $595 value $350
Genuine American Mink Coat
Stunning 1927 straight-line models of superb workmanship and highest quality peltries. $1500 value
$950
And Many Other Unequaled Fur Values
AT AUGUST SAVINGS
Our Missy Dept.
A special Fur Coat Department catering to the miss who wears sizes 14 to 18.
All Coats 2 Year Guarantee
Storage Free!
As Sketched $125
NEDELL FUR CO.
149 TREMONT ST.
LAWRENCE BLDG.—COR. WEST ST.
OPP. BOSTON COMMON—Over BOSTON GAS Co.
7TH FLOOR

"MESSIAH" TO "CLEAN" U. S. OF JAZZ

New York, Aug. 26 (A.P.)—Jiddu Krishnamurti, expected by Theosophists to become the vehicle for the spirit that animated Jesus Christ, is here on the messianic mission of redeeming America from jazz and commercialism.

"I do not," he said after his arrival on the liner Majestic, "preach repentance or the remission of sins. I believe it is much more important to lead a good life, refraining from doing hurtful things to yourself and others, being kind and tolerant."

He does not believe he is a second Christ. "No," he said when asked. "But I believe I am to be the vehicle for the world teacher. That spirit has already made use of my body to speak from."

DESCRIBED AS BEAUTIFUL.

Theosophists hold that Jesus became the Christ because the world teacher, My Lord Maitreya, entered his body, and Gautama became the Buddha by the same means.

"I hope to make many radical changes in America's religious life," he said.

Krishnamurti is called by the affectionate diminutive "Krishnaji" by his followers. He is 20 years old, 5 feet 6 inches tall, has blue-black hair, weighs hardly more than 100 pounds, and was described by a feminine fellow passenger as "beautiful," because, it was said, his features have an almost feminine loveliness.

Krishnamurti believes in marriage, but not for himself. He plays tennis, swims, reads a great deal, and finds pleasure in other normal ways, but does not eat meat, drink wine, nor dance. He believes in a cult of beauty and happiness.

SMOKING FOR GIRLS.

"Of course, if people like it, it is all right, and I do not criticize them. However, materialism is only a means to find reality and you should not be swallowed up by it. As long as you dwell on the mental planes of spirituality you can forget materialism. Here in America you concentrate on materialism."

As for girls smoking, Krishnamurti says "that is a matter of taste, but I do not think it is common sense."

The "Messiah's" arrival not only brought forth anonymous protests against his entry on the grounds of moral turpitude which were ignored, but has aroused Protestant pastors at a general Bible conference at Stony Brook, N. Y.

Dr. David G. Wylie, secretary of a Presbyterian board, branded Krishnamurti as "ridiculous," and his doctrine as ancient Hindu beliefs dressed up for modern use. Dr. John F. Carson of the Central Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn, dismissed Krishnamurti with a satirical appeal to Barnum.

LUTHERANS PLAN TO JOIN GENERAL BODIES

Columbus, O., Aug. 26 (A.P.)—The merging of the three general bodies of the Lutheran Church, the Iowa, Buffalo and joint Ohio and other States synods, was the most important question before 300 delegates and 200 visitors here for the 48th regular convention of the Evangelical Lutheran joint Synod.

The union plan has progressed to the stage where a constitution has been worked out, a name—The Evangelical Lutheran Synod of America—tentatively agreed upon, and Toledo, Ohio, selected as a place for joint meetings in August, 1927, if the Buffalo joint synod approves.

FOREST FIRES MENACE HUGE AREA IN 5 STATES

Missoula, Mont., Aug. 26 (A.P.)—Forest fire conditions, which had improved, are again becoming serious in Montana, northern Idaho and eastern Washington, due to a recurrence of dryness and heat. Fires also are reported out of control in Nevada and California. Several farmhouses have been destroyed near Doyle, Nev. The largest blaze is in the Antelope Mountain region, northwest of Reno. One thousand men are fighting this fire.

As He Enters U.S.

"NEW MESSIAH"
How Jiddu Krishnamurti looked when he arrived in New York. "Beautiful," one of the other passengers on the boat described him.

$15,000 MSS. STOLEN IN N.Y.

New York, Aug. 26 (A.P.)—A 500-year-old religious manuscript valued at $15,000 has been stolen from the National Arts Club. It is the most valuable of the $2,000,000 collection of Dr. Otto H. F. Vollbehr of Germany, who has offered a $1,000 reward for its recovery.

The manuscript, "The Book of Hours," was written in Latin and especially illuminated in the Fifteenth Century for the ancient S'Forza family of Italy. It contained four miniatures by Attavanti Degli Attavanti, foremost Florentine miniaturist of his time.

Dr. Vollbehr exhibited his collection at the recent Eucharistic Congress in Chicago and presented several manuscripts of medieval Popes to Cardinal Mundelein. Colonel Edwin Emerson persuaded him to exhibit the collection at the Arts Club here.

Miss Ruth Raymond, in charge of the exhibit at the club recalled she had seen a man peering furtively at the manuscript. She gave a description of him.

If you desire a splendid apartment, turn to the classified ads on the next to the last pages.

CHAS. P. DOLAN & SON

CHAS. P. DOLAN WM. C. "BILL" DOLAN

One Year to Pay

Hudson Seal Coats

(DYED MUSKRAT)

Is recognized each year as the leader among furs

A good, honest-made Hudson Seal (Dyed Muskrat) coat is highly recommended by us to all our customers, provided they secure a good one. What has hurt the reputation of Hudson Seals among thousands of buyers is the fact, which we find by coming in contact with hundreds of coats during our storage and repair season, that they have purchased a very poor grade at a price which they thought was attractive, believing that if the coat had the name of a Hudson Seal that one was just as good as another.

Each customer must have protection as to the danger of burnt skins, Canadian skins, kit skins, flat skins, throw-outs, etc., etc., etc.

With our money-back guarantee every buyer is fully protected.

OUR SLOGAN—

Our Reputation Is Our Success
Guarding Same Is Your Protection

110 Tremont St., at Bromfield, Third Floor

Rooms 308-310-320 Phone Liberty 8724

The Ken Dolan Dress Co., 110 Tremont St., 4th Floor, opens its doors September 1st, 1926, with a most wonderful offering of snappy dresses at popular prices—$15 and up.

COATS DRESSES

WRAPS FURS

"We Say It With Values"

Palmer

A Fine Pair of SILK HOSE Will Be Given Free To Every Purchaser of a $3.95 Dress or Other Garment

A Fine Pair of SILK HOSE Will Be Given Free To Every Purchaser of a $3.95 Dress or Other Garment

521 WASHINGTON ST.

Opens Tomorrow!

Thrift! Style! Satisfaction!

PALMER Patrons In Other Cities Pass This Guarantee On to the Women of Boston

If you are a thrifty, keen, discriminating buyer; if you appreciate style and are looking for complete satisfaction, then this invitation is addressed personally to YOU!

"Come to The PALMER Grand Opening Tomorrow!"

When the doors at 521 Washington St. open wide at 9 a. m., the door to Thrift, Style and Satisfaction has opened, for the women of Boston. And never have these qualities been housed in a more beautiful setting. We feel that this new PALMER store, in its every detail, represents a fitting environment for the splendid type of merchandise displayed. And what an assemblage of garments we have waiting for you on this opening occasion. From the most elaborate gowns for afternoon and evening wear, to the simplest, though stylish little frocks; from the tailored sports Coat to the gorgeous fur-trimmed Wraps—they are all here, marvelous values, at prices that carry out the PALMER slogan—"Thrift."

For years PALMER has been a name dear to the heart of thrifty women in the great Eastern cities. The gospel: "We Say It With Values," which the Palmer organization has always preached, has been well practiced. And now we are ready to make the slogan good in Boston.

The Great Buying Power of the PALMER organization makes it possible to give each of its branches values that are unheard of in the cities wherein they are located. Buying most, naturally PALMER buys for less, and selling most, naturally PALMER sells for less. And the gain is yours!

Satisfaction Guaranteed or Money Refunded has been an iron-bound PALMER policy and will be strictly adhered to at the new PALMER store at 521 Washington St.. If there is ever an occasion—which we hardly think possible—when you do not get 100% satisfaction from any garment bought at the new PALMER store, we insist that you bring it back and your money will be cheerfully refunded. This Satisfaction is one of our cardinal principles.

To please our patrons is our greatest aim.
On these things—good values and complete satisfaction—Palmer has built its business.

And Speaking of Style—the same immense buying power as the Palmer commands makes it possible to keep Palmer buyers located in the style centers of the world. This assures you that every garment you buy from Palmer is newest in style as well as the lowest in price.

Whether you make your purchase at the Palmer Store on the main floor or in the Basement shop, you must be certain of this: that you are getting the very finest value possible to offer for the price asked.

Be on hand TOMORROW! We Will Present Sensational Values During Our OPENING DAYS.

Extraordinary Feature For Grand Opening!

TO PROVE "WE SAY IT WITH VALUES"
A BEAUTIFUL LINE OF NEW FALL DRESSES

TO the thousands of thrifty women who will visit the new Palmer store on opening days, we are announcing this unusual—this sensational offer.

A beautiful line of stunning new sport dresses for immediate and autumn wear. Dresses made to sell at the regular price of $10.00 to $12.95, but on opening days Palmer offers them for only $3.95.

Remember—you never again will be able to take advantage of such rare value. This outstanding offer is made to acquaint Boston women with this Palmer Policy.

$3.95

"We Say It With Values"

MISS JOHNSON RE-APPOINTED

Miss Ethel M. Johnson, a holdover in the office of assistant commissioner of labor and industries since June 27, was re-appointed to the position by Governor Fuller.

Other appointments and re-appointments made by the Governor were S. Chase Tucker, Peabody, associate medical examiner, Eighth Essex District; Nathaniel K. Noyes, associate medical examiner, Third Plymouth District; George S. Houghton of Somerville, board of registration in optometry.

Andrew H. Hodgdon, Dedham, medical examiner First Norfolk District; Richmond B. Rost, Georgetown, medical examiner, Sixth Essex District; William P. Stetson, Cumminglton, associate medical examiner, First Hampshire District; Harold J. Burdick, Monson, special Justice District Court of Eastern Hampden, vice Hobson, promoted.

Warkin W. Roberts of Lawrence, clerk of District Court of Lawrence, vice Nathaniel E. Rankin, deceased; Benjamin B. Earl, Fall River, commissioner to qualify public officers, vice Henry F. Earl, resigned; Timothy M. Hayes, Greenfield, special Justice District Court of Franklin, vice Conant, resigned; Edward D. Pratt, Hingham, justice of the Second District Court of Plymouth, vice Kelley, resigned.

SAFETY PIN REMOVED WITHOUT OPERATION

Worcester, Aug. 26—Physicians at the Memorial Hospital have succeeded in removing the open safety pin which little Frank Ellis, 2 years old, of No. 6 Ripley street, swallowed several days ago without resorting to a major operation.

The little boy has returned home and was reported as having suffered no ill effects as a result of the pin being removed.

FLAPPERS BUY GERMAN DOPE

Large quantities of narcotic drugs for distribution among Boston girls and youths are being imported from Germany in falsely labeled tin cans, with a Roxbury man as the local receiving agent, according to information gathered by the police in an investigation of the "dope" situation in the South End.

Authorities are working desperately to run down their meagre clues, because of the discovery that young girls of the "flapper" type, some of them no more than 14 or 15 years old, are among the largest purchasers of narcotics here.

Stories told Special Officers Di Sessa and Joyce by drug addicts regarding the source of supply were so fantastic in cases that they appeared to be the imagery of drug-laden brains, but addicts now under treatment and recovering could not be shaken in their tale of the foreign origin of much of the narcotics. Federal agents are now at work on this angle.

The "dope" is said to be carefully concealed in the centre of cans containing legitimate merchandise.

The arrest of Moses Graham, alleged drug pedlar, is only one move in the drive to stop drug selling here, the police say. Girls still in their "teens" are said to be ready to testify against Graham. He is held in $25,000 bail, the highest ever fixed in Boston on a similar charge.

BUTLER SPEAKS AT MARSHFIELD FAIR

Marshfield, Aug. 26—Today is "political day" at the Marshfield fair, with Senator William M. Butler scheduled as the principal speaker. Trotting races begin today.

The opening of the annual fair found a large crowd on hand to view the exhibits, enjoy the concessions and the vaudeville and auto polo.

NEW ALL-STEEL ESSEX COACH ON DISPLAY

UNIQUE GILCHRIST LOBBY ATTRACTION

The new Essex coach is attracting thousands as it stands in the lobby of the main entrance of the Gilchrist store at Winter and Washington streets. This department store is the first on record to maintain a motor car division.

YOUTH, ACCIDENTALLY SHOT BY BROTHER, DIES

Watertown, N. Y., Aug. 26—Harry McDonald, 14, of No. 319 Main street, was shot and fatally injured by a charge from a shotgun in the hands of his 16-year-old brother, William McDonald. The boys had been shooting at a target. The shooting was adjudged accidental by police.

"BILL" SOMERS JOINS GRANDFATHER CLASS

Now it's Grandfather "Bill" Somers of the Boston Press Club. Mrs. Arthur Gillis of Medford, daughter of the noted former Boston newspaper photographer, is the mother of a baby girl, born at the Lawrence Memorial Medford.

UPRIGHT AND PLAYER BARGAINS

J. P. COLLINS

1926 New Uprights, Players and Baby Grands at Great Sacrifice

Good Allowance on Your Old Piano

Underselling All Dealers

A Good Used Player Is Better Than a Poor New One

As Low as $5 Down—$1 a Week Free Delivery in N. E.

CHICKERING UPRIGHT ..$46
CHICKERING BABY GRAND 150
CHICKERING PLAYER ... 221
VOSE UPRIGHT 55
VOSE PLAYER $219
H. F. MILLER UPRIGHT.. 79
H. F. MILLER PLAYER.. 221
GULBRANSEN PLAYER .. 186

J. P. COLLINS Open Daily 8 A.M. Till 9 P.M.
100 SUMMER ST.—COR. DEVONSHIRE

Greatest Shoe Values

Velvet Oxfords Spike Heels

Velvet Opera Pumps

Satin Strap Pumps

SHOWING THOUSANDS OF PAIRS AND HUNDREDS OF STYLES AT $2.95

No More No Less

Open Saturday Until 9 P. M.

Revealing to women the newest, smartest and most desirable novelties correct for now and later. These marvelous shoe styles and wonderful values are the result of the work of the keenest shoe manufacturers in the country. Hundreds of styles in stock in splendid size and width ranges.

Black Kid Patent Leather Black Satin Russia Calf
Tolvoe Reptile Spike, Cuban Heels
Stop-Ins Sandals Strap Pumps Oxfords

Mail Orders Filled 10 cents Extra

PUBLIC SHOE MART, INC.
572 Washington Street Opp. Avery Street

Advertise Your Wants in the Boston Evening American

BOSTON FUR SHOP, 453 WASHINGTON ST.
SALE STARTS FRIDAY AT 9 SHARP! OPEN SATURDAY ALL DAY!

An Amazing Offer, In the August Sale

FINAL DAYS FUR COATS FINAL DAYS

Made to Sell for Higher Prices

BOSTON FUR SHOP

Actual Savings 1-4 to 1-3 off Sept. Prices! Buy Now! Final Days!

In this extraordinary August Sale offering tomorrow you may buy an exceptionally fine fur coat at about the price of a good cloth coat. Open Saturday.

Buy Now—Pay Later
Convenient Deferred Payments Arranged

Special "Sample" Purchase! New 1927 Styles—All Sizes

Genuine Muskrats
Mendoza Beaver (Dyed Hare)
Northern Seals (Dyed Belgian Hare)
Beautiful Squirrel, Fox, Beaver and Skunk Trimmed
Natural Muskrats
Marminks (Dyed Marmot)
Squirrelines (Dyed Coney)
Caracul Coats

OPEN SATURDAY ALL DAY

25% to 50% SAVINGS OVER SEPT. PRICES

FINAL DAYS DO NOT Confuse These With Ordinary $100 Coats

WE RESERVE ANY COAT

MOSTLY ONE-OF-A-KIND "SAMPLE" MODELS All brand new perfect 1927 models

Never Before Such Values!
PRICES ADVANCE 25% TO 50% SEPT.—BUY NOW—PAY LATER

SPECIAL! Beaver—Squirrel Hudson Seal (Dyed Muskrat) Broadtail—Caracul—Opossum Raccoon—Nutria STARTING AS LOW AS $125 According to Fur

BUY NOW! PAY LATER!

All Coats sketched from stock

Sketched from stock

BOSTON FUR SHOP
3RD FLOOR 453 WASHINGTON ST.
DEXTER BLDG.—OPP. JORDAN MARSH CO

"BOSTON'S BIGGEST, BUSIEST UPSTAIRS EXCLUSIVE FURRIERS"

No Idle Water!

THE ALUMINUM REVOLVING DISKS GIVE AN UNUSUALLY TURBULENT WATER ACTION
NO WATER LINE
THE MAYTAG TUB CAN BE FILLED TO THE BRIM

THE scientific design of the Maytag cast aluminum tub, together with the gyratator action, creates an unusually cleansing, more turbulent water condition in every inch of the tub all of the time. A water action that puts every drop of water—every bit of soap suds to work.

This more cleansing water action, found only in the Maytag, washes clothes clean in half the usual time—washes bigger tubfuls in but 3 to 7 minutes. Does a whole washing—50 pounds of clothes (dry weight) in one short hour. Washes everything without hand-rubbing—even collars, cuffs and wristbands.

The Maytag has no waterline. A few pieces are washed just as effectively in a pailful of water as a big tubful of clothes are washed with the tub filled to the brim.

Phone the nearest Maytag dealer! Use a Maytag in your own home without obligation or expense. Test it thoroughly. Compare it with other washers. If the Maytag doesn't sell itself, don't keep it.

Maytag
Aluminum Washer

ARLINGTON—H. C. Stanley Co., 346 Mass. Ave.
CAMBRIDGE—Anthony B. Cassidy, Inc., 1910 Mass. Ave.
FRAMINGHAM—Framingham Maytag Co.
HYDE PARK—E. C. Clark, 1201 River St.
JAMAICA PLAIN—Maytag Sales Co., Inc., 460 Centre St.
MALDEN—Malden Maytag Co., 511 Main St.
MELROSE—S. S. Porter, 954 Main St.
NORWOOD—Norwood Maytag Shop
QUINCY—Quincy Maytag Store, 1604 Hancock St.
WALTHAM—Waltham Maytag Co., 712 Main St.

CHURCH WILL HAVE BAZAAR

With games, a midway and a stellar musical program as attractions, parishioners of the Church of Our Lady of the Annunciation, Harrison avenue, South End, will stage a bazaar and reunion from August 30 to September 4 at the Tyler street playgrounds.

The affair is to furnish funds for necessary repairs to the church, as well as the installation of a boiler needed for the approaching Winter. Rt. Rev. Peter Ahonzeld, S. S., is pastor of the church. It is his wish that out of town friends of the church combine with the efforts of parishioners to make the event successful.

WINTHROP MAN DROPS IN STORE AND DIES

Dwight M. Dickenson, fifty-seven, of No. 61 Sargent street, Winthrop, was taken suddenly ill and collapsed today in a store at No. 1 North Market street, and died a few minutes later while on the way to Haymarket Relief Hospital in an ambulance.

Death is believed to be due to natural causes. The body was removed to the Northern Mortuary and Medical Examiner George B. Magrath was notified.

OGDEN MILLS IS TO AID OUTING

Congressman Ogden Mills of New York will be the headliner at the Republican outing on Wednesday, Sept. 1, at Norumbega Park. The State committee, city and town committees and local Republican clubs are co-operating in arranging the event. The program includes luncheon, music, motion pictures and vaudeville. Speakers in addition to Congressman Mills will be Senator William M. Butler, Governor Alvan T. Fuller and Lieutenant-Governor Frank G. Allen.

TRAFFIC ORDER FOR AIRMEN ANNOUNCED

Washington, Aug. 26.—The air traffic "ordinance" has arrived. An Army order issued by Major-General Mason Patrick, chief of the air service, directs flyers to keep to the right while flying over organized air routes, following railroads, rivers and section lines. Aviators are informed they will be held strictly accountable for observing this primary traffic rule.

Timely Tips From Today's Classified Ads

Reward for Return of Bar Pin

Diamond set in two gold buttercups. Lost in shopping district August 16.

* * *

1924 Hupmobile Coupe

Car has been repainted and has seat covers. Many extras. A real buy at $465. Liberal terms.

* * *

Barber Shop For Sale

Barber shop with all modern equipment, located in office building on School street, for sale at a bargain price.

* * *

Dorchester Investment Bargain

Price reduced on this 12-apt. brick block from $50,000 to $45,000; mortgages $40,000; situated in the best section of Dorchester; four and five-room flats; all modern improvements; 12 separate steam heaters, electric lights and open plumbing.

(For the names and addresses of the above advertisers and scores of other opportunities, see the American and Advertiser Classified Ads.)

MEXICO FACES 'DARK AGES IF CHURCH WINS'

Mexico City, Aug. 24 (A.P.).—According to El Universal, Secretary of the Interior Tejd says he is opposed to any changes of the religious clauses of the constitution which have brought about the present discord between the Catholic church and the government and which the church purposes to endeavor to have amended or repealed by Congress.

The secretary said an amendment of the religious section of the constitution would "throw Mexico back to the dark ages."

The committee of the Catholic episcopate today was still studying various aspects of the situation and going through the details of the memorial which is to be presented to Congress seeking a change in the religious clause.

The business slump due to the economic boycott called by the League for Defense of Religious Freedom is growing and the prevalent opinion among business men is that unless some solution of the controversy is reached there is a serious prospect for general business.

Crawled Miles

LIEUT. BETTIS

Army ace, who was seriously injured when his plane crashed in the mountains of Pennsylvania.

Bellefonte, Pa., Aug. 24 (A.P.).—Lieutenant Cyrus K. Bettis, the army's flying ace, may recover, but he lies here severely injured in Centre County Hospital.

Although he received a fracture of both jaws, a broken leg and lacerations on the head and face when his plane struck, he crawled and hopped four miles down the rough mountainside until he reached a road where he awaited help that he knew would come.

Today it was planned to remove Lieut. Bettis to the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington. Lieut. Williams said the hospital transport would be here today provided weather conditions were favorable for flying.

3,500 KNIGHTS IN PARADE

Braving threatening skies, 3,500 Knights Templars attending the colored Masons' convention here, today marched in a long line through the principal streets of the city.

The parade, which began at noon, formed at Douglas square and followed the same route which the Shriners took in their parade yesterday. The marchers wore ritual uniform of the organization, dark blue military suits, with white-plumed hats. The line swung down Fremont street, through the business section, up School street and from there to the Arena by way of Huntington avenue.

Members of the City Council reviewed the parade at the City Hall, while Governor Fuller and his staff watched it from the State House. Officials of the organization were posted at the Boston Public Library to review the marchers.

Howard W. Pinn of Boston, as grand marshal, led the column. In the van with him were Robert J. Ellington, Civil War veteran, and Joe Evans, assistant marshals. The Massachusetts, Illinois, Rhode Island and Pennsylvania Templars' bands followed the 377th regimental band at the head of the column.

Women visitors to the convention, representing the Heroines of Templar Crusaders and the Grand Court Order of Cyrene, followed in automobiles, which trailed the scores of cars bearing officials.

Fine sense and exalted sense are not half so useful as common sense; there are forty men of wit for one man of good sense.

FRENCH LINER GOES ON ROCKS

Corunna, Spain, Aug. 24.—The French steamer Espagne suffered damage today when she struck the rocks on entering the port here. There were no casualties.

There were 1,000 passengers.

The damage to the hull was considerable. The steamer will remain here for repairs before proceeding.

The Espagne was bound from Vera Cruz and Havana for St. Nazaire, France.

The accident occurred in a heavy fog.

The Espagne, a vessel of 5649 tons, is reported to have been taken in tow.

The classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages are a silent salesroom for anything you might need.

WRIST WATCHES FOR MEN RETURN TO FAVOR

New York, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Shortly after the war wrist watches for men were discarded and the fad suffered shellshock in a violent form. But recently the wrist watch has apparently come back and this time it would seem to be dated up for a long stay.

Men claim they like the wrist watch because it gives them an extra vest pocket and does away with carrying the watch in the upper left hand pocket of the jacket in the Summer. The wrist watch appears to be a space conserver.

The new wrist watches for men feature instead of a leather band a gold platinum or silver chain that looks very much like a bracelet.

The women wear slave anklets and the men wear wrist bracelets and when they become frolicsome they exchange one for the other and consider the romance at its peak.

ASKS SUPERIOR COURT FOR BOATHOUSE REMOVAL

The boathouse and floats of the St. Alphonsus Athletic Association on the Charles river stand in the way of constructing the new Cottage Farm bridge, and the Metropolitan District Commission has asked the Superior Court to order the removal of the boathouse, and a part of the same which has fallen into the river since Aug. 12, when the commission revoked the permit previously granted to the association.

Where are you living? Want a better home? Turn to the classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages.

CHINESE "RED" ARMY MARCHES ON WU-CHANG

Hankow, China, Aug. 24 (A.P.).—It is reported that the Cantonese "Red" army has followed up its recent successes against the Tangtse Valley forces of the allied Hunan army, commanded by Marshal Wu Pei-Fu, overlord of central China.

The "Red" army, commanded by Tang Seng-Chi, is said to have captured Yp Chow and to be advancing toward Wu-Chang, on the southern side of the Yangtse opposite Hankow, where General Marshal Wu fought refuge a few days ago to reorganize the southern allied army.

OFFER $1,000 TO IDENTIFY SLAIN BANK BOMBER

Pittsburgh, Aug. 24 (A.P.).—Spurred on by posting a $1,000 reward, police investigating the bombing of the Farmers' Deposit Savings Bank today redoubled their efforts to identify the bomber whose body lies in the city morgue. The reward was offered by the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times for information leading to identification of the man who set off the bomb which brought death to himself and to a special policeman. More than a score of others were injured in the blast.

ICED "SALADA"
TEA
Quenches thirst on hot days.
U108

MAJESTIC FUR SHOP
SENSATIONAL FUR BUY!
For This Week Only
Every Coat Guaranteed for 2 Years
Northern Seal
(Dyed Mare)
Squirrel Trimmed
$75
This coat will sell for $110 after this week.
Northern Seal
(Dyed Mare)
With Mink Trimmings
$125
This Coat Will Sell for $165 After This Week
Open Daily Till 6:30 P. M.
Saturdays Till 7 P. M.
MAJESTIC FUR SHOP
7TH FLOOR
41 WINTER ST. BOSTON

OPEN ALL DAY SATURDAY UNTIL 9 P. M.
WITH REDUCTIONS AS HIGH AS 50%
MORGANS' $500,000.00 AUGUST FURNITURE SALE!
Greater Savings! Greater Values! Hundreds of them—as this great August Sale gains momentum! That's the result of our tremendous efforts and months of planning to make this without doubt our Greatest August Sale!
$25 DOWN DELIVERS THIS OUTFIT

7 PIECES—
Jacquard Living Room
We recommend this suite as an exceptional value at this low price. Upholstered in the popular Jacquard, with removable spring cushions. Expertly constructed in exquisite Empire Period design with handsomely carved frame and is built to render long service.
—Davenport Table
—Floor Lamp
—Velour Rug
—Handsome Pictures
—Club Chair
—Wing Chair
—Divan
$139
EASY TERMS

10 PIECES for the Chamber
Another graceful and distinctive creation for the bedroom at a price that means a very substantial saving—scattered dynamore overlays give a rich, distinctive effect. Be sure to see this splendid suite for value—substantially constructed in Walnut Veneers combined with American Gumwood. A rare bargain at this price.
—Roll-edge 6" Box Mattress
—Pair Pillows
—Beautiful Picture
—Spring—Wardrobe
—Dresser
—Bow-End Bed
—Vanity Case
—Rug
$137
EASY TERMS

13 PIECES for the DINING ROOM
A splendid Italian design dining room suite. It is constructed in beautifully high-lighted Walnut Veneers combined with American Gumwood. This suite is offered at an unusually low price for furniture of such superfine quality. You will make no mistake in purchasing this suite for your Dining Room.
9'x12' Art Rug
—Beautiful Picture
—Buffet
—Table
—Server
—China Cabinet
—Host Chair
—5 Side Chairs
—Buffet Mirror
$135
EASY TERMS

THE "ROOSEVELT"
4 ROOMS AS SHOWN
$450
EASY TERMS

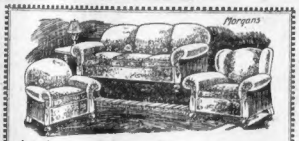
A Complete Kitchen
Kitchen Cabinet
4-Piece Breakfast Set
Ice Chest
Kitchen Cabinet—Fitted with flour bin, cup, boards, bread and spice box, etc. 4-Piece Breakfast Set, including the ever popular Drop-leaf Table and a 2-Door Standard Refrigerator. Pieces may be bought separately if desired.
$49
EASY TERMS

ROOMS SOLD SEPARATELY IF DESIRED

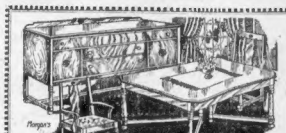
A Typical August Sale Value!
A real money-saving opportunity is offered home-lovers in this splendid bedroom value! It consists of a Bow-end Bed, Dresser and chiffonier of extreme fine design. A suite that will furnish that spare room exactly but economically. You must see this suite to actually appreciate the great savings.
Less Than 3 pieces may be had if desired.
$45
Easy Terms

A LARGE SHIPMENT OF PICTURES

Sizes 13½"x19½"
Many Different Subjects
All wood frame, polychrome finished—colored to match prints.
Only One to a Customer
98c



An August Living Room Bargain!
A wonderful value at its regular price. This sale marking makes it really sensational bargains! A complete 3-Piece Living Room Suite at only $55. Includes deep, comfortable Divan, Club Chair and Wing Chair—handsomely upholstered with coil-spring backs and spring seats.
Less Than Three Pieces May Be Had If Desired
$55
Easy Terms



Another August Sale Special!
We strongly recommend this modified Italian design suite for its excellence of workmanship and its remarkably low price. This suite consists of a Buffet, an oblong Extension Table, an Arm Chair and five Side Chairs. You owe it to yourself to see this fine August value!
China Cabinet and Server to Match If Desired
$65
Easy Terms

LIBERAL CREDIT
We have no hard, fast, stipulated rules—we aim to arrange terms to suit each customer. There is no set, specified amount required for your down payment or weekly or monthly terms. No Red Tape. Just an agreement between Two Honest Persons.

Visit Our Radio Department
We carry a complete line of——Freshman —Chelsea —Browning-Drake
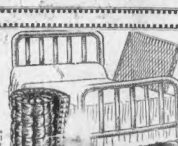
—Hudson Super —Atwater Kent —Sonora
NATIONALLY KNOWN RADIO SETS

3-PIECE BED OUTFIT
14.98
Easy Terms
Strongly Built Pieces. Metal Bed—National fasting and sanitary Mattress. Choice of finishes—all sizes.
Pieces May Be Bought Separately If Desired



Famous Sunkist Mattress

ANOTHER SHIPMENT!
Davenport Table

While They Last
5.75
Easy Terms

Chiffonier
August Sale Extra Special
5.95

Davenport Bed
37.50
Easy Terms
COMPLETE WITH MATTRESS
An attractive Davenport for the living room by day and a comfortable bed at night.

YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD AT MORGANS
THE HOME OF HOME OUTFITS
757 WASHINGTON ST.

WE ALLOW On Your Purchase—
—Free R. R. Fares
—Free Delivery
—Free Taxi Fares
—Free Storage

Improved Service
The Wolverine
24 HOURS
BOSTON to CHICAGO
Leave Boston 3:15 p.m. Arrive Chicago 2:15 p.m.
NO EXTRA FARE
And a New Train
Cleveland Limited
Leave Boston 3:40 p.m.
Arrive Cleveland 8:30 a.m.
Arrive Toronto 7:50 a.m.
BOSTON & ALBANY RAILROAD
NEW YORK CENTRAL LINES

West to A. Stowell's Maurice Don't Forget the Number

16-18 Winter St.

OPEN SATURDAY ALL DAY

New Felt Hats
They're Smart!

These Clever New Felt Hats at $1.98

All the Newest Colors

Other Felt Hats $1.98 to $4.98

Hundreds of New Velvet Hats in all the Newest Fall Colors $4.98 to $12.98

BETTY ALDEN'S COMMENT ON SOCIETY

Society Out in Full Force at Casino in Newport, Despite Showers

NEWPORT, AUG. 26.—ALTHOUGH old Sol went behind a cloud and rain pelted down, Newport, nevertheless, was out in force at the Casino to applaud its favorite racquet stars, and in the gayest of Summertime raiment, madame and mademoiselle made brilliant showings at the fashionable stronghold.

STRICTLY SPEAKING, Mrs. Frederick Cameron Church is a Bostonian only by adoption, the fashionable set welcoming right royally this charming young matron. But as Miss Muriel Vanderbilt she has queened it in the Rhode Island spa, and Newport, of course, claims her for itself.

AS A TENNIS WEEK hostess, presiding over box No. 44 in the social holy of holies, Mrs. Church is, since the family connection has been plunged in mourning, making only informal Casino appearances.

WHITE IN FROCK, coat and chapeau is a favorite ensemble with Mrs. Church, and what she most frequently affects for a Casino appearance. Her hat was a small and beaming affair, and her coat, softest wool with furred collar.

COATS COMPLETED many a costume during a showery afternoon. Miss Isabel Thorndike wore over her white embroidered frock a coat of white, and Miss Helen Thorndike, a frock of yellow with wrap of soft tan. Both girls wore broad hats, wide of brim and infinitely becoming.

THE THORNDIKE daughters are entertaining at the Casino for tennis week, their guests sheltered beneath one of the wide flaring umbrellas which dot grounds opposite the stands. Mrs. Bayard Thayer's reservation is on that side also.

BENEATH ONE of the gaudy umbrellas Miss Ruth Thayer and Miss Mabel Bayard Thayer may be found at most every tennis session centres of a smart young group always. Mrs. Charles L. Harding, of Boston, Newport and Palm Beach, is a third hostess having one of the "umbrellas."

IN THE STANDS, Mrs. F. Lothrop Ames has box No. 27; Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer, No. 30, and the Cameron McRae Winslows, the corner box, No. 88. Miss Natalie Winslow, eldest of the Winslow trio, was a pretty figure in white for tennis, and later for tea at a favorite rendezvous near the Casino.

MISS ROSAMOND AUCHINCLOSS (Boston remembers this vivacious young miss as sharing honors at the Robert Saltonstall ball at the Somerset last Winter) also sipped tea after tennis, her hat the wide and accepted mode of the Newport belle, and her wrap a jaunty affair with swinging cape.

ELEONORA SEARS, flitting in and out of the Newport picture, moves with her accustomed assurance from tennis court to tennis court, at Newport, appearing as a supremely interested onlooker, at other courts, as a contestant for net honors.

MISS SEARS in her swagger motor car, which she tools herself with aplomb nd finish, is as thoroughly familiar to Newporters, and as much a part of the avenue picture as is Traffic Officer Case himself.

HER HOSTS this season, as last, are those foremost Newporters, Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Hamilton Rice, whose "Miramar" is a palatial Bellevue avenue establishment of unending hospitality and brilliant entertaining.

THEIR DINNER combined the tennis and yachting element. Newport harbor is agleam with the riding lights of major yachts which have just completed the annual New York Yacht Club cruise.

BOSTON YACHT and Boston skippers figure largely in the cruise's cup winning history—as is often the case when Marblehead-Eastern Yacht Club sailor cohorts match their seamanship with amateur yachtsmen hailing from other ports.

THE LAST RUN and the last race of the cruise was essentially a Boston day, with two Eastern Yacht Club boats coming in winners. The Advance, belonging to Vice-Commodore John S. Lawrence, took the rear commodore's cup for schooners, and the Cuckatoo, for sloops.

Betty Alden

PRINCESS EDWARD LOBKOVICZ
The former Miss Anita Lihme, seated on the beach at Watch Hill, where her parents, The C. Bai Lihmes of Chicago, have a summer villa.

WILL CONSIDER NAVY INCREASE

Washington, Aug. 26 (Universal).—Congress is prepared to enlarge the American Navy unless the world powers agree to further reductions of naval armaments. Representative Thomas S. Butler of Pennsylvania, chairman of the House Naval Affairs Committee, said today.

The veteran congressman made that statement after expressing the fear that attempts to bring about further agreements with other world powers respecting armaments would result in failure.

Butler intimated that it might be necessary for the United States to launch another ambitious naval program in order to bring England and Japan to their senses on disarmament.

"I do not expect that any attempt will be made to enlarge the material branches of the military and naval establishments at the coming session, as efforts are being made abroad to reduce the material we already have," said Butler.

"But if the nations of the world will not agree to make further reductions in the naval armaments, Congress can take but one view of the situation that is before us and the result no doubt will be a further enlargement of the ships that we are entitled to build under the treaties made at the Washington conference.

"One of two things is to be done, either to reduce further by agreement, or to increase that which we now have."

REVIEW TODAY AT DEVENS

Camp Devens, Aug. 26.—Drawing close to the end of its encampment, the C. M. T. C. will stage a garrison review today for Major General Brown. Every man in camp will be in line.

On Friday, Secretary of War Dwight Davis is expected at the camp to personally make awards for military achievements and athletic prowess. Governor Fuller reviewed the C. M. T. C. regiment and was tendered a reception by the officers and staff.

HOISTING ENGINEERS ON THREE JOBS QUIT WORK

Hoisting engineers on three construction jobs were ordered to quit work by union officials because the company that has the contracts for the work are not paying hoisting and portable engineers' union wages.

The Scully Company, Business Agent John G. Barry of the Hoisting and Portable Engineers' Union said, is not paying engineers employed in gravel and sandpits the amount called for by the agreement.

Out of a job? Turn to the classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages.

The E.B.Horn Co.

Last 5 Days of Our Mark Down Sale of Fine Diamonds

A genuine mark down of from 10% to 25% on over 600 Diamond Rings of the better quality. Popular style platinum and white gold mountings. An unusual opportunity to purchase a diamond of a reliable, old established firm at a discount, in the face of a constantly advancing market.

	NOW		NOW
$60 Diamond Ring	$54	$190 Diamond Ring	$168
68 Diamond Ring	59	200 Diamond Ring	178
75 Diamond Ring	65	225 Diamond Ring	168
88 Diamond Ring	80	400 Diamond Ring	300
125 Diamond Ring	110	268 Diamond Ring	225
150 Diamond Ring	130	425 Diamond Ring	375

Hundreds of other equally as good values, also Three Stone and Dinner Rings at greatly reduced prices. Make your selections early. No duplicates.

The E.B. Horn Co.
429 Washington St.
Open Saturday Evening
Jewelers since 1839

STOWELL'S

Jewelers Silversmiths

Gifts of Originality and Practicability

Oval glass Olive or Pickle Dish and fork. May be had in crystal, amber, peach or green color. Price... $3.00

Novelty Nut Bowl and Cracker may be had in black, green or blue. Bowl is decorated in a silver and black treatment to match Cracker and Squirrel. Price $7.50

Frosted Crystal Ice Pail, with metal Rail Handle and Tongs. Price $6.50

Novelty Relish Dish, 14-in. diameter, with 5 removable glass sections. Price $8.50

Imported Fruit or Cake Plate, with wicker-mounted handle and wide, hand-decorated fruit border. Price.. $5.00

This Green Corn Set arrives at just the right time and consists of an oblong platter and six oblong individual dishes with attractive floral pattern. Price, complete $7.50

"Busy Susan" Relish Tray, with 4 imported (Merlach) compartments, in the old blue onion design, or a very attractive poppy design, mounted on mahogany board with gilt revolving base, with wicker-mounted handle. Price $13.50

Footed and Handled Sandwich or Cake Server, Imported Wedgewood plate with silver lustre decoration. Price $10

Novelty Cold Meat, Lettuce and Tomato or Salad Plate, 11 inches long, with attractive floral design, equipped with a silver-plated server. Price, complete, $5.00

A. Stowell & Co. Inc.
24 Winter Street, Boston

Jewelers and Silversmiths for Over 100 Years

WANTED AT ONCE

Riveters	Electric
Holders-On	Welders
Counter	Painters
Moulders	Ship Fitters
Shank	Marine
Tackers	Pipe Fitters
Heaters	Joiners

Read Today's Help Wanted Columns of the Classified Ads Class. 53

Kussell Fur Co.
41 Winter St. 6TH Floor

Last Week of the August Fur Sale

With remarkable values in Fine Furs of every kind and in the latest styles—every coat guaranteed by a quarter century of Kussell reliability. ¶A group of new, smart Pony Coats has just arrived. ¶You will be thrilled by our showing of luxurious Squirrel Coats—and amazed at the low prices. ¶Our long standing in the fur market and our low upstairs rent make it possible for us to offer many extraordinary values. ¶And remember every coat can be bought on the "Different Plan"—this unusual Extended Payment idea is completely explained in the left hand column below.

The Different Plan

makes it possible for every woman to own a fur coat because of this unusual feature — "You Make the Terms."

We do not tell you how you SHOULD pay—you tell us how you WILL pay. Your wishes absolutely settle the matter—without discussion. Thousands of women have used the Different Plan during the past 25 years—and these thousands send thousands more to Kussell's—that's proof of satisfaction.

Every Coat Kussell guaranteed

25 Yrs. of fair dealing in selling furs on extended payments—a proud record that in Boston we believe only Kussell's can claim.

This business has been operated for a quarter of a century under the name of its founder, who is still active in its conduct. It has stood for fair dealing, fine value and friendly courtesy for these many years and, like all old firms with established backgrounds, we jealously guard that priceless jewel — our reputation.

Open Saturday all day

Wherever you buy—see your Fur Coat by Daylight

Whether you trade here or elsewhere, remember two things. Buy your Fur Coat from a house with an established reputation, and see your Fur Coat by daylight before you buy. Only by natural light can you be sure of the quality and workmanship of furs. Kussell's shop is flooded with daylight!

KUSSELL FUR CO.
41 Winter Street
BOSTON'S DAYLIGHT FUR SHOP

BIRD IN FAVOR OF BUTLER

Coincident with a statement issued in Washington by the Democratic National Committee predicting a victory for David I. Walsh in the senatorial contest, Charles Sumner Bird, former independent and dry advocate, came out in favor of Senator William Butler.

While the Democratic statement claimed that a survey of the Massachusetts situation showed "fine prospects for a Walsh victory," Mr. Bird gave it as his opinion that the injection of an independent candidate on an anti-wet ticket would take votes away from the Republicans and enhance Walsh's chances.

LOVED GOAT SO, CAN'T EAT HIM

After all it looks as though Angelo and Vincent D'Ainstrone of Charter street, were "the goats." They owned a pet goat they called Pietro, but because of dire need slew him for his flesh. And now they can't stomach the meat because, "well, everybody loved him so."

Angelo and Vincent ran afoul of the law when they butchered Pietro, but as there was no statute prohibiting them from killing a goat for food, so long as they did not sell it, they were released. And then they discovered their great love for the deceased pet

INFANTILE PARALYSIS VICTIMS GO TO CAMP

GUESTS OF SALVATION ARMY

After being given dolls, go-carts and games, several hundred children under treatment for infantile paralysis in Boston hospitals, left to spend ten days at Wonderland Farm, Sharon. Miss Melba Peterson is shown above with Kathleen Ryder as they left the Children's Hospital.

Covering everything that can be used by anyone in New England the classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages offer you a great selection of present-day necessities

STRIKE TIES UP RAINCOATS

More than 1,000 rain coat makers on strike today, virtually tying up the industry in this city, crowded into headquarters at No. 11 [illegible] a mass meeting.

[illegible] addressed by Julius Hochman, general chairman of the strike [illegible] who said [illegible] demand [illegible] the warring factions [illegible] agreement between [illegible] Hochman both [illegible] of the national [illegible] with [illegible] that [illegible] that waterproof garments will be really waterproof, and the other [illegible] recognition by the manufacturers [illegible] board of mediators [illegible] Spring with Professor William [illegible] Ripley as chairman.

[illegible] wages [illegible] and [illegible] the alleged refusal of manufacturers to [illegible] of [illegible] hours. The present week is [illegible] hours and [illegible]

The strike [illegible] about fifty [illegible] of the strikers [illegible] and with [illegible] president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers and leader of the garment strikers [illegible] Spring [illegible] that for the first time in years [illegible] a united demand [illegible] and workers [illegible] a fair [illegible]

CAR; ARRESTED

[illegible] charged with [illegible] of a policeman's car, [illegible] Rose, John M. [illegible] named [illegible] Murphy of [illegible] were [illegible] They were [illegible] ing in the [illegible] Park [illegible] service [illegible] Lowell [illegible] Winnin [illegible] named [illegible] Italy [illegible] them rep[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [

FATHER CUMMINS' BARBECUE SATURDAY

The finishing touches are being put on the arrangements for Father Cummins' annual barbecue, held in Revere. This has been a feature of [illegible] entertainments. From noon to midnight next Saturday, at the Washington Street Playground there will be a continuous round of [illegible] sports and games, speaking, mill [illegible] way attractions and all else.

'BANISH HER,' CRY OF 7 OF CLEOPATRA'S MATES

Revere, Russia, Aug. 26 (I.N.S.). The seven princes that they will love their wife but never claim she has treated them all [illegible] they unite in branding her a menace to the youth of the community.

Kasan, who is twenty, is now living with her legal husband, the Eighth in two years.

Starck

Manufactured since 1891

FRI. & SAT. Only

NO MONEY DOWN

PIANO SALE!

BUY DIRECT FROM MANUFACTURER

One of the Largest and Strongest Manufacturers of Player Pianos in the World

Player Piano OUTFIT

We have some very fine Player Pianos, slightly used. None cannot be told from Novelty priced at $249. Many new. All guaranteed, more bargains in new and used pianos.

$249

Only Pay $2 Per Week

INCLUDED
FLOOR LAMP
MUSIC ROLL CABINET
MUSIC ROLLS
PIANO BENCH

30 FRANKLIN ST. WORCESTER, MASS.

55 HANOVER ST., MANCHESTER, N. H.

H. A. Starck Piano Co.

Manufacturers of Starck Player Pianos, $900 to $1500

156 Boylston St. Opp. Common STARCK BLDG. BOSTON

Vilma Banky Insured For $500,000

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS,
Motion Picture Editor of Universal Service.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26.—The death of Rudolph Valentino has brought home to producers the possibility of death taking stars during the making of films. The latest one to be insured by Samuel Goldwyn is Vilma Banky, the policy amounting to $500,000. Ronald Coleman was insured a short time ago for a like sum.

Goldwyn's reason for taking out a policy on Miss Banky's screen career is due to her meteoric rise in the last few months. He also said that he was influenced in taking this step by Miss Banky's narrow escape from death when she was trampled by a frantic horse during the filming of "The Winning of Barbara Worth" in Nevada.

There is one thing about this industry—it takes a great shock like Valentino's death to make the producers realize the uncertainty of life. In fact, I think all of us have realized that during the last few days.

Beatrice Lillie

ROD LA ROCQUE is using his powers of persuasion to prevail upon Cecil De Mille to let him make "Othello." Rod's desire to bring Shakespeare to the screen is influenced by the belief that now is the time for drama of this sort.

No other plays offer such opportunities for beautiful costuming and certainly the public has proven from its patronage of "Don Juan," they are not averse to costume plays. Rod may be right but he will have to play Othello as a light colored Moor if he wants to win the approval of the public. I say this because of the German "Othello," which was brought to this country a few years ago and shown at a preview in New York.

Emil Jannings played the Moor and no minstrel with a black makeup was ever as dark as Jannings. The public simply refused to accept the picture and, artistic though it was, it was a total loss to his sponsors.

A LITTLE NINE-YEAR-OLD GIRL draws the much coveted role of Eva in Universal's "Uncle Tom's Cabin"; her name is Betsy Ann Hisle and this is by no means her first appearance on the screen, as she played an important part in "Beau Geste."

Vilma Banky

Charles Gilpin, the colored actor, who has been selected for Uncle Tom, has previously played in the same company with Betsy Ann at a charity entertainment given in Seattle.

He speaks of her as an unusually talented little girl and Gilpin, who has demonstrated that he is a fine actor, should know.

BEATRICE LILLIE, WHO HAD THE harrowing experience of having her automobile turn over on her way home from Jack Gilbert's house Monday night, said that she positively heard the dogs at Rudolph Valentino's house groan and howl as if in pain.

She said she had been thinking about Valentino and as she came near his house she was so upset at hearing the barking of the dogs that she lost control of her motor. The car overturned and she lay stretched out on the road, unconscious for some moments.

She is now little the worse for her experience with the exception of numerous bruises. Fortunate, it was early in the evening, as she left the dinner party at 9:30 to go home.

Quick Quizzes on the Movies

By BARBARA BENTON

C. N. B., BOSTON—Better late than never! But Ward Crane has been "free-lancing" so frequently of late, that it is rather difficult to know where to find him. You might catch him now at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios, Culver City, Calif. And don't forget that he requires a quarter for every photo.

L. F. M., CANTON—So you didn't recognize the gay and tripping "hero" of "Tis the Old Army Game" as one and the same with the W. C. Fields for whom you nearly "laughed your head off" in "Sally of the Sawdust?" Same fellow both times!

F. T. G., BEVERLY—Good for you! When it comes to one hundred per cent admiration for such an actor as H. B. Warner, I'll help you lead the cheers. Or take a seat on the band wagon any time. "Whispering Smith" was his last showing here, but he's due for a "big number" very soon. De Mille has signed him to play the Christus in what he—De Mille—freely admits is his biggest and best bit of Bible history, "The King of Kings." If there is to be no modern sequence" stush, the picture ought to be a record-breaker.

HAROLD LLOYD FAN, MALDEN—You will have to take it easy for awhile yet. Friend Harold makes but two pictures yearly and you mustn't rush him. His next ought to be along here in about two months. It is called "The Mountain Lad"—which might indicate that the title is subject to change without notice.

C. D. F., BOSTON—Watch for your hero in a Metro release called "The Flaming Forest." It's a James Oliver Curwood story, sold big in the book stores and the chances are that they won't temper with the title. Besides Tom O'Brien, Renee Adoree, Antonio Moreno, Gardner James and Bert Roach are also registered. This is what the reviewers will describe as a "capable cast."

ITALY PLANS TO ABOLISH PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS

Rome, Aug. 26 (A.P.).—Il Tevere today says that the question of the legal abolition of provincial elections will be studied by the council of ministers on Aug. 30, in addition to a decree extending the podesta system to all municipalities in Italy. Luigi Federzoni, general secretary of the Fascist party, it is stated, will recommend their abolition on the basis of a lengthy personal examination into the question. He will advise the use of some sort of an appointive system in naming provincial councillors who are now nominally elective.

TO BUILD $2,000,000 THEATRE IN WORCESTER

Worcester, Aug. 26 (A.P.).—This city will have a $2,000,000 theatre, according to papers filed at the registry of deeds transferring ownership of real estate at Main and Central streets to the 261 Main Street Corporation, a subsidiary of the Arthur S. Friend Companies and the Marcus Loew Companies of New York. The purchase price was $460,000.

Need anything? Turn to the classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages.

BRITISH COAL MINERS AGREE TO NEW PARLEY

London, Aug. 26 (I.N.S.).—The miners' leaders have agreed to meet members of the government today to discuss measures for bringing about peace in the coal fields. A meeting of Parliament has been called for Monday to renew the emergency regulations invoked by the government to deal with the situation growing out of the general strike last May, and the prolonged coal strike.

WOUNDED VETS TO SEE NEW GIRL FILM STAR

The wounded vets at the Government Hospital at West Roxbury, who will be shown George Bebea's film, "The Loves of Ricardo," now at the Metropolitan Theatre, tomorrow night, are in for a surprise.

Not only will they see the celebrated delineator of Italian characters but also a girl, still in her teens, who may become one of the great stars of the screen world.

She is Amilia Milianni, whom Bebea gave a long awaited opportunity, in "Ricardo," her first picture.

WILFRED LUCAS, OPERA SINGER, SUED FOR DIVORCE

Los Angeles, Aug. 26 (A.P.).—Wilfred Lucas, grand opera singer and motion picture actor, was made the defendant in a divorce suit filed here by Helen Lucas, better known as Bess Meredyth, scenario writer. The complaint charges cruel and inhuman treatment. She also alleges that Lucas waited until she had gone to Europe to inform her of his love for another woman and that since her return the singer has refused to live with her.

THIRD FLOOR OLYMPIA FUR CO.—8 WINTER ST. THIRD FLOOR

OPEN ALL DAY SATURDAY

ANOTHER SHIPMENT OF SAMPLE FUR COATS

The Entire Stock of Two Exclusive Leading New York Manufacturers

THURSDAY, FRIDAY & SATURDAY

95 Sample One-of-a-Kind 1927 Model

FUR COATS

On the rack at $95.00

Sketched from coat on rack at $95.00

Come early for these coats at $95.00

Another on this rack at $95.00

ANY COAT ON THE RACK—WHILE THEY LAST AT

MUSKRATS RACCOONS

$95

CARACULS HUDSON SEALS
DYED MUSKRAT

BUY NOW PAY LATER

Other Coats $125—$155—$185 up to $295

$5 DEPOSIT

Will Reserve Any Coat Until Wanted

Exclusive Models and Styles for Stout Women

3-Year Guaranteed Bond—Free Storage—Free Repairs

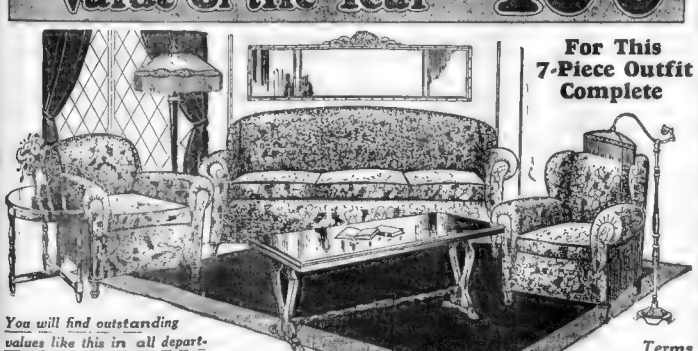
The best value in town at $95.00

White they last at $95.00

OLYMPIA FUR CO.
FURRIERS EXCLUSIVELY
3RD FLOOR 8 WINTER ST. 3RD FLOOR

Open Sat. Evenings Till 9 O'Clock

The Most Sensational Value of the Year $100



For This 7-Piece Outfit Complete

You will find outstanding values like this in all departments during our great August sale. Don't delay. Buy now on easy terms and keep your money in the bank.

Terms $2 Weekly

Prompt Free Delivery. Will store without charge until you are ready for it.

When we say the most sensational value of the year, we mean just that. Come in and examine each piece carefully and you will agree with us.

This splendid outfit consists of 1 Massive 3-Piece Parlor Suite in Baker velour. Full spring construction, with loose spring filled cushions. 1 50-inch Davenport Table of new design. Finely finished. 1 Polychrome Decorated Mirror. 1 End Table of handsome design. 1 Floor Lamp, Polychrome finish with new georgette shade, or your choice of Bridge Lamp—all 7 pieces are included at this Remarkably Low Price, $100. No mail or C. O. D. Orders.

We are showing some exceptional values in complete 3, 4 and 5-room outfits during this sale. You are cordially invited to inspect them, whether you wish to purchase at this time or not, for by doing so you will get real knowledge of true furniture values.

Beware of imitators, and remember we sell what we advertise and deliver what you buy.

MORSE FURNITURE CO.
B. A. McMAHON, Proprietor
827 WASHINGTON ST.
CORNER COMMON ST. SOUTH OF HOLLIS ST.

The Home of Your Dreams is within your means

A cozy home, your own castle, wherein you and your family may dwell in complete happiness—Add to this the beauties of an attractive suburb and you will know what it is to live.

Just a small initial payment, the rest like rent, and you can own such a home. Scores of them are offered at surprisingly low prices in today's

Real Estate For Sale
Columns of the Classified Ads.

MOVIE DEBUTANTE TO REVISIT BOSTON

GILDA GRAY

This charming danseuse, who introduced the shimmy and who recently entered the movies, will appear at the Metropolitan next week in person, while on the screen will be seen her first picture, "Aloma of the South Seas." She will bring a company of 25 players.

THEY WOULD ROB A BANK BUT THEY WERE POLITE

Covington, Okla., Aug. 26 (A.P.)—Four bandits who looked two banks here maintained a high standard of etiquette toward the aged.

As they forced depositors to the rear of the Covington State Bank and scooped up nearly $6,000 in currency, one of the robbers noticed Mrs. Lucy Leroy, 70, among the victims.

"Did we take any of your money, Grandma?" the bandit asked.

Informed he had picked up about $70 representing checks now had cashed, the raider was ordered to return the checks and honor them later. "Grandma Leroy was then escorted to a rocking chair in the bank.

rear of the bank and told if she kept quiet she would not be locked in the vault with the other customers. She complied.

Robbery of the American State and Covington banks netted the bandits about $8,000, authorities estimated.

Forges Divorce Papers

South Bend, Ind., Aug. 26 (I.N.S.)—Frederick Herman Worm, deliver car automobile salesman, is locked in the jail at Mishawaka charged with forging divorce papers and then making a fake marriage license to marry Eva Wyrick of Mishawaka.

POLICE RECOVER STOLEN AUTO

Quick action by Boston police recovered in recovery of a [illegible] the property of [illegible] Bunkers [illegible] Court street Tuesday which was stolen from a parking space in Stuart street.

Bunkers, who came up from the Cape to play golf with friends from the West, stayed over night at the Copley Plaza and parked his car in the nearest space, an official private parking station. Next morning it was gone.

Inspectors Blake and Maguire of headquarters were assigned to the case and found papers near the scene which may lead to identification of the thieves. Meanwhile word was flashed to all police stations in Greater Boston and Patrolman Joseph Lawless of East Dedham street station, given the auto number by Captain John D. Dracut discovered the car unharmed in Worcester square South End.

Back to the Front Crease! The King Leads the Way!

London, Aug. 26 (I.N.S.)—King George has staggered Saville Row.

London's exclusive tailoring district—by forsaking the side crease in his trousers for the front crease.

The side crease was first adopted by the late King Edward and his son has followed the fashion until now since it did not accentuate the shortness of stature.

Crash Claims Fifth

Bridgeport, Ct., Aug. 26 (A.P.)—George Ribes, 18, died today from injuries suffered in an automobile collision with a telephone pole at Stratford. His death brings the total of fatalities in the accident to five. Coroner John J. Phelan has started an inquest.

BOY SLAYER IN STRAIT JACKET

New York, Aug. 26 (I.N.S.)—With violent outbursts of a maniacal nature [illegible] Silberstein, 19 year old slayer of [illegible] was committed to the county hospital for observation. After [illegible] hour observation [illegible] to be placed in a strait jacket.

Dr. Mortimer Scharman, head of the [illegible] ward, said: "His case is [illegible] of [illegible] impulsive [illegible] Armistead in the homicide court. Silberstein

DETAIN 'JERRY' MAHONEY TO WITHOUT BAIL INVESTIGATE

New York, Aug. 26—Jeremiah Gedsium, under indictment in Cambridge, Mass., on charge of the murder of a bank messenger during the Ward Baking Company payroll robbery in 1928, was detained without bail following his arrest.

Gedsium confessed, according to the police, to a score of robberies and burglaries, and that he jumped bail bonds aggregating $26,000.

Gedsium was arrested on a charge of having killed Edward C. Ross a Cambridge bank messenger during a holdup on October 29 1925 when a $12,000 payroll was taken. He also is to be questioned regarding the Boston & Maine train robbery.

His arrest was brought about by detectives who traced him through a girl companion said to be prominent in Boston society, who is said to have gone with him from Boston. Police said her first name was "Dorothy" but they did not divulge her surname.

Out of a job? Turn to the classified ads on the next to the last pages.

Personal investigation of conditions at the Boston Sanitorium, Mattapan, will be immediately started by Dr. Francis X. Mahoney, unanimously elected as chairman of the Board of Trustees to succeed Dr. John F. O'Brien, whose resignation followed serious charges against the conduct of the hospital.

Dr. Mahoney's selection was made upon the advice of Mayor Nichols, when he accepted Dr. O'Brien's resignation.

At the same time the trustees adopted a resolution expressing their appreciation and gratitude to the former chairman for the able and honorable service he has rendered the city of Boston.

Although Dr. Mahoney said that the sanitorium was not discussed at the two-hour meeting his first statement dealt particularly with that institution. He said he would study the situation and if there is any improvement that can be made will see that it is done.

After having made a personal investigation the new chairman will then decide whether to appoint someone to make a survey of the hospital.

Store Closed Saturday, August 28

Jordan Marsh Company

An Ideal Set to Use While Traveling

3-Piece Ivory (Manufactured) Toilet Sets

Invitingly Priced

2.25

Each Set Consists of

Comb, Brush and Mirror

It is not necessary to take an expensive toilet set while traveling. It may become damaged or lost. One of these inexpensively priced sets will answer the purpose. Included are several neat designs and sizes. The bristles are strong and the combs are heavy and not flexible.

Be Your Own Manicurist While on Your Vacation

Men's and Women's Manicure Sets

Complete with Fittings

2.95 and 3.95

These are fine quality sets, with strongly sewn moleskin lining and complete with necessary fittings. They roll up compactly and take but little room in one overnight case or traveling bag.

Street Floor of the Annex.

DIAMOND JUBILEE YEAR

How the Girl of Moderate Means Can Afford a Fur Coat!

Scott FURRIERS, Inc. unique fur club REGISTERED

Makes it Possible to Enjoy a Beautiful Fur Coat on the EASIEST, FAIREST and MOST ECONOMICAL PLAN EVER OFFERED!

In these days of modern methods and new ideas for progress, it remained for SCOTT FURRIERS, INC., to conceive of a novel plan in Fur Selling. We have introduced to the women of New England our DOLLAR FUR CLUB, which is an innovation in this section of the country.

A payment as low as one dollar enrolls you as a member of this unique FUR CLUB, and further payments are then made at such times and such amounts as are convenient.

NO COMPULSORY AMOUNTS are required, NEITHER IS IT NECESSARY TO MAKE PAYMENTS AT SPECIFIED periods. You just bring in or mail small payments when you can easily do so. COULD ANYTHING BE FAIRER OR MORE CONVENIENT?

SCOTT FURRIERS' phenomenal growth made it necessary to remove to larger quarters, and our new home at 43 Winter St., one of the finest in Boston, is four times the size of our old location, which is concrete evidence of our sound business methods.

Grey Caracul and Platinum Fox Collar
Hudson Seal (Dyed Muskrat) Squirrel trimmed
Silver Muskrat Fox trimmed
Golden Muskrat, Fox Collar
Northern Seal (Dyed Hare) Squirrel trimmed

WE PAY YOU 6%

The Cardinal Feature of our UNIQUE PLAN IS THAT WE PAY YOU INTEREST AT 6 PER CENT. ON ALL PAYMENTS MADE UP TO THE TIME YOU TAKE YOUR COAT OUT. This plan acts not only as a savings for you but it makes it easy to own a fur coat when the time comes to wear it.

SPECIAL AUGUST PRICES

Hudson Seals (Dyed Muskrat), Squirrels, Raccoons, Natural Muskrats, Northern Seals (Dyed Hare), Caraculs, Ponies, Marminks (Dyed Marmot), etc., in the newest models.

$85 up to $295

WHY WE ARE DOING THE FUR BUSINESS OF BOSTON!

We have been asked on many occasions the particular feature to which we attribute our remarkable success. There are a number of outstanding features in our Unique Method of serving thousands of women and misses all over New England. It is interesting to hear the favorable comment from our customers.

From the time one enters our store to the time when leaving, the pleasant surroundings, courteous and efficient attention, our unusual payment plan, the large assortment of dependable fur coats, fairly priced, are factors such as you have not experienced before. Our customers are astonished to find the easy and pleasant way we do business. A pleasant surprise awaits you, too.

This remarkable atmosphere does not end when we sell you a fur coat. To the contrary, our interest in your welfare just begins. For example, in case of unforeseen circumstances which may arise and you are unable to make your payments, we are pleased to wait until such time when you are able to resume payments.

After the season's wear, we examine your coat carefully, and repair it without charge, so that it will look like a new coat for the following season. These, and in many other ways do we serve you faithfully. Join the throng of Scott Furriers' satisfied customers, and you, too, will become one of our many enthusiastic boosters.

OUR LEADERSHIP

The high financial standing of Scott Furriers, Inc., enables us to buy at the lowest possible prices, taking advantage of the maximum cash discounts, and this is passed along to you in our low selling prices.

Scott FURRIERS INC 43 Winter St. HOMER BLDG. Opp Shepard's

UNIQUE PAYMENT PLAN REGISTERED

Liberal Allowance for Your Old Fur Coat

Any woman in New England is eligible for membership.

(L) 1928—S. F. Inc. This entire advertisement is copyrighted and the use of any part of it is forbidden!

JACQUETTES

Muskrats, Squirrel, Caracule, Northern Seals (Dyed Hare), Hudson Seals (Dyed Muskrat)

$45 Up to $125

The WOMAN GAME

by KATHARINE BRUSH

A Story of College Life; a Fast and Furious Romance of Today

Don't waste time, money and effort! Buy thru the alphabetically listed Classified Ads.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
A HOME PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE WHO THINK
BOSTON, THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1926
SECOND SECTION

"You are the only woman I ever met who didn't want to talk about herself," Jock told Yvonne

Posed by Delores Morey and John Seymour of "The Dearest Enemy" Co., Tremont Theatre Photo by Charles G. Snyder

Jock Hamill, at a dance with Molly, who is in love with him, becomes cool. He is tired of her. She's too easy to kiss, he thinks. Molly goes home. Jock meets Yvonne Mountford. He falls in love with her at sight. Most beautiful girl he ever saw, is his verdict.

Jock is charmed when Yvonne refuses him a kiss. She gives him her address.

Mrs. Hamill, wise woman, picks from Jock his meeting with Yvonne. Jock is entertained by Yvonne. Jock returns to college.

CHAPTER IV.

Jock's hurry to call on Yvonne, thinking himself late, was repaid when he got to the door

She met him, wearing a gown of demure color—gray—but of lines very far from demure. Her shoes and stockings matched the gown, and the string of beads tight about her throat were the shade of her hair. Study in gray and red. Even her eyes, which he had observed before only as wise and s-anting, were gray

"You're not late," she said in response to his hurried apology. "That is, no later than most college men. Come in, Jock Hamill."

The room into which she conducted him was large, but it seemed small because it was so very full of things. The walls reminded him of a theatre lobby, so decked were they with photographs of stage and screen celebrities. They were framed, and variously autographed. Yvonne, with love from So-and So; Yvonne, with every good wish from So-and-So and so on. "Wonder if she's an actress herself?" Jock speculated, and became suddenly aware that he knew nothing whatever of the girl save her name and her visible loveliness

Later, when they were seated face to face across a square of damask in a famous restaurant, he put something of this into words. "You haven't told me anything about you."

"Why should I?"

"Well, we're going to be friends, aren't we?"

"Can't we be friends without swapping biographies?"

Jock smiled. "You're the only woman I ever met in my life who didn't like to talk about herself," he told her

"I do like to, in the abstract," said Yvonne. "I like to talk about my theories and philosophies. But where I was born, and what I do, and how I live—those things I—fuss to discuss. Discussing them bores me."

"I'd like to have this for an hour," Jock declared, "and then—"

Continued on Page 23, Column 3

COOLIDGE AT PLATTSBURGH

Paul Smith's, N. Y., Aug. 26 (A.P.)—President Coolidge's trip to Plattsburg today to inspect the rookies at the citizens' military training camp near that city is the first long automobile ride he has undertaken since he came to the Adirondacks for his vacation.

Arrangements were made for the President to drive directly to the home of Colonel John P. Hughes, commander of the training camp, at the end of the 26th Infantry, U. S. A., stationed at Plattsburg.

The scene of the review of the 1,600 citizen soldiers was the parade ground not far from the commanding officer's residence. It was arranged to parade the troops before the President soon after his arrival.

Luncheon was ordered for the presidential party in Colonel Hughes' home at the conclusion of the review, and Mr. Coolidge's start for home was set for soon after the meal.

"Come to Britain" Slogan to Entice U. S. Tourists

London, Aug. 26 (A.P.)—"Come to Britain" is the slogan of a new organization embracing the Association of British Chambers of Commerce and various commercial and city bodies

The chief efforts of the organization will be to get Americans to spend more of their vacation time in the British Isles. France is said to have obtained about $160,000,000 from American visitors in 1924, with only $100,000,000 were spent by them in England, Italy and other countries

HELD IN $28,000 FLIMFLAM

Springfield, Aug. 26 (Universal)—A carefully staged scheme of four men to flimflam William J. Wiesner of Whitestone, N. Y., out of $28,000, as the police describe it, was nipped here

James Stuart of New York, alleged leader of the gang, was arrested on the charge of attempted larceny. The three others escaped in an auto

Stuart posed, police say, as Harold Hallman, representing H. C. Frick, Pittsburgh steel magnate. He brought Wiesner here to meet "Frick," represented by a second member of the gang, to close a sale of Wiesner's Whitestone block to "Frick." The "lost wallet" trick involved a third member of the crew

LYNCHING THREAT SENT TO GREEK PRESIDENT

Athens, Aug. 26 (A.P.)—A huge mass meeting in Constitution square adopted a resolution demanding a coalition Cabinet. The chairman, M. Hadjikiriakos, presented the resolution to Admiral Coundouriotis, who has resumed his Presidential powers, and said the meeting had commissioned him to say the people of Greece would repudiate any party leaders who obstructed the formation of a coalition government, and that there were even some persons among the crowd prepared to lynch obstructors of the demand.

General Pangalos, former President, overthrown by the recent coup of General Condylis, has been interned at the fortress prison Iseddin on the Island of Crete

JOHN SHEPARD, JR., BUYS $150,000 LENOX HOME

Lenox, Aug. 26.—John Shepard Jr., of Boston and Providence, has just purchased from Howard Cole Jr.'s 100-acre estate on Clifford street for $160,000 for immediate occupancy. Mr. Cole, who bought the estate from Morris K. Jessup of New York for $85,000, has moved to the Captain John S. Barnes villa, of which he recently obtained ownership

The estate which he has just sold is one of the finest in the Berkshires with a stone mansion, stone stables, garage and superintendent's house. For twenty years Mr. Shepard has had a Summer residence at Sheffield which he purchased on sight after driving by

BRIDE WINS HUSBAND BACK

Thackaberrys Reconciled and Wife Withdraws Suit for Alienation

Mrs Alice M Black Thackaberry's $150,000 alienation suit against the parents of George K. Thackaberry, Huntington School graduate, her husband since April 19, is off the court lists.

Mrs Thackaberry herself is with her husband in a new apartment in Boston, and not at her typewriter in Lynn. Young Thackaberry has given up his plans to enter the University of Maine this fall and has got a job He is now claim agent for an automobile insurance company Reconciliation was effected in the law office of John V. Phelan and Harry C. Manber in Lynn, attorneys for the bride. The reconciliation came about within the last 48 hours.

Thackaberry and his bride decided to agree after more than a month of separation, wrangling, lawsuits and charges. The bride had accused the elder Thackaberrys of alienating her husband's affections, and had brought suit against them.

She charged her husband had broken the news to her on an automobile ride that he didn't intend to live with her or see her again. The coupe eloped to Portsmouth, N. H. on April 19 last and were secretly wed. After the secret was out, the younger Mrs. Thackaberry said, her parents-in-law persuaded her bridegroom to renounce her and go ahead with his plans to enter college.

Mrs. Thackaberry, the younger has resigned her position as a stenographer in Lynn, and obtained the position of housekeeper for her husband. Thus everything is all smiles where once were tears and recriminations

LOAN SYSTEM LIFTS YOKE OFF CHINESE FARMERS

Washington, Aug. 26 (A.P.)—The poverty-stricken Chinese farmers who for generations have been unable even to meet their families' requirement on account of brigands, usurers and military tax gatherers, finally have a chance to hope for better times. Advices to the Commerce Department say a system of co-operative credits under which Chinese growers may obtain funds at much lower interest than the usual 36 per cent., has been set up by the China International Famine Relief Commission. Loans will be advanced for a period of one year, instead of three months, the old limit

THEY MARRY AND STAY MARRIED IN THIS TOWN

Brussels, Aug. 26 (I.N.S.)—The tiny town of Chapelle Les Herlaimont claims the world's record for domestic happiness. During four years one hundred and forty couples from this village celebrated either a silver or golden wedding. The town's population is 1,100

COOLIDGE SAVES 'ONLY AT SPIGOT'

Democrats Say President's 'Economy' Adds $788,137,426 to Expenses

Washington, Aug. 26 (A.P.)—Differences of opinion about government economy and other political topics were brought into sharp contrast today with publication of views expressed by the Democratic national committe and by Chairman Madden of the House appropriations committee and Representative Wood of Indiana, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee.

Citing figures to show that comparable peace time appropriations were greater under the Coolidge than under the Wilson administration the Democratic committee concluded that "constructive economy is evidently the sort that saves at the spigot and wastes at the bung hole."

Mr. Madden after conferring with President Coolidge at Paul Smith's, N. Y., on government finances announced that proposed expenditures for the fiscal year 1928 would perhaps a quarter of a billion dollars less than actual expenditures in the current fiscal year

SEE DEMOCRATIC GAMES.

Representative Wood, who also conferred with the President, stressed prosperity as the issue in the off year elections and calculated that the Republicans would wind up with a working majority of at least 75 in the house, compared with 34 at present

Democratic leaders have predicted considerably larger gains for their forces

In reacting its concern in the Democratic committee placed the total appropriations for the fiscal year 1927 at $3,567,704,541 the items in this were items totaling $1,913,996,972 for interest on public debt, sinking funds and other charges, Veterans' Bureau, including compensation, insurance, adjusted compensation, hospitalization and hospital construction, and for the Shipping Board and Fleet Corporation which were inserted in the Congressional Record by Representative Madden as showing the causes for much of the 1927 appropriation total

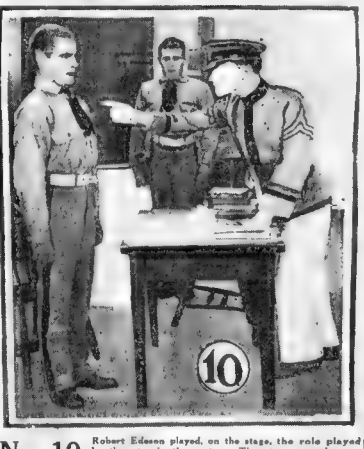
PEACE TIME MOST COSTLY

Recalling that $43,713,000 was appropriated in 1916 for interest on the public debt and for sinking fund, the committee arrived at the $20,343,972 as the net amount of current appropriations properly attributable to the World War

To this it added $41,711,196 for prohibition enforcement and $704,675,000 for highway construction in co-operation with States and for forest reserve roads which it said confront the government in 1918

Greater Movie Season Contest

Name the Star Whose Face Is Missing. Name the Movie From Which the Scene Is Taken.



No. 10 Robert Edeson played, on the stage, the role played by this star in the picture. This star recently appeared in "Ranson's Folly."

Name of Star _____

Name of Motion Picture _____

Name of Contestant _____

Street and Number _____

Town or City _____ State _____

SPECIAL CLUE FOR No. 18—This star was one of the first to portray Western types in motion pictures. As an actor in the spoken drama some years ago he once had a leading part in "Ben Hur."

USE THIS COUPON

Contest Editor, Greater Movie Season Contest,
P. O. Box 110, Boston, Mass.
Enclosed please find a two-cent stamp for which please send me reprints of contest pictures numbers _____
(Fill in Numbers of Pictures Desired)
Name _____
Address _____

For the benefit of those who were late in starting the Greater Movie Season Contest in the Boston Evening American, reprints of all pictures to date have been made and can be secured by writing the Greater Movie Season Contest Editor, P. O. Box 110, Boston, Mass., and enclosing a two-cent stamp to pay for the cost of mailing the reprints to you.

There is a used car for every need listed in the classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages

CLAIMS HE STUDIED AT HARVARD

Seized in New Mexico While Driving Auto Presented Him by Henry Ford

Albuquerque N. M., Aug. 26 (A.P.)—The American tour of a young man giving the name of Baron Frederick E. von Krupp and claiming to be the son of Baron Gustav Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach, head of the German arms works, has been interrupted by his arrest here.

He is charged with writing worthless checks.

The youth, about twenty-one years old, speaking with a pronounced German accent, said he was a large manufacturing plants and been entertained by the son of the German manufacturer

When arrested he was traveling in a small auto which, he said, had been given him by Henry Ford when he visited Ford's plant at Detroit.

He said he was in company of Emil R. Gruhn, assistant manager of a bank in the state of Sonora, Mexico, and showed a $100 check given by the youth had been returned by a New York bank. Another check, for $50, drawn on another motor car agency in Colorado Springs, also has been returned, Detroit police said.

DENIES ALL CHARGES.

The youth visited the General Electric Works at Schenectady, N. Y., where he was entertained and cashed a check for a small amount, after one of his hosts said had not been in touch with

Held in jail here he said he would make extradition and go to Denver to face the charge. He denied having issued checks for any auto agencies but admitted he had issued checks for over $1,000 within the last few weeks for others

He said he was on a leave to explain how a bad check charge could be brought against him unless his father had withdrawn money placed to his account in a New York bank.

He said he had received a letter recently while he was at Grand Canyon from his father, notifying him his allowance had been cut to $25 a week until he decided to return to Germany and enter the Leipsig Military Academy. He suggested this as the only possible explanation of any of his checks not being honored

"STUDIED AT HARVARD"

He visited Denver August 7 and 8 and from there went to Los Angeles, where public notice first centered upon him after he was reported to have declared that the great Krupp factories would never again manufacture implements of war, as he was to become their proprietor and he "did not believe in war."

He talks freely of being acquainted with such men as Russell Firestone, Henry Ford, Edsel Ford, Thomas Edison, Governor Al Smith and Harry Chandler, owner of the Los Angeles Times

A young man accompanying him here gave the name of Charles Taetsch of Newark, N. J., and claimed to be a student at Brown University, while the "Baron" said he attended Harvard University for two years before the last school year.

Theatres Take Part in Film Contest

Each of the popular playhouses named in the accompanying list offers as a special prize for success in the Greater Movie Week Contest five, (5) admission cards good for two persons each and for one year.

The Boston Evening American, proud to be associated with them on such an occasion, recommends them to the discriminating consideration of its readers:

BOSTON
Metropolitan—Tremont, at Mason street.
Locw's Orpheum, Washington, near Winter.
Loew's State, Massachusetts avenue.
Modern Theatre, Boylston square.
Broadway, South Boston.
Codman Square, East Boston.
Dorchester—Dorchester
Fenway, Boylston street, Roxbury.
Liberty, 726 Blue Hill avenue, Dorchester.
Majestic, 561 Washington street, Dorchester.
National Tremont street, Roxbury.
Strand, 8179 Washington street, Roxbury

ADAMS—Adams.
ANDOVER—Colonial.
CANTON—Orpheum.
BROCKTON—Smith's, Main street, Campello.

Continued on Page 17, Column 4

RESULTS!

Board and Room	87
BROOKLINE—Large front rm., furnishings, gentleman; board opt. Reg. 1851 M	two

There is no need of allowing a room to be vacant if you care to rent it. Now that Fall is coming many people are seeking comfortable rooms. Mrs. M. R. Blake of Brookline was desirous of renting a large front room. Calling an American and Advertiser Classified Ad Taker, she inserted an ad which was to be run seven days. On the first evening that the ad appeared Mrs. Blake secured a new occupant for the room and cancelled the ad.

For results, phone your ads to Liberty 4000, "Classified Corner."

No Coolidge Luck for Otto Grow

By Collier

TH' FOIST GUY THET WILL GIT TH' GATE WHEN I'M ELECTED DISTRICK ATTORNEY IS THIS FRENCHMAN, NOL PROSSE. THEY SHUD BE EXEMPTIUN FRUM TH' VOLSTEAD ACT FOR DIST. ATTYS. SO THEY KIN ACT WITHOUT PREJUDICE. ... I'LL PROSECUTE ALL MOTOR CYCLE-DRIVERS, AN ADVOCATE SPECIUL PARKIN' PRIVILEGES FER GENTLEMEN WHO PREFER BLONDES.
DEAR, GO TELL HIM TO PULL DOWN HIS VEST, SPEAK LOUDER AND TAKE OFF HIS HAT.
GANG WAY!
WHY DON'T HE STAND?
HE IS STANDING!
GROW
DIST ATTY.
A PINCH IN TIME SAVES CRIME
SHELLY, I DONT GIT IT! AFTER THET WELL THOUGHT OUT SPEECH ONLY THREE GUYS APPLAUD, AN THEM WUS TH' FELLERS WE HIRED.
CAL. COOLIDGE GITS UP T' MAKE UH SPOOCH AN' SEZ "IT IS ME SOLEMN DEWTY, OR HEV FAITH IN MASSACHUSETTS" OR "LAW AN ORDER MUST AN' SHALL PRE-VAIL," AN TH' AUDIENCE THROW THEIR HATS IN TH' AIR.
THET IS TH DIFFERUNTS BETWEEN YOU AN' CAL, OTTO!

The Steam Shovel Industry

This industry is discussed in a study which we have just prepared. We shall be glad to send you a copy.

HORNBLOWER & WEEKS
ESTABLISHED 1888
BOSTON NEW YORK CHICAGO CLEVELAND
60 Congress Street BOSTON
DETROIT PROVIDENCE PORTLAND, ME. PITTSBURGH
Members of the New York, Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, and Detroit Stock Exchanges

NEW YORK STOCKS

	Aug 26 High	Aug 26 Low	Aug 26 Latest Close	Aug 25 Close
Ajax Rubber	9¾	9¾	9¾
All Ch Am	125½	119	123½	123½
Am Bosch M	20¼	20¼	20¼	20¼
Am Br Supe	140	140	140	140
Am Car & Fy	99	99	99	99
Am Car & Fy, pf	99	99	99	99¾
Am Linseed	43	42¾	43	42¾
Am Safety R	42	42	42	42¼
Am Smelt	142	141	142	139
Am Sm Sec, A	64¾	64¾	64¾	64
Ab Sugar	73	73	73	72¾
Am Tobac B	118¾	118¼	118¾	116¼
Am Woolen	39¾	39¾	39¾	39¾
Anaconda	49¾	49¼	49¾	49¾
Armour (I) B	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾
Assc Dry Gds	42¾	42¼	42¾	42
At & SF 1st	104¾	104¾	104¾	104¾
Atlantic Ref	44¾	44¼	44¾	44¼
Baldwin Loco	116¾	116¾	116¾	115¾
Balt & Ohio	102¾	102¾	102¾	102
Barn Ctl A	60¾	60¾	60¾	60¾
Beth Mot Ry	64¾	64¼	64¾	64¼
Beth Steel	49¾	49¼	49¾	49¾
Bo & Maine	101	101	101	101
C M & St P	23¾	23¾	23¾	23¾
C M St P pf	33¾	33¾	33¾	33¾
Chi Gt W pf	27¾	27¾	27¾	27¾
Chi & N W	78	78	78	77¾
Chi R I & P	66¾	66¾	66¾	66¾
Chrysler	36¾	35¾	36¾	35¾
Coca Cola	199¾	199¾	199¾	199
Colo Fuel & F	33¾	33¾	33¾	33¾
Comw Edison	144¾	144¾	144¾	144¾
Consol Textile	14¾	14¾	14¾	14¾
Corn Exch Bank	715	715	715	715
Cl Can Pack	73	72¾	73	72¾
Conti Can	77¾	77¾	77¾	78¾
Corn Prod	65¾	65¾	65¾	65
Cuba Co	23¾	23	23¾	24
Cuyamel Fruit	66	66	66	66
Del & Hudson	174¾	174¾	174¾	174
Dodge Bros	20¾	20¾	20¾	20¾
Dodge Bros pf	98	98	98	98
Dupont & N	304¾	303	303¾	301
Eastman Kod	116¾	116¾	116¾	116
Erie R R	54¾	54¾	54¾	54¾
Famous Playrs	118¾	113¾	114¾	114
Fisk Rubber	18¾	18	18¾	18
Fleischmann	73¾	73¾	73¾	73¾
Gen Asphalt	87	85¾	85¾	84¾
Gen Elec	84¾	84¾	84¾	84¾
Gen Electric	90	89¾	90	89¾
Gen Pipe Ame	113¾	111¾	113¾	111¾
Gen Motors	209¾	207¾	208¾	206¾
Granby	29¾	28¾	28¾	29¾
Gen Ry Sig	90	90	90	89¾
Hide & Lth	23¾	23¾	23¾	23¾
Hudson Motor	68¾	67¾	67¾	67¾
Hupp Motor	24¾	24¾	24¾	24¾
Hydraul Ch	39¾	39¾	39¾	39¾
Int Cem Corp	56	56	56	54¾
Int Nickel	64¾	64¼	64¾	64¼
Int Paper	50¾	50¼	50¾	50¾
Int Pap & Pr	92¾	92¾	92¾	92¾
Kelly Springfd	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾
Kennecott Cop	64¾	64¼	64¾	64¼
Lago Petrol	64¾	64¼	64¾	64¼
Lambert	61¾	61¼	61¾	61¾
Lehigh Valley	85¾	85¾	85¾	84¾
Loose Wiles	50¾	50¾	50¾	50¾
Louis & Nash	139¾	139¾	139¾	138¾
Mack Trucks	128¾	128¾	128¾	127¾
Manati Sug	18¾	18¾	18¾	18¾
Marland Oil	64¾	64¾	64¾	64¾
Mathieson Alk	58¾	58¾	58¾	58¾
Mid Cont Pet	31¾	31¾	31¾	31¾
Mo Kan & Tex	36	36	36	35¾
Mo Pac pf	60¾	60¼	60¾	60¾
Mo Pacific pf	91¾	91¼	91¾	91¾
Montgy Ward	67	67	67	67
Motor Wheel	24¾	24¾	24¾	24¾
Nat Biscuit	91¾	91¾	91¾	91¾
Nat Cash Reg	37¾	37¾	37¾	37¾
Nat Dept Sts	24¾	24¼	24¾	24¼
Nat Distil	20¾	20¾	20¾	20¾
Nat Enameling	27¾	27¾	27¾	27¾
Nat & L	20¾	20¾	20¾	20¾
Nevada Con	64¾	64¾	64¾	64¾
New York Air	64¾	64¼	64¾	64¼
NY Canners	44¾	44¾	44¾	44¼
NY Central	138¾	138¾	138¾	135¾
NY N H & H	39¾	39¾	39¾	39¾
Norfolk & W	163	162¾	163	161
Northern Pac	80¾	80¾	80¾	79¾
Nor Pacific	80¾	79¾	80¾	79¾
Omnibus Corp	17¾	17¾	17¾	16
Oshkosh Chrs	30¾	30¼	30¾	30¼
Otis Steel	9¾	9¼	9¾	9¾
Pan-Am Pet B	66¾	66¼	66¾	66¾
Pan-Am West B	58	58	58
Penn RR	54¾	54¼	54¾	54¾
Penn Rd Sil	11¾	11¾	11¾	11¾
Pere Marq	101¾	101¾	101¾	101¾
Phillips Petrol	47¾	47	47	47¾
Pierce Arrow B	29¾	29¾	29¾	29¾
Postum Cereal	101¾	101¾	101¾	101¾
Pullman Co	177¾	177	177¾	178
Pure Oil	43¾	43¼	43¾	43¾
Replogle Steel	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾
Reynolds Tobb B	97¾	97¾	97¾	97¾
Royal Dutch	49¾	49¼	49¾	49¾
St L & S F pf	97¾	97¾	97¾	97¾
Seaboard Air L	26¾	26¾	26¾	26¾
Shattuck F G	60	60	60	60¼
Shell Union Oil	29¾	29¼	29¾	29
Simmons	49¾	49¾	49¾	49¾
Sinclair Oil	20¾	20¼	20¾	20¾
Sinmns Petrol	18¾	18	18¾	18¾
Skelly Oil	30¾	30¼	30¾	30¾
South'n Pac	106¾	106¾	106¾	106¾
So Ry pf	53¾	53¾	53¾	54
So Durr B	53¾	53¾	53¾	54
Spicer Mfg	22	22	22	22¾
Stand Gas & El	64¾	64¼	64¾	64¾
Stand Oil NJ	43¾	43¼	43¾	43¾
Studebaker	56¾	55¾	56¾	57
Superior Oil	23¾	23¾	23¾	23¾
Tenn Cop & C	11¾	11¾	11¾	11¾
Texas Co	63¾	63¼	63¾	63¾
Tex Gulf Sul	165¾	165	165¾	163¾
Tex & Pac RR	57¾	57¼	57¾	57¾
Timken Prod	109¾	109¾	109¾	109¾
Trans-Cont Oil	4¾	4¾	4¾	4¾
Un Oil of Cal	51	51	51	51¾
Union Pac	158¾	158¼	158¾	158¾
Union Tank C	97	97	97	96
Un Alloy Stl	31¾	31¼	31¾
U S Distrib	55	55	55
U S Rity & I	64¾	64¼	64¾	64¼
U S Rubber	64¾	63	64¾	63
U S Steel	148¾	147¾	148¾	147¼
U S Steel pf	127¾	127¾	127¾	127¾
Wabash RR	47¾	47¾	47¾	47¾
Ward Bkg B	36	34¾	35	33¾
Warner Pic	60¾	47¾	47¾	50
Warren Bros	63¾	63¼	63¾	49
Western Md	34¾	33¾	33¾	33
Western Pac	98	98	98	97¾
Wheel & L E	26¾	26¾	26¾	26¾
Wh Rod & M	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾
White Motor	58¾	58¾	58¾	45¾
Willys Over	27¾	27	27¾	27¾
White Rock	27	27	27	27
Woolworth	157¾	157	157¾	156¼
Youngstown S	64¾	64¼	64¾	64¼
Youngstown M	58¾	58¾	58¾	59

*Ex dividend.

Boston Stocks

	Aug 26 High	Aug 26 Low	Aug 26 Latest Close	Aug 25 Close
Am Pneu 3 pf	21¾	21¾	21¾
Am Smelt	140¾	140¾	140¾	140½
Am Sug	144¾	143¼	144¾	144¼
Am Wool	39¾	39¼	39¾	39¾
Anaconda	49¾	49	49
Arcadian Pf	97¾	97¾	97¾
Batl & Ohio	102¾	102¼	102¾	102¾
Bingham	39¾	39¾	39¾	40
Boston & Me	69¾	69¾	69¾
Atchison	148¾	147¾	147¾	147
Can Pac	150¾	150¾	150¾	150¾
Chi & Nor W	78	78	78	77¾
Chi June pf	100¾	100¾	100¾
Conn Mot	106¾	106¾	106¾	106¾
Copper Range	42	42	42
Edison	238	234	236	235
Fairbanks M	20¾	20¾	20¾
Gilchrist	36	36	36
Hood Rub	118¾	114¾	116¾	116¾
Hood Rub pf	98¾	98¾	98¾	98¾
Isle Royale	25¾	25¼	25¾	25
Kan City So	29¾	29¼	29¾	29¾
Lake Shore	59¾	59¾	59¾	59¾
Mass Gas	73¾	73¾	73¾	73¾
Mass Gas pf	97¾	97¾	97¾	97¾
Mex Pet	207¾	207¾	207¾	207¾
Mich Cop & B	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾
Mohawk	60¾	60¾	60¾	60¾
Nat Acme	30¾	30¼	30¾	30¾
New Cornelia	32¾	30¾	32¾	33
N Y Centrl	139¾	139¾	139¾	135¾
Nipissing	6¾	5¾	5¾	5¾
No Am Cp p p	19¾	19¼	19¾	19¾
No Am Corp	64¾	64¼	64¾	63¾
Nor Am Rlty	64¾	64¼	64¾	64¾
Pond Creek	113¾	113	113¾
Quincy	34	34	34	34
Reece Fold M	28¾	28¾	28¾	28¾
Shawmut	20¾	20¾	20¾	20¾
Shawmut pf	107	107	107	106½
Swift Intl	20¾	20¼	20¾	21
Torrington	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾
Tower	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾
U S Rubber	64¾	64¼	64¾	64¾
U S Steel	148¾	147¾	148¾	147¼
U S Steel pf	143¾	142¾	143¾	142¾
U Tobac Pf	74¾	74½	74¾	74
Utah Cop	74¾	74¼	74¾	74¾
Waldorf	21¾	21¼	21¾	20¾
Warren Bro	49¾	49¼	49¾	49¾

Auction Sales

Sales by Wm. Bubbe & Arnold.

Shares		Price	Adv	Dec
10	Addressograph Mlthg	72
5	Draper Corp	180		¾
40	Dunstan Mfg Co	80		¼
10	Gardner Mills pf	100		½
50	Conner Mills 1st pf	92
4	Mass Cotton Mills	10
2	Fall Riv Elec Lt Co	66¾
10	Fall Riv Elec Lt Co	66¾
34	Nor Am Pw Pa 1st 7%	53
10	Pa Gas & Elec Co A	5
10	Am Pub Ut com	8½
10	Lowell Elec Lt Corp	43
12	N J Rail & Trans Co	84		6¾
10	Penn Water & Pwr Co	70
200	Tenn Power 1st 7%	93¾
10	Tenn Power pf	93
$1000	Hpt G Co 6s Jan 1936	26

Sales by R. L. Day & Co.

Shares		Price	Adv	Dec
10	Vail Shawsc Bank	210½
5	Draper Mfg Co	180
15	Glen Alden Pwr & Twl	75
10	Hemenway Mills	3
10	Androscoggin Mills	72
10	Dwight Mfg Co	110
10	Monomet Mills	70
10	Bay State Gas	19
30	West Point Mfg	72
10	Cohoes Co	95
5	Pepperell Mfg Co	195
12	Fls Mfg Co (N Street)	45
10	Dresser Corp	125
1	Am Glue Co pf	112½
10	French Paper Co	85
50	New Bed G&P Lt Co	79¾
10	New Bed G&P Lt Co	79¾
200	Lowell Gas Light Co	67½
10	Boston Gas Co	73
1	Tenn Pow 1st 6s	79
1	T Pwr Rec Fd 5½	93
10	Am Pub Ut com	8½
30	Nor Am Pw Pa 1st 7%	53
4	Swedish Iron Co	5
10	Pa Gas & Elec Co A	5
10	Hpt G Co 6s Jan 1936	26

*Ex-dividend.

BANK STATEMENT
THURSDAY AUG 26

Res Ct, 73,686,800 from Wed, 73,686,800
Net Dpt, 68,660,000 " " 68,660,000
N Y Ct, 184,800,000 " " 184,800,000
Fgn Dpt, 4,000,000 " " 4,000,000
Washington, Aug 26—U. S. Treasury balance, $177,782,717.

Advice Free

Before you buy or sell any stocks or bonds you will want to secure expert advice. Send your inquiries with stamp to Frank H. Meloon, financial editor, Boston Evening American, 8 Winthrop Square, Boston, Mass. No replies can be made other than by mail. A week is likely to elapse between query and reply to allow for investigation.

BIG DEMAND FOR FOREIGN ISSUES

Bond dealers are noting a decided change in attitude on part of many investors toward foreign bonds. Since many of these issues have made advance and a few have risen more or less spectacularly, they note that investors are coming to them with the suggestion that "a lot of those foreign bonds look cheap."

* * *

Renewed attention to the country's monetary business transactions was called by the latest freight traffic statistics. After the recession which the week ended August 7 showed over the preceding one, car loadings again picked up in the week of Aug. 14, totaling 1,108,057 as that 1,107,994 in the previous week and 1,044,476 in the corresponding period of last year.

* * *

Interstate Natural Gas Co., Inc., which has just sold through Jessup & Lamont an issue of $10,000,000 6 per cent. bonds, is regarded as the vehicle through which Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey is arranging for large natural gas properties and pipe line to supply fuel to the Big Inch line, projected by the Jersey-owned subsidiary, Standard Oil of Louisiana.

* * *

Since first two months of this year, which showed a net operating deficit of $224,000, against net operating income of $1,023,000 the previous year, Central Railroad of New Jersey earnings have improved steadily until at the end of the first six months net operating income had about equaled that of the previous year and left surplus after charges of more than $1,000,000, equal to $7 a share on $27,436,000 common outstanding.

* * *

National Acme Co's outlook for the balance of 1926 is better than for some time. Business is more than 50 per cent ahead of last year, and peak production in the machinery division is now assured for the balance of the year. The screw machine division is showing a decided improvement.

* * *

During first six months of 1926 production of cars and trucks in United States and Canada totaled 2,459,192 against 2,138,000 for first six months of 1925, an increase of 12 per cent. Entire 1925 output was 4,937,371 units. Thus, to equal the 1925 total only 2,837,629 vehicles will have to be produced in the last six months, which figure, incidentally, is about the average for corresponding periods of the past four years.

German Securities

Quoted by The European Securities Corporation, Berlin.

Quoted in Dollars per Million Marks

	Bid	Asked
German Govt 1924-1926	1305	1150
German Govt 5½s, 1923	1400	1300
German Govt 4½s, 1922 forced	5	7
German Govt 8-10 yr 1923	118	118
Prussian pre war State consols	200	1000
Saxon 3s	1000	1100
Bavarian 4s 1925	1450	1900
Bav 4s 1922	240	255
Bav 3½s 1925	20	30
Cologne 5s 1923	10	15
Hamburg 6s 1923	10	15
Bav 4s 1919	20	22
Frankfurt 5 1923	30	35
Frankfurt 6s Prussian pre Thomsed Marks	200	250
Berlin 4s 1916	30	35
Berlin pre war 4s	200	250
Hamburg pre war 4s	5	7½
Leipzig pre war 4s	5	7½
Long term Prussian pre war	200	250
Mannheim pre war 4s	5	7½
Munich pre war 4s	5	7½
Nuremberg pre war 4s	5	7½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 6s	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 4s	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 4s Issue of 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 5s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 6s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 7s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 8s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 9s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 10s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 11s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 12s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 13s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 14s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 15s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 16s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 17s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 18s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 19s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 20s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 21s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 22s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 23s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 24s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 25s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 26s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 27s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 28s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 29s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 30s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 31s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 32s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 33s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 34s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 35s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 36s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 37s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 38s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 39s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 40s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 41s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 42s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 43s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 44s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 45s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 46s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 47s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 48s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 49s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 50s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 51s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 52s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 53s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 54s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 55s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 56s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 57s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 58s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 59s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 60s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 61s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 62s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 63s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 64s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 65s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 66s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 67s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 68s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 69s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 70s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 71s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 72s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 73s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 74s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 75s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 76s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 77s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 78s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 79s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 80s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 81s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 82s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 83s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 84s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 85s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 86s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 87s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 88s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 89s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 90s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 91s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 92s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 93s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 94s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 95s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 96s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 97s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 98s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 99s 1928	27½	28½
Rhine Westphalian Elec Power Corp 100s 1928	27½	28½

FINANCE

—By B. C. Forbes—

If you haven't had a vacation, try to arrange for one.

WE now talk about the eight hour day as if it were coming all over the country. It isn't. A nine hour day is not unusual, and during my recent travels I ran across a striker working week ending—certain factories.

Not long the seven day week been abolished in all but rare. While our railroads are the biggest offenders in this respect they do not stand alone. To work seven days a week and every week of the year is worse than to work even ten hours daily, six days in the week.

* * *

THOSE who work seven days a week shorten their lives by at least ten years.

THAT statement comes from Dr. Royal S. Copeland, who was a medical officer for New York before he left Congress to enter the Senate. Here is what he said in his daily column on a day that the corn spending period of last year.

* * *

"To work seven days every week, year in and year out, means that your life will be shortened about fifteen per cent. One seventh of your length of days is likely to be cut off from your career.

"But this isn't all. If you work seven days a week your productivity will be materially decreased fear in and year out a six day worker will produce much more than a seven-day worker."

* * *

HERE are sentences from a letter from a railway employe which would fill this column at least five times.

"I am a railroad telegrapher. I work seven days per week. I never had a six-day job in my life. I have had no vacation in six years because I cannot afford it. I have lost only six or seven days in the past six years. My pay averages $138.15 per month, or approximately $1800 per year. I begin work fifteen to twenty minutes before my pay starts and work fifteen to twenty minutes after my pay stops—which figures out at exactly one extra month in the year. The railroad does not give me one hour off with pay. If I lose an hour, it is deducted from my pay.

"Other employes are doing the same, yet none of us have made any complaint for fear the railroad might fall on us where it fell on the turkey.

"I know a crossing flagman who is working 13 hours per day, seven days per week, and gets $112 per month.

"I am not an advocate of government ownership, but just as sure as the railroads continue in the trend their employes and the public as they are now doing, government ownership is the only way out."

* * *

THAT letter comes from the West. Here are bits from one received from the East:

"I always looked on you as an apologist for any old thing that sailed under the banner of what is called business principles. I am no surprise to see you condemning the seven-day week policy in an agreeable one.

"In the early eighties the seven-day week was not the only slavish imposition inflicted on us. We worked 12 hours a day, six days and many times more. In those days I and other employes were often in such a condition of exhaustion working night tricks that we would have been in safer condition if we were intoxicated. It was not until we organized and cut some of the rottenness out of the jobs that there ever was any kind of stability in this line of work. The 12- and 16-hour day is gone, but not without the opposition of railroad managements.

"The retention of the seven-day week is a heritage of the policy of 'Get all you can out of a worker and give him only what you must.' While it may not benefit me a great deal, as there are not many years more for me in either six or seven days a week, I would like to see the men and women who work on American railroads and other lines of industry enjoying a six-day week job. We are a lot of sullen employes."

* * *

WOULD you yourself feel very cheerful, would you get very much enjoyment out of life if you had to work seven days a week and every week of the year? Do you not think you also would be 'sullen'?

Dr. Copeland's pronouncement is recommended to all railway executives and others who are still working their men 365 days a year.

(Copyright, 1926, by B. C. Forbes.)

MAN NEAR COLLAPSE AFTER 2 DAYS IN WOODS

Danbury, N. H., Aug. 26.—Still weak after wandering two days in nearby woods, John Clautman, 86, was reported to be somewhat improved and is believed to have a chance of recovery. Fifty men were searching the woods when he returned.

BOSTON RADIO AMERICAN

VOICING THE GREAT DEMOCRACY OF THE AIR

RADIO BY THE HOUR

LOCAL STATIONS

WNAC—Boston—430

THE SHEPARD STORES

11:00 A. M.—News bulletins.
12:30 P. M. Time signals and weather report.
1:00 P. M.—Shepard Colonial luncheon concert, direction Edward Rosenwald.
2:30 P. M.—News bulletins.
2:35 P. M.—Shepard Colonial luncheon concert.
4:00 P. M.—Shepard Colonial tea dance.
5:00 P. M.—Vocal and piano selections.
5:30 P. M.—News bulletins.
6:00 P. M.—Shopping Talk by Franklin Simon & Co.
6:30 P. M.—Livestock and meat report.
7:00 P. M.—The Shepherd, conducted by Uncle Mistletoe.
8:00 P. M.—Popular program transferred from Hall, Bert Lowe and his Society Orchestra.
9:30 P. M.—Baseball results and news bulletins.
10:00 P. M.—Weather report.
10:05 P. M.—"Radio Rhythm," samples presented by Pharmacists of Massachusetts.
10:45 P. M.—The Golf Question Box.
11:00 P. M.—Market report.
11:05 P. M.—Sweet music from Nantasket, with band of New York entertainers.
12:00 P. M.—Midnight Frolic, broadcast from Revere Beach, Crescent Gardens Orchestra.

THURSDAY A. M. PROGRAM.

10:50 A. M.—WNAC Women's Club Rev Harry B. Hill First Methodist Church, Boston Contralto solos, Kathryn Kerr Peters Mezzo-Soprano solos, Mrs. Barbach; Jean Sargent; Knickerbocker Trio.

WEEI—Boston—349

EDISON ELECTRIC ILLUMINATING CO.
12:45 P. M.—Boston Fruit and Produce market report.
FROM HOUGHTON & DUTTON STUDIO
3:45 P. M.—Mickey Alpert operatic songs.
4:00 P. M.—Concert by Leo Reisman's Orchestra.
FROM WEEI MAIN STUDIOS
5:45 P. M.—Stock quotes and business news.
6:00 P. M.—Lost and found.
6:00 P. M.—Events of the day.
6:01 P. M.—Announcements.
6:02 P. M.—From New York—The Revelers.
8:50 P. M.—From New York—Orchestral program.
9:00 P. M.—From New York—Eastman Kodak Concert—Cecil Cowdin, conductor.

WBZ—Springfield—333

WBZA—BOSTON—333

6:55 P. M.—Sky Kids.
10:00 P. M.—Hotel Kimball Trio, with "Buddy" Patterson.
10:30 P. M.—Interlude.
10:45 P. M.—Harmon Foster, organist; Walter Nutter, baritone; from the Emery Organ Studio.
11:30 P. M.—"Fireside Boys."
12:00 P. M.—

CHARGE LEAGUE WAVES SABRES

Berlin, Aug. 26.—The "Love Feast" of teh League of Nations at Geneva is being ushered in by the rattle of the sabre and the din of building new armaments, which has degraded the world hope of disarmament to a mere farce, according to dispatches featured in the Nationalist newspapers of Germany.

The Nationalists have not abandoned their feeling of bitter opposition to Germany's entrance to the League, but they are doing nothing actively to oppose it.

The campaign of the Nationalist newspapers, however, is unrelenting. They are featuring articles quoting American statesmen that the United States will re-enter the armament race if the other powers do not live up to the spirit of the disarmament conference agreements.

It is also pointed out that France is "preparing for militarism in the whole country" by introducing army training into the public schools, that Italy is enlarging her fighting force, that English newspapers declare the disarmament conference was unable to reach a unanimous decision on a single important question.

Where are you living? Want a better room? Turn to the classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages.

GERMAN FILM TO BE SHOWN

Lya de Putti, vamp, 1926, modest in olden tymes, when Theda Bara spant most of her time recumbent on a chaise longue, the most popular sirens made the most of their pallid arms and decolaste shoulders. The slinky, black satin gowns also played their part in the luring of pure but weak heroes.

Mlle. Lya, however, needs nothing but her large expressive eyes, smoky with passion one moment, soft and lambent as a child's the next. "Variety," which comes to the Metropolitan next week, is Germany's unique contribution to the cinema season. The camera shots are extraordinary, in the opinion of critics, and studio technicians. Every emotional crisis, every mood of the woman is graphically told by a closeup of her eyes.

FREDERICK E. ATTEAUX DIES IN BROOKLINE

Frederick E. Atteaux, 73, president of the F. E. Atteaux & Co., dyestuffs, died at his home, No. 740 Newton street, Brookline, after a brief illness. Funeral services will take place from his home tomorrow afternoon.

Receiving his early business training as a salesman for Jordan Marsh Company, Atteaux organized the firm which bears his name and later became associated with the American Color & Chemical Co., Dermiforma Company of America and the Industrial National Bank.

Eyes Her Fortune

LYA DE PUTTI

LYA DE PUTT

This Hungarian actress is the 1926 vamp. She appears in the German film "Variety" the Metropolitan next week.

THEATRES AID

Continued From Page 18.

DEDHAM—Memorial Hall.
HUDSON—Rialto.
HYANNIS—Ida Hour.
MALDEN—Capitol, Bryant street.
MARLBORO—Mechanics.
MERRIMAC—Grange Hall.
MIDDLEBORO—Park.
MILFORD—Ideal.
MONSON—Peterpark.
QUINCY—Casino, Quincy Point.
REVERE—Central, 398 Broadway.
Crescent Gardens.
STONEHAM—Stoneham.
STOUGHTON—Orpheum.
WAKEFIELD—Wizard.
WATERTOWN—Strand, 68 Galen street.
WINCHESTER—Winchester.
WORCESTER—Olympia.

MAINE

BINGHAM—Paramount.
BRIDGTON—Riverside.
FREEPORT—Casino.
GORHAM—Rexford.
LEWISTON—Franklin.
MACHIASPORT—Liberty.
SOUTH PARIS—Strand.
SOUTH WINDHAM—Oriental.
WELLS BEACH—United Lodge Casino.
WOODLAND—Opera House.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

ASTRIM—Majestic.
CLAREMONT—Market.
GORHAM—Gorham Opera House.
KEENE—Scenic.

VERMONT

BRATTLEBORO—Princess.
DANBY—Grand.

RHODE ISLAND

PEACE DALE—Peace Dale.
PROVIDENCE — Continental, Charles street. Olneyville square.

CONNECTICUT

NEW LONDON—Crescent.
NORWICH—Broad, Washington chrcent.

Contest Clues

NAMES OF PLAYS

Tracked in the Snow Country, Charley's Aunt, Dog Cabins and Kulps, Year Over Bean Yard, The Pony Express, The Rainbow Trail, Greatness Thrust Upon Them, Stage Struck.

A Slave of Fashion, Old Home Week, The Phantom of the Opera, Sea-Hoss, Flaming Youth, Dancing Mothers, The Night Hawk, News of Harvard, Tony Runs Wild, Tramp, Tramp, Tramp.

Tumbleweeds, Lady Windermere's Fan, Seven Keys to Baldpate, The Voice of Bohemia, The New Klondike, Friendly Enemies, Seventy of Seventeen, The Sea Heart, The Iron Horse.

Third Degree Girl, Go West, Kid, The Road to Yesterday, Skinner's Dress Suit, Amazing Wife.

NAMES OF STARS

Farina, Constance Talmadge, Milton Sills, Farina Stamer, Syd Chaplin, Alberta Vaughn, Colleen Moore, Tom Mix, Gloria Dempster, Lupino Lane.

Tom Kennedy, Norma Talmadge, Marion Davies, Harry Langdon, Mont Orbeen, Douglas Fairbanks, Wallace Beery, Betty Compson, Jack Barrymore, Richard Barthelmess.

Lillian Rambler, Rin-Tin-Tin, Laura La Plante, Buster Keaton, Lon Chaney, Gloria Swanson, William S. Hart, Thomas Meighan, Raymond Griffith, Al St. John, Reginald Denny, Sessue Hayakawa, Rudolph Desimo, Buck Jones, Jackie Coogan.

"I never realized how easy washday could be until I tried Rinso in my washer. I had been reading the letters from other women telling about the splendid results they got from this new laundry soap, so I thought I'd try it, too. But I never expected that my clothes would turn out so snowy white without any hard rubbing or boiling! Why, I don't even bother using a water softener now, Rinso makes such creamy suds. I can't praise Rinso highly enough to my friends!"

MRS. DE WITT HITCHCOCK,
149 Shepard St.,
Cambridge, Mass.

Millions use Rinso. Thousands write us letters like this.

"Makes washday easy," Cambridge woman says:

This quick safe way soaks wash whiter
—saves hours of scrubbing and boiling

A CLEANING, sparkling whiteness that you could never get the old way—no matter how hard you rubbed! The whole week's wash snowy and spotless, without touching a washboard!

It's so easy this way. You just soak—rinse—and your work is done. Dirt and stains float off by themselves. Clothes rinse the whitest white you ever saw!

Even the grimiest hems, cuffs, edges come snowy-white with just a gentle rub or two between the fingers. No longer do you need to rub, rub, rub until those parts are worn threadbare. Of course clothes last longer this way!

Just use Rinso on washday

That's all—just use Rinso instead of bar soaps, chips or powders. With this amazing granulated laundry soap you can do the week's wash at home—in half the time—with absolutely no hard work.

You don't even need to boil the clothes, unless you like to. Rinso sterilizes, too!

Rinso gives thick, lasting suds even in hardest water. Contains no acids, bleaches or harsh chemicals to injure white clothes or fast colors. Saves hands from getting washworn.

Try it—just once! You'll never rub and scrub in the old-fashioned way again. Get Rinso from your grocer today. For economy and best results, follow easy directions on package.

And in washers, too

Because it is efficient and safe, and because it gets clothes whiter and brighter, Rinso is highly recommended by the makers of 28 leading washing machines.

Guaranteed by the makers of LUX
LEVER BROS. CO.

Rinso
2 sizes
most women buy the BIG package
The Granulated Soap—Soaks Clothes Whiter

HAVE YOU A SHOPPING QUESTION? ASK

The Where-Can-I-Buy Service
LIBERTY 4000

Operating as an all-around shopping and business information service, The Where-Can-I-Buy Service answers questions like the following:

A Belmont woman asked: "Where can I buy parts for the Eden washing machines?"

A Dorchester man asked: "Where can I buy the 'Dig It' dye?"

A Jamaica Plain woman asked: "Where can I have a mirror resilvered?"

An Arlington man asked: "Where can I buy Walsh's Arch Preserver shoes?"

A Winthrop man asked: "Where can I buy the metal collapsible tubes for creams?"

A South Boston miss asked: "Where can I buy a wire frame for a wedding bell?"

A Lynn man asked: "Where can I have a skiving machine?"

A woman from Fall River asked: "Where can I buy opera length stockings?"

PHONE—WRITE—VISIT
The Where-Can-I-Buy Service
"Information Headquarters"
Room 940
Boston Evening American
8 Winthrop Sq., Boston

Hotels, Resorts and Travel

CAPE TRIP IDEAL FOR WEEKEND

If you want to spend your Labor Day week end in one final dash for the country, the ocean and hours full of glorious scenic beauty, you want the improved Two-Day Tour to Cape Cod, Plymouth and Provincetown, given by the Royal Blue Line Motor Tours.

The [illegible] busses leave the Hotel [illegible] at 8 a. m. every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, going first to Brockton by way of Blue Hill range, to the attractive Blue Hills Reservation just off to Bridgewater, crossing the Bourne bridge over the Cape Cod Canal and [illegible] Plymouth. Time to [illegible] Plymouth Rock and [illegible] at Plymouth [illegible] Pilgrim [illegible] Pennsylvania Hotel [illegible] Hyannisport [illegible] Cape [illegible] is served at the deservedly famous The Chatham Tern Inn. The ocean beach here is one of the longest on the Atlantic Coast.

You leave Chatham at 2 p. m. and start on that lovely stretch to Provincetown, and reach Provincetown about half past three.

Then you retrace your route to Orleans and [illegible] Dennis, where dinner, your room and breakfast are provided at the Yokohama Hotel.

On the second day you leave Dennis at 9 a. m. and motor north to the ocean's edge to Yarmouthport. Then you cross the Cape to Hyannis, visiting Hyannis Port, through Hyannisport, Centerville, Osterville, Marstons Mills, Cotuit, Santuit, Waquoit, Menauhant to lovely Falmouth Heights, Falmouth.

Monument Beach is next reached, where again you cross the Cape Cod Canal, following it through Bourne-dale and Cedarville. And then comes Plymouth. After a delicious lunch at the Samoset Hotel you go sight seeing.

You leave Plymouth at 3.30 p. m. for home, stopping at Duxbury. Then comes Egypt, beautiful Cohasset, on to Hingham with its Old Ship Church, and to Quincy. Around 8.30 you are back once more in Boston.

Reserved numbered seat tickets can be secured at the Hotel Brunswick, Boylston street at Clarendon. The fare for the complete tour, including all hotel accommodations is only $22.50, a little extra if you require single rooms or rooms with bath. Taking it all in all, it makes an ideal Labor Day excursion.

NOW IS TIME TO SEE QUEBEC

Quebec is calling to the vacationist and tourist as she has never called before, for Quebec, the "Walled City," the cradle of New France, is one of the most interesting cities of America. And this is the most beautiful time to see it.

Quebec is always charming, both the old French city, the Quebec of the seventeenth century and ancient capital of Canada, and modern Quebec, the provincial capital of today. The two, distinct and yet united, give so much that is good in art, sacred and secular history, architecture and religion, that its resources are never fully tapped.

No one has ever had his fill of fair impressive view of the city from a little distance down the river, or the outlook from the parapets of Dufferin Terrace, within the city. No one has ever quite decided which really surpassed the vista looking up toward Quebec or the sweeping expanse of wonderland looking down from the city itself. Both reveal a prospect almost unsurpassed for grandeur and beauty.

Fortunately, it is within easy reach of us, with daily trains, ocean steamers, and above all, the beautiful boats of the Canada Steamship lines, which daily and nightly are loaded with passengers, pleasure seekers and tourists going to enjoy one of the grandest of all trips.

Thousands of pilgrims have gone from ueheb this Summer to the pretty village of Ste. Anne de Beaupre, which contains the shrine of the mother of the Blessed Virgin. Situated on the banks of the St. Lawrence, twenty-one miles below Quebec, it is one of the most favored towns in the New World. There is a special pilgrimage train from Quebec to Ste. Anne de Beaupre, which makes the trip in a remarkably short time.

If you want to know more about it, call or write in to the Boston American Travel Bureau, Winthrop Square, Boston, and find out about rates, time schedules and accommodations. Descriptive booklet on request.

Excursion Trips and Tours

Plymouth and return (except Monday and Wednesday), from Rowes Wharf—$1.75.

EVERY DAY

Nantasket Beach and return, from Rowe's Wharf, 10c, one way; Sundays, 50c; $1.00 round trip.

Provincetown and return, from Long Wharf (foot of State)—$2.00

Gloucester and return, from 400 Atlantic Ave. (near Rowes Wharf)—$1.50.

SATURDAY

Lake Winnipesaukee, N. H., and return, from North Station, 8:45 a. m. (daylight saving)—$2.00

SUNDAY

Old Orchard Beach and return, from North Station, 8:30 a. m. (daylight saving)—$2.50.

Lake Sunapee and return, from North Station, 9:45 a. m. (daylight saving)—$3.00.

TUESDAY

Martha's Vineyard and return, from South Station, 7:05 a. m. (daylight saving)—$2.00.

Nantucket and return, from South Station, 7:05 a. m. (daylight saving)—$2.00.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 3rd

Quebec—Leave North Station 8:25 p. m. S. S. Bic for Quebec 330 p. m. Monday, Sept. 6. Round trip $25.00

Montreal—Leave North Station on either day and night train Sept. 3rd or 4th. Returning, leave on any train all day Monday, Sept. 6. Round trip $18

SAVANNAH TRIP IN NINE DAYS

Here is a new kind of vacation. One that combines the luxury, comfort and pleasure of an ocean voyage with an interesting historical tour of one of the most romantic cities of the South.

A whiff of the sea, a step across the gangplank of one of the big steamships of the Company of Savannah, and your good times begin. Three days of ocean travel on broad promenade decks to stroll on.

Savannah is at the end of it, that beautiful old city, teaming with interest, both of today and ages ago. While there you will visit the historical sites made famous by the Revolutionary and Civil Wars.

Then comes the sail home, which perhaps, you will enjoy even more than the sail down.

The cost of this all expense tour ranges around $87.50, depending upon whether single rooms, private baths, and extra accommodations are required. The cruise includes transportation, meals and stateroom accommodations aboard ship while at sea; also passenger and baggage transfer and high class hotel accommodations, including meals. It includes automobile sight-seeing trips while ashore at Savannah.

The boats leave Boston at 5 p. m. on either Tuesday or Saturday. If you leave Tuesday you have Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at sea, arriving at Savannah at 6 o'clock Saturday morning. All day Saturday, Sunday, and until 8 o'clock Monday you are in the city. On Friday, at 6 o'clock in the morning, you steam into Boston harbor again.

MERCHANTS AND MINERS STAFF OUTING SUNDAY

The annual outing of the Merchants & Miners Transportation Co. employes of Boston and Providence will be conducted at McPeake's Shore Gardens, Nantasket Beach, Sunday. Company officials from Baltimore will be present. Boston group will go to the beach by steamboat, those from Providence by automobile.

HOTEL KENMORE

Boston's Newest and Finest Hotel

A combination of metropolitan luxury and elegance, with the hospitality for which New England is famed.

Single Rooms $3.50 to $10.00 per day

Double Rooms $5.00 to $12.00 per day

Only five minutes' ride from "downtown" Boston—yet in a beautiful residential neighborhood amid peace and quiet. Period furnishings, bedhead reading lamps and the morning paper free at your door.

Ample parking space for motor vehicles. Write for folder "C"

COMMONWEALTH AVE.
KENMORE SQUARE

SPECIAL TRIPS TO PLYMOUTH

As a fitting climax to a wonderfully popular season of daily trips, the Nantasket Beach Steamboat Company announces that for this week only, the Rose Standish will make daily excursions from Rowes Wharf, Boston, to Plymouth, starting at 10 a. m. and returning to Boston in time for supper at home.

This allows ample time at Plymouth ashore to visit the Rock, the Forefathers' Monument, Burial Hill, and Pilgrim Hall, with its historic relics.

On Saturday, however, this Plymouth trip will start at 2 p. m., making a moonlight return to Boston in the evening.

PHILADELPHIA STILL IS DRAWING CROWDS

Philadelphia has been the great Mecca for pilgrims this summer. And still the boats are full of people going over for a week's enjoyment of that beautiful city, and a glimpse of the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition. There is a vigor and vitality to the trip now which this summer lacked, for the weather is cooler.

The boat leaves Boston at 4 o'clock Saturday, arriving at Philadelphia at 7 Monday morning.

Write the Boston Evening American, Hotel and Travel Bureau, 8 Winthrop Square, for further information and interesting illustrated booklets.

FALL RIVER LINE

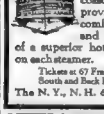
Established 1847

To New York

The Comfortable Way via the Inside Route

Lv. BOSTON
Ex. Sun. (Special Daily Boat Train) 4 P. M.
Due NEW YORK (Pier 14, N. R.) 8 A. M.
Eastern Standard Time

To New York $6.50
Round Trip $10.00
Good for 10 days



THE finest passenger ships in constant service, providing all the comforts, luxuries and conveniences of a superior hotel. Orchestra on each steamer.

Tickets at 67 Franklin Street, South and Back Bay Stations.
The N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. Co.

NANTASKET BEACH

(One-Hour Sail on Boston Harbor)

Daily: First boat leaves at 7:15 A. M. Then every hour from 9:15 A. M. to 6:15 P. M. Last boat leaves Boston at 11:15 P. M. Pare weekdays, 65c. Last Boat leaves Nantasket at 10:45 P. M.

SUNDAYS

Special Schedule. Extra boats in both directions. Last boat leaving Nantasket at 10:45 P. M. All Steamers From Rowe's Wharf.

SALEM WILLOWS

THE NORTH SHORE SAIL

Leaves Boston Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday 10:30 A. M. Salem Willows for Nantasket, 12:45 P. M. Nantasket for Salem Willows, 4 P. M. Salem Willows for Boston, 7 P. M. Steamers leave from Rowes Wharf, Boston.

Halifax and Newfoundland

An Ideal Summer vacation trip

Halifax	Newfoundland
One Way $18.00	$53.00
Round Trip $32.00	$95.00 (10 days)

Fare includes stateroom accommodations and meals.

Steel Steamer "FARNORTH" sails from Commercial Wharf, north side, every 10 days. Passenger and freight. Bills of lading to all points.

Next Sailings Sept. 1, Sept 12

For further particulars inquire

Farquhar Steamship, Ltd.
177 State St., Boston Cong. 5548

BERMUDA

Ideal Summer Vacations
Only 2 Days from New York

8 Days $97. and up

Including All Expenses For Steamer, Hotel and Interesting Side Trips

Average Summer Temperature 77°

Sailings Twice Weekly via
"Fort Victoria" & "Fort St. George"

For Illustrated Booklets Write
FURNESS BERMUDA LINE
10 STATE STREET, BOSTON, or
34 Whitehall Street, New York City, or Any Local Tourist Agent

HOLIDAY TRIP TO MONTREAL

The principal holiday excursion offered by the Boston & Maine Railroad will have for its destinations Quebec and Montreal. For this particular time the round trip rate to Quebec has been reduced to $15, with $10 to Montreal.

Tourists for Quebec will leave Boston on a special train at 8:25 p. m. (standard time) on Friday, Sept. 3, leaving Quebec at 3:30 p. m. the afternoon. There is ample time [illegible] the famous old "Rock City," [illegible] magnificent panorama [illegible] a side trip to the Shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre. Those wishing to go to Montreal will leave Boston on either Friday, Sept. 3 or Saturday, Sept. 4, on the [illegible] night trains. Returning, they will leave Montreal on special train Monday, Sept. 6.

B. & M. EXCURSION TO LAKE WINNIPESAUKEE

Lake Winnipesaukee, beautiful resort for tourists, will be the destination of a Boston & Maine excursion on Saturday, Aug. 28. Round trip rate is $2.00.

From coast to coast, Lake Winnipesaukee is famed as a glorious summer resort, and the special excursion train will leave North Station Saturday, Aug. 28 at 8:45 A. M. (Eastern Standard Time.)

Low Winter Rates
BOSTON
direct to EUROPE
By the Famous
OHIO ..... Sept. 4
And Oct. 2

Autumn brings increased pleasure to your trip abroad. There is a wider choice of accommodations on this splendid Cabin Liner. The summer rush is over in Europe and prices are lower.

"The Comfort Route"
ROYAL MAIL
The Royal Mail Steam Packet Co.
Sanderson & Son, Inc., Agents
90 State St., Boston Or Local Agents

To EUROPE via CUNARD LINE

From Boston to Liverpool via Queenstown
New 20,000-Ton Steamers
Scythia, Sept. 8
Laconia, Sept. 19
Samaria, Oct. 3

Express Service
Plymouth, Cherbourg, Southampton
Berengaria, Aquitania, Mauretania
From New York Every Wednesday

Cabin Steamers
From New York and From Montreal
To Plymouth, Havre, London,
Cherbourg, Hamburg.
Liverpool, Belfast, Glasgow
Tourist Third Cabin $170 R. T.

Winter Cruises
To the West Indies
December—January—February
"Franconia" (new), 17,000 tons
"Caledonia" (new), 17,000 tons
To the Mediterranean
"Mauretania" 31,000 tons

CUNARD AND ANCHOR LINES
126 State St., Boston
Or Apply to Agents

New York $5.39

The Rail and Boat Daily and Sunday Excursion to New York leaving water $1.50 additional from Providence Station 7:00 P. M. Steamer DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME
Colonial Line, 196 Wash. St., 2788

PROVINCETOWN

PILGRIMS' FIRST LANDING

100 mile round trip daily to Cape Cod on large steamers.
Leaves Providence 8 P. M. (Standard Time) Daily and Sunday. Tickets and stateroom at South Station, Main Bag and Consolidated Ticket Office, Boston.

GLOUCESTER BY BOAT

Daily 10:30 A. M. $1.50 ROUND TRIP
Lv. Gloucester 4 p.m.—ar. Boston 6.30 p.m.
Lv. Boston 11 a.m.—ar. Gloucester 7.45 p.m.
STEAMER MONHEGAN
BAY LINE WHARF, East Boston Short 400 ATLANTIC AVE. Tel. Main 3332-3

BAY STATE LINE NEW YORK

VIA RAIL & BOAT

STATEROOM $5.00, $3.50 and $2.50
Steel steamships Georgia and Tennessee leave Providence 4 P. M. (Standard Time) daily and Sundays. Tickets and stateroom at South Station, Main Bag and Consolidated Ticket Office, Boston.

THE BALSAMS

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Dixville Notch, New Hampshire

Seven Miles From Canadian Border

The peer of White Mountain Resorts. A fireproof hotel without equal for picturesque location—in the midst of majestic hills and beautiful lakes of scenic New Hampshire. Excellent 18-hole golf links. Fishing and all outdoor and indoor amusements. Hay fever unknown.

Excellent Clientele—Cuisine and Service Unsurpassed—Attractive Rates

ALSO

Garden City Hotel

Garden City, Long Island, N. Y.

An Exclusive American-Plan Hotel

Open All the Year With an a la Carte Restaurant for Motorists.

Five 18-Hole Golf Links at Salisbury Plains, Free to Guests.

J. J. Lannin Co. Phone Garden City 700

EVENING AMERICAN SPORTS

Catcher Wally Schang of the St. Louis Browns, was badly spiked by Lou Gehrig in a play at the plate in one of the Browns-Yankee games.

Detectives have had their eyes on alleged betters at Sportsmans Park, St. Louis. Two men were arrested when they made the mistake of betting with a "dick."

WEATHER CHECKS BASEBALL GAME AT FENWAY PARK

SPOKES SURPRISE OF LEAGUE

Looked Like Second Division Team at Start, but Have Always Been Near Top

By NICK FLATLEY

THE game scheduled between the Red Sox and the Chicago White Sox this afternoon was called off at noon today owing to the continued inclement attitude of the weather man

THIS SPEAKERS Indians, the surprise of the American League campaign, have carried their battle for second place in the stretch here at the Fenway. The Spokes are present for four games in what is left of a and baseball week, the double-ing tomorrow and Saturda

The Indians have been right back of the Yan kees practically [illegible] They started out like winners and now [illegible] pace [illegible] week [illegible] to [illegible] this didn't seem [illegible] mind the [illegible] dope

Speaker is as shrewd as any of the managers He didn't spend a big fortune on young talent last Winter, even though he club did nothing to brag about in the '25 campaign He announced that he had enough material to be a pennant contender, and stuck to it

And the facts have borne him out. The players he had been nursing along over several campaigns began to deliver. His pitchers came through. As a result he will collect some shares of the series money this Fall, and be a real sure enough threat in the next year

Nick Flatley

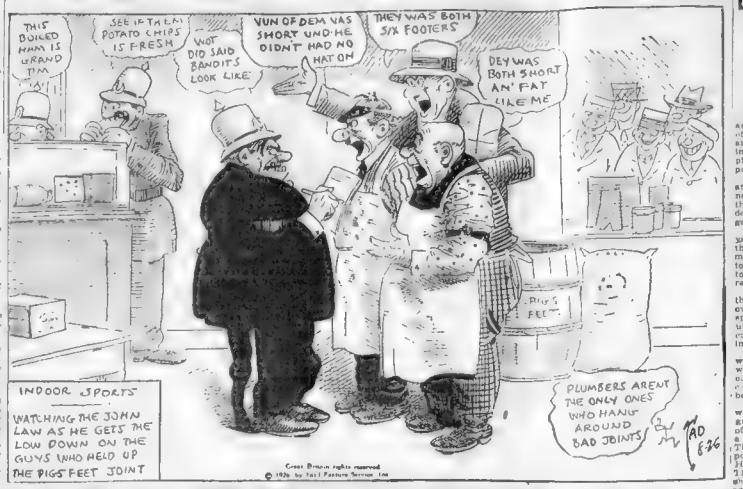
THE Indians just at present are [illegible] mixed up in a wild battle with the Tigers and Athletics for second place. They have been steadier all year than their immediate rivals and depend upon this steadiness to carry them through

They feel that they have some revenge to take out on the natives here, because the Nox whacked them for a double goal on the last trip to Cleveland and thereby ruined what little chance to second players had in sick in the real final race.

Games now mean a lot to the Indians, so they will have all their war paint on these next few days The Red Sox have been through a tough series with the Tigers. They collided with the Cobbs when the boys from Ford village were all hitting together. And that's baseball suicide

The Fenway youths ruined all the nice things that had been said about them, so they are due to reform and give the fans a little chance to cheer over the brief remainder of the season. The club plays here next week, and then vaudevilles into the far parts to wind up the season.

Indoor Sports -:- -:- -:- By TAD



THIS BOILED HAM IS GRAND TIM
SEE IS THEM POTATO CHIPS IS FRESH
WOT DID SAID EDITS LOOK LIKE
VUN OF DEM VAS SHORT UND HE DIDN'T HAD NO HAT ON
THEY WAS BOTH SIX FOOTERS
DEY WAS BOTH SHORT AN' FAT LIKE ME
PIGS FEET
INDOOR SPORTS
WATCHING THE JOHN LAW AS HE GETS THE LOW DOWN ON THE GUYS WHO HELD UP THE PIGS FEET JOINT PLUMBERS AREN'T THE ONLY ONES WHO HANDY AROUND BAD JOINTS
TAD 8-26

Cross Britain rights reserved © 1926 by Paul Patterson Service, Inc.

BRAVES INVADE CHICAGO FOR FINAL SERIES

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 26—The Braves are here for their final engagement of the season at Bill Wrigley's park, and from their decided improvement in the series at St. Louis expect to pick up a little more distance in pulling away from the Phils

For the past two days Bancroft's athletes have been playing at a pennant clip in spite of the fact that they have only one victory and two defeats to show for their Cardinal games.

Their performance at St. Louis yesterday had about 8,000 fans in the stakes all afternoon. The game meant more to Rog Hornsby than to the Braves as the Cardinals had to win to take first place in the race.

When the Braves tied the score in the ninth and threatened to drag over the winning run the St. Louis spectators moaned and groaned in unison. Old Grover Alexander came rushing out of the bull pen in time to stop the attack.

Goldsmith, Hearn and Morrides worked for the Braves and Hearn was quite a pitcher. He was taken out for a pinch hitter and the ancient southpaw finished in time to be charged with the defeat.

The end run of the 4 to 3 score was quite a heartbreaker for Morgridge. Thevenow doubled to left off the eleventh. Then Alex popped a freak hit back of second to put Thevenow on third. Holm was purposely passed and Hornsby sent in Hafey to swing for Southworth. The pinch hitter sent a dinky man's shot over High's head for a single and the game was over.

Gertrude Ederle Tops Athletes of Nation in Popularity

THE Hearst Popularity Contest today is as full of surprises as a grab-bag. In the first place, Gertrude Ederle, upon her homecoming, will find herself decidedly in the competition, a condition which has been hinted at by her remarkable increase in votes recently, and which in the past 24 hours, has swept her beyond the heretofore acknowledged leaders, Babe Ruth and Helen Wills. In short, Gertrude now leads the contest.

"Babe" Ruth

"Trude" Ederle

A total of 16,729 points is hers. Her rise has been truly sensational. Starting way down the list, she was hardly conceded the chance of winning the contest in a raffle. Slow in gaining momentum, the attention focussed upon the nip-and-tuck race between Babe Ruth and Helen Wills kept the girl Channel swimmer in comparative oblivion

Behind her, by a freak of fortune, Babe and Helen are tied in points, an unusual occurrence in a contest such as this. Each of these stars has 16,645 points.

As they stand now, the leading quintet in New England is Helen Wills, 953; Babe Ruth, 861; Bobby Jones, 390; May Elwell, 340; Jack Dempsey, 277.

Following is national standing of twenty leading candidates:

	First	Second	Third	Points
Gertrude Ederle	3675	2918	2266	16,729
Babe Ruth	3063	2828	2194	16,635
Helen Wills	2781	2923	2448	16,635
Red Grange	1935	2285	1857	12,342
Tony Haidick	3372	92	15	10,216
Dick Howell	3306	91	103	10,209
Bobby Jones	1369	1333	1311	8,064
Johnny Meyers	1960	159	81	6,261
Wally Marks	1094	72	78	6,264
Jack Dempsey	896	1065	1119	5,976
Ty Cobb	1344	636	633	5,862
Walter Johnson	1116	675	756	5,652
Hack Wilson	866	673	656	4,372
George Cuneo	[illegible]	443	423	3,847
Eddie Collins	855	518	427	3,165
Johnny Weismuller	486	116	229	1,916
Bob Smith	557	105	30	1,911
Joe Sternaman	568	25	24	1,778
Bob Falk	408	182	167	1,746
Mary Ellen Totten	277	272	281	1,666

Name Your Favorites

Here are my choices for the most popular figures of the day in the sport world:

First Choice _____

Second Choice _____

Third Choice _____

My Name is _____

My Address is _____

City or Town _____

Use this or a similar form for sending your vote. Only one ballot is allowed each person. Choices must be confined to athletes, either male or female, who are present day residents of the United States.

CHAS. SWEENEY ELIMINATED AT COOMBE HILL

Coombe Hill Surrey Eng., Aug. 26 (A.P.)—Charles Sweeney, of the Ardsley school, New York, failed to qualify today was eliminated in the fifth round of the British open amateur golf championship by E. A. McIlvaine of Leweshtshire.

Young Sweeney who, with his brother Robert, made up a strong contingent of American invaders, apparently had been enjoying [illegible] is only bad to capture the championship He won his way into the last eight here to face [illegible] for the trophy, defeating [illegible] British opponents of [illegible] ability

Robert was eliminated in the first round

Sweeney had poor luck on the outward journey and was 2 down on the fourth hole where he lost his ball McIlvaine was still 3 up at the turn and made it 3 up at the tenth. The Scotch player was bunkered on the eleventh, however, while Sweeney was down in par to win the hole

The American then overshot the green on the short twelfth and lost the hole, becoming 3 down again He halved on the thirteenth, winning it, but could do no better than to halve the next four holes, losing the match 3 and 1.

McIlvaine now passes into the semi-finals

With the PONIES

OPINION OF LEADING HANDICAPPERS

AT SARATOGA

FIRST—Host Mon

1—Olive Dexter	20 points
The Cobb	20 points
Is Fat Be	15 points
2—Belvia	20 points
Bonnie	20 points
Miss De Rose	15 points
3—Chance Play	21 points
Which I Do	23 points
Gamine	19 points
4—Dainty	22 points
McAuliffe	23 points
Ecker	15 points
5—Host Mon	22 points
Good Listen	21 points
Devastation	17 points
6—Black Panther	27 points
Tipstaff	19 points
Mirsful	19 points

AT LINCOLN FIELDS

FIRST—Bottom Dollar.

1—Keegan	22 points
Fellow Lynn	19 points
Serena	12 points
2—Terminster	23 points
Cheval	19 points
Brunsfield	17 points
3—Roasted Hopes	21 points
Time Alot	17 points
Lady Regina	14 points
4—Betty Zane	20 points
Maruanna	18 points
Santa Lora	17 points
5—Beneficient	24 points
Bromedean	20 points
Cherokee Lee	19 points
6—Gadding Mattie	27 points
Iras	14 points
Ina	13 points
7—Spanish Rose	16 points
Star O	15 points
Phidias	10 points

SECOND RACE.

1—Red Gee, J Burke	19-1
Mirfak	15-1
2—Donna C Yates	15-1
Ethel Dantie	10-1
3—Gaudy	20-1
4—Dorothy W. Garner	20-1
5—Charentia D Dubois	20-1
6—Dry Nation, G. Hooper	20-1
7—Updike	20-1

SEVENTH RACE.

1—Rose O, Smith	8-1
2—Mazagon, F Baker	8-1
3—Orchids Rose, W Garner	8-1
4—Phidias	6-1
5—Try Again	4-1
6—Happy Bob	10-1
7—Mandrin, Burke	15-1
8—Pipes of Pan M. Elston	20-1
9—Captain Dean	20-1
10—Charlemotte	30-1

CLOCKERS' REVIEW—Free coder Gee, Lincoln; Virginius Kenilworth Clock ers Mg Free coder; Blasted Hope, Lincoln

TIP GRAPHIC—Free coder: Cherokee Lee Lincoln; Flag of Truce Kenilworth

WEEKLY FLASH—Free coder: Bottom Dollar, Lincoln; Prince K Kenilworth

THE TURF WEEKLY RACING GUIDE—Tormentor, Kenilworth; Scraps Miss Ros lin

BULLETIN HANDICAPPER'S BEST BETS—Saratoga, Selaya, Lincoln, Bottom Dollar; Miss Bennets, Lingard; Kenilworth Kathleen Crosby.

ADVERTISED TRACK SPECIAL—Results to Lincoln.

CHICAGO WIZARD'S SELECTIONS—Also reliable scorer Dasher, but take a chance. Woodlake.

At Saratoga

FIRST RACE

Marian Cuddy, P. Fisher	4-5
The Cody, McTaggart	4-5
Arabia, Jac Price	5-1
John W. Weber, O. Fields	6-1
Mischief, G. Ellis	8-1
Negotiator	10-1

SECOND RACE

Kalena	6-5
Dare N Brazing	6-5
Selectric, E. Ambrose	4-1
Rood de Rose, L. Tater	12-1
Wandering Minstrel	20-1

THIRD RACE

What'll I Do	4-1
Down King, L. Tater	3-1
Genuine, J. Maiben	15-1
Twilight Maid, E. Powell	20-1
Dance Belvi	30-1

FOURTH RACE.

McAuliffe, O. Fields	3-1
Under W. Harvey	7-1
Dasher O Arnold	7-5
Which I, Tater	8-1
Mayna, H. Richards	10-1
Roland	10-1
Freeman, J Maiben	10-1

FIFTH RACE.

Host Mon E Powell	1-2
Bud Hilton	5-1
Devastation	6-1
Papa Blinks, E. Horvath	8-1

SIXTH RACE

Mirsful, S. O Donald	4-1
Tipstaff, O. Fields	5-1
Son Affinity, E. Ambrose	6-1
Jonah, G Lang	10-1
Kook Thorn, Fairbrother	15-1

At Lincoln Fields

FIRST RACE.

5—Keegan, F Marmillo	3-1
11—Forte de Ore, K Jones	4-1
8—Ny Destiny	5-1
3—Verna D Casey	6-1
10—Woody, H Zucchini	8-1
1—Seneca, J Dubois	10-1
12—Lyz, J McElroy	20-1
4—Monastery	30-1
9—Ny Mary, W. Charles	20-1
6—Ray Jr., H. Smith	30-1
13—Panjea Smith	30-1
7—Echo	30-1

SECOND RACE

4—Turnerator, R. Jones	3-1
13—Choral	5-1
1—Don Baby, D. Smith	5-1
9—Brunsfield	6-1
12—Mary Winslow, R. Petarelli	10-1
3—Cymon, J. Dupuy	12-1
5—Red Hot W Garner	12-1
8—Kiss	15-1
11—Lucie Dear, Mortensen	20-1
7—Lilla T, Horvella	20-1
10—Shimmer	30-1
14—Pebble, J. Burns	30-1

THIRD RACE

8—Nasamist, D. Smith	3-1
5—Roasted Hopes, B. Jones	4-1
10—Freeze M. Kaiser	5-1
1—Rosh, D Dubois	10-1
9—Cymon, J. Dupuy	15-1
4—Solrose W Anderson	15-1
3—Lucie le Dear	20-1
6—Trading Ballot J O Brien	20-1
7—Starmetha	30-1

FOURTH RACE.

8—Bottom Dollar, R. Meyer	1-1
1—Bromedean, W. Post	10-1
5—Santa Lora, H. Elston	6-1
3—Fairfax Lass, R. Petarelli	8-1
9—Miss Mack	7-1
6—Anita M Anderson	10-1
4—Rocky Cliff, L. Garfield	30-1
7—Questrian, J. Burns	30-1

FIFTH RACE.

1—Rancilocation, D Smith	8-1
5—Devon	3-1
4—Quenelle, Smith	4-1
3—C Antler, F Baker	5-1
2—Broadcloud L. Greer	6-1
7—Charlene Lee	10-1
6—Chula Flyer, R. Jones	12-1
8—Curtona, R. Petarelli	20-1

SIXTH RACE.

1—Lou, D. Smith	3-1
6—Tamala Bob, R. Escobar	4-1
10—Orman Blaise, F. Merrill	5-1
5—Red Gee, J Burke	10-1
4—Mirfak	15-1
3—Gaudy	20-1
2—Donna C Yates	20-1
7—Ethel Dantie	30-1

SEVENTH RACE.

1—Rose O, Smith	3-1
2—Mazagon, F Baker	3-1
3—Orchids Rose, W Garner	3-1
4—Phidias	6-1
5—Try Again	6-1
6—Happy Bob	10-1
7—Mandrin, Burke	15-1
8—Pipes of Pan M. Elston	20-1
9—Captain Dean	20-1
10—Charlemotte	30-1

SMITH DEFENDS WESTERN OPEN HONORS

Indianapolis, Aug 26 (A.P.).—With a record score of 65 to shoot at, MacDonald Smith of New York today was ready to defend his title as Western open golf champion over the smooth links of the Highland Golf Club against nearly 250 other aspirants for the honor

Among the competitors trying to wrest the honor from Smith were Charlie Hall of Birmingham, who yesterday chalked up a 66 for the par 70 links; Walter Hagen, professional champion, who scored a 73 in practice, Chick Evans, the only amateur who has ever taken the Western open crown, and a score of other stars who have won various high honors.

About the only missing premier golfer was Bobby Jones of Atlanta, who bagged off from the meet on account of being overgolfed during the British meets in which he won the open title, and his hard contest to capture the national open recently at Columbus Bill Mehlhorn of Chicago, who won the event two years ago, was not expected to compete because of an injured hand.

To permit such a large field to play, only 18 holes are played the first day and a like number on the second day by the whole field.

Hub Typo Nine in Semi-Finals

St. Paul, Aug. 26—By decisively trouncing the St. Paul squad 14 to 5 in the International Leagues baseball tournament the St. Louis typos entered the semi finals and will battle Boston this morning at 10 o'clock at St. Louis University field. The Boston squad won their way into the semi finals by eliminating Cleveland, 7 to 5. Washington, defending champion, drew a bye for the semi-final round and will go idle until Friday afternoon, when the winner of the St Louis Boston game meets the champions for the title.

In the Boston-Cleveland game both sides broke loose in the sixth, Boston scoring three runs and Cleveland coming back with two. In the seventh Boston pushed over a pair of markers and added an extra one. The final two for the winners came in the first of the eighth.

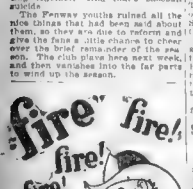
Up in the first of the fifth a double by Kremser, followed by a single by Verran, scored one run for Cleveland.

Sullivan then fanned three batters to end the game

The fielding of O'Brien at short stop for Boston was one of the bright spots of the game

You will find the best home bargains in the classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages

"Fire" "fire!" fire! fire!



This fire will have to go right on without the chief. Tough luck. But he carried fire prevention too far when he let his plugs get out of that regular firing habit.

It never pays to count on old plugs. Look yours over and replace weak ones with

SPLITDORF HALF DOLLAR spark plug

At jobbers, accessory stores and garages

Splitdorf Electrical Co. of New England 32-34 Brookline Avenue, Boston, Mass.

STECHER UNABLE TO TOSS PESEK IN LONG BOUT

Los Angeles, Aug 26 (INS.)—Joe Stecher, successful defender of his world's heavyweight wrestling title against John Pesek, the fast and clever Bohemian at the Olympic Auditorium last night. Neither had gained a fall at the expiration of the two-hour limit, and Referee Tommy Travers declared the match a draw.

Pesek put up a great exhibition of defensive wrestling. Stecher clamped his deadly body scissors on the challenger a number of times, but Pesek always succeeded in breaking the hold before any damage was done.

Inside Golf

Golfers have been told plenty of times that they must walk back with the body when they are hitting at the ball [illegible] to [illegible] stubbornly [illegible] The advice [illegible] were given [illegible] one of the things that [illegible] golfers [illegible] they give [illegible] much thought to the forward swing. Waving back with the body is a bit of advice that should be [illegible] hard to [illegible] walk back with the club will take up the slack and you are ready to swing the club-head forward.

AT TOP OF SWING TAKE UP SLACK IN RIGHT

(Copyright, 1926 John P. Collis Co.)

This feature also appears in the Boston Sunday Advertiser.

LA BARBA EASILY BEATS ATHERTON IN 10 ROUNDS

Chicago, Aug. 26 (A.P.).—Fidel La Barba, world's flyweight champion, won an easy decision over "Happy" Atherton, Indianapolis contender in a ten-round bout at Cubs' Park.

Just to show that favorites were running true to form, Emil Paluso of Salt Lake also copped a decision from Eddie Peters, Chicago Indian flyweight, in another ten-round argument.

GOLF ACES BEGIN FIGHT FOR WESTERN OPEN TITLE

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 26.—Approximately 250 golfers will meet today in the first 18 holes of the Western Golf Association championship tournament at the Highland Golf and Country Club. The course is in exceptionally good shape, with perfect putting greens.

The field of starters contains the "class" of American professionals.

U. S. C. DECIDES UPON THREE BACKFIELD MEN

Los Angeles, August 26.—With three backfield men already lined up for the starting quartet in the coming season's grid games, Coach Howard Jones of Southern California is trying to decide whether to add an interference expert or a ball carrier to the list. The backs already chosen are Morton Kaer, Manuel Larranetta, and Morley Drury, all great ground gainers. The other man will be either Jan Williams primarily a ball packer, or Bert Hellser, a terrific interference man Drury leads good interference and Hellser can also carry the leather well.

Tagging All Bases

By International News Service

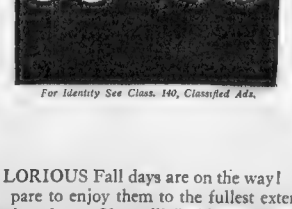
George Uhle, ordinarily known as a Cleveland pitcher, but in reality some swell gent, scored his fifth victory over the New York Yankees by shutting out the Hugmen 6 to 0.

To the accompaniment of Cincinnati groans and Giant sighs of relief, several records, runs, streaks et al, went to pot yesterday. The Giants beat the Reds, 2 to 1, winning their first game in seven starts, putting an end to the ominous streak of ten in a row piled up by the Reds and sending Carl Mays home with a sharp pain in his pitching record. Previous to this day of upsets, Carl had won five in a row.

The Chicago Cubs capped their series with the Phillies in fitting style by emerging victorious in the third meeting to make a clean sweep of the affair. The score was 5 to 3.

How They Stand in New England

	W	L
Helen Wills	953	429
Babe Ruth	861	437
Bobby Jones	390	107
May Elwell	340	14
Jack Dempsey	317	103
Glenna Collett	260	139
Gertrude Ederle	199	102
Charlie Paddock	116	65
Red Grange	88	65
Honeyboy Finnegan	77	24
Ty Cobb	76	90
Katherine Mackie	56	5
Harry Wills	46	16
Walter Johnson	46	61
Ralph De Palma	41	9
Jack Delaney	38	14
Vera Morrison	32	3



1924 HUDSON SPEEDSTER, $495—Two owners only to obtain one of the most popular touring cars ever sold today at a very low figure. This car has been restored and refinished and is exceptionally attractive throughout. Terms.

For Identity See Class. 140, Classified Ads.

GLORIOUS Fall days are on the way! Prepare to enjoy them to the fullest extent in a good used car. You will find just the one you want listed at an attractive price in today's Automobiles for Sale Columns of the Classified Ads. Classification 140.

Bob Shawkey, veteran, right-handed pitcher, is lost to the Yankees for several weeks because of an infection in his right foot.

EVENING AMERICAN SPORTS

When the Yankees won their twelfth consecutive game they set a record for successive victories this season.

SEVEN FLIGHTS IN MATCH PLAY AT WORCESTER G. C.

FIELD OF 112 SEEK PRIZES

Course in Best Shape Ever, Making Low Scoring Very Difficult

CHAMPIONSHIP FIGHT.
A. R. Parker, Jr., vs. R. C. Van Arsdell.
K. V. Kaler vs. J. N. Batchelder.
J. W. Lafortune vs. John Winslow.
W. O. Blaney vs. E. F. O'Brien.
E. W. Donaghy vs. F. E. Rockwell.
Phillip Sawyer vs. John O'Day.
W. A. Whitcomb vs. Ralph Leonard
Paul O'Connell vs. Joe Norton, Jr.

By BILL GRIMES

Worcester, Aug. 26.—Seven flights, the largest in the history of the club, started match play in the annual Worcester Country Club invitation today. The original plans called for six flights, but due to the large entry list, the tournament committee decided to put on an extra flight and 112 of the 136 starters reached the match play grade.

The Worcester Country Club is in fine condition for championship play. There is very little roll and the balls have to be well hit on the greens. An idea of how tough the course was for the qualifying round can be ascertained by glancing at the summar boil. Parker of Wellesley Joe Norton, Jr., of Woodland, Eddie O'Brien of Worcester and Ed Donaghy of Marlboro were the only ones able to break 80.

There were eleven tied for two places in the championship flight at 84. Instead of a swatfest for the two vacancies the decision was reached by a draw and Jack Winslow and Phil Sawyer were the lucky ones.

Parker was the medalist and he is out with a real tough match player in Ray Van Arsdell of Woodland. "Van" made the championship flight with an 83.

Joe Batchelder, wenham, who turned in an 80 is with Harold Kaler of Woodland and the ex-Dartmouth captain is the favorite to reach the second round. The Lafortune-Winslow match promises to be a slugfest from the first tee. Lafortune has the honor of being the first player that ever drove the Brook on the first hole here. Jack Winslow is also a long hitter.

One of the finest matches of the morning will be the Bill Blaney-Gene O'Brien battle. Although O'Brien was one of the four who broke 80, and Bill Blaney just got in with an 81 the Braeburn boy appears to have the edge on his Worcester opponent.

Donaghy and Rockwell are topping the lower half of the draw and unless the Marlboro lanky very much off his game it will be in the beaten 8 this afternoon. Phil Sawyer from Worcester Country Club is playing John O'Day of Oakhill.

Bill Whitcomb the local favorite, is battling Ralph Lincoln from Whitinsville in the first round and he will, providing he turns back Lincoln meets the winner of the Paul O'Connell-Joe Norton, Jr., clash.

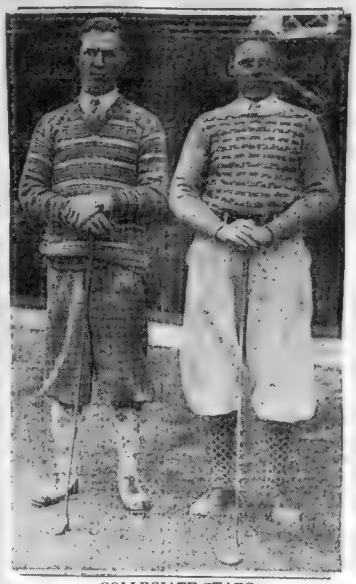
The O'Connell Norton match brings together a couple of fine young golfers.

In meeting O'Connell in the first round and, in all probability, Bill Whitcomb in the afternoon, Norton gets his usual tough breaks of the draw.

The championship flight is played from scratch.

The Worcester Country Club has expended over $500 for prizes for this tournament. There are four prizes for each division.

WORCESTER SURVIVORS



COLLEGIATE STARS

Eddie O'Brien of Holy Cross (left) and Paul O'Connell of Dartmouth are Worcester's representatives in the fight for the title in the Worcester C. C. open.

Good Card at Fort Banks Tonight

Folks residing in the neighboring sections of Fort Banks, Winthrop, will get a chance to see two big guns in action on the fort grounds tonight. Larry Brignolia of Cambridge and Red Griffin of Chelsea are scheduled to go eight rounds in the feature bout of the all-star card being staged by the Soldiers' Athletic Association.

Brignolia, son of a Cambridge blacksmith, is looking forward to hammering his way to a win over the Chelsea "Red Top." Everyone who has followed the flatic racket during the last year or so knows the capability of these two.

Other flatic performers ready for the sound of the gong will be Johnny Murphy meeting Mike Maloney and Pete Algondo taking on Joe Mis- [illegible] The six preliminary bouts of six rounds will find Jack Powers opposing Jimmy Deba and Eddie Marlowe boxing Ray Mercire.

LINEUP AT FENWAY PARK

Indians	Ab	Bh	Ave	Red Sox	Ab	Bh	Ave
Jamieson, lf	430	120	.279	Tobin, rf	135	31	.230
Spurgeon, 2b	496	151	.304	Rigney, ss	430	115	.267
Speaker, cf	419	128	.304	Jacobson, cf	459	147	.320
Burns, 1b	475	177	.372	Rosenthal, lf	206	55	.267
J. Sewell, ss	464	151	.325	Regan, 2b	300	82	.273
Summa, rf	467	144	.308	Todt, 1b	497	123	.253
L. Sewell, c	339	77	.227	Haney, 3b	403	90	.223
Lutzke, 3b	370	88	.238	Gaston, c	201	61	.234
Smith, p	60	13	.216	Ruffing, p	45	9	.200
Karr, p	43	10	.233	Zahniser, p	41	7	.171
Team	4248	1217	.286	Team	4282	1116	.261

HOW THE TEAMS WILL STAND TONIGHT

	Win	Lose		Win	Lose
Indians	557	549	Red Sox	539	531

Bike Fans Show Interest in Races

Judging the interest displayed in the world's cycling derby, next Saturday night at the Revere Cycle track, one of the largest crowds in years will be in attendance.

Manager Sat Butler has lined up seven of the speediest [illegible] now racing in the [illegible] George Chapman, Victor Linquist and Frankie Keenan are [illegible] stripes in the race. [illegible] Bobby Grassin to [illegible] honors.

Reginn will have two [illegible] representatives in Charley Arsenault, Henry Kyne [illegible] Ted Arsenault will be in the race. A youth who has stepped [illegible] in the esteem of the [illegible] fans.

If you are furnishing a home buy through the classified ads.

"Little Bill" Is Ill

Newport, R. I., Aug. 26.—William M. Johnston, tennis wizard from San Francisco, is matched with a dangerous opponent today.

The little coast player is confined to his bed here with sickness which overtook him after a strenuous match at the Newport Casino tenth annual tournament.

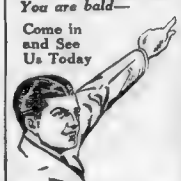
"Little Bill" is suffering from a sore throat and has high fever, but Dr. T. Lawrence Saunders, who is tending him, says that his condition is not serious.

The doubles match in which Johnston was to have appeared was postponed.

If

You have itchy scalp
You have dandruff
You have falling hair
You are getting bald
You are bald—

Come in and See Us Today



We Grow Hair

If you are losing your hair, have itching scalp or dandruff, you are sure to become bald. Eighty-five per cent of baldness is due to neglect. The famous Thomas Method of scalp-rejuvenation will save your suits of hair, prevent baldness, and positively grow new hair. A growth of new hair visible on scalp from three to six weeks treatment.

Thomas Scientific Treatments are based on principles scientifically correct, and fundamentally right because of proven results in thousands of cases treated in the 30 authorized Thomas offices located in the principal cities of the U. S. No guesswork—if accepted for treatment we tender you a

Legal Guarantee Certificate to promote a growth of new hair on your scalp, or spots where hair formerly grew, or refund your money.

FREE Scalp Examination
No obligation

Come today, your hair will not improve by waiting

THE THOMAS EYELET
ORIGINATORS OF BALDNESS
Hair and Scalp Specialists
810-811 Dexter Bldg
453 Washington St.
Opp. Jordan Marsh Co.
Hours: 10 A. M. to 8 P. M.
Saturday to 6:30.

DAVIS CUP MATCH TODAY

New York, Aug. 26. Jean Rene La Coste and Henri Cochet of France will represent France and Takeichi Harada and Tsumi Tawara, Japan, in the singles of the interzone Davis Cup finals, beginning at Forest Hills today, it was officially announced.

The winner of the interzone cash will gain the rightto meet the United States in the challenge round next month.

An official draw arranged the schedule for the first day so that Cochet and Tawara will meet in one match, and Harada and La Coste the aces of the two contending nations, in the other.

The pairings will be reversed tomorrow the second day of singles play and the makeup of the doubles teams which will meet on Friday will be announced later.

BASEBALL STATISTICS

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Standing of the Clubs

	W.	L.	Pc.	Win	Lose
New York	77	46	.626	629	621
Cleveland	69	55	.556	.556	.548
Philadelphia	67	56	.545	.548	.540
Detroit	65	57	.533	.537	.528
Washington	60	59	.504	.509	.500
Chicago	60	61	.496	.500	.493
St. Louis	51	72	.415	.419	.411
BOSTON	42	84	.333	.339	.331

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS
Detroit 11, Boston 4 (first game); Detroit 7, Boston 6 (second game).
Cleveland 6, New York 0 (first game); Cleveland-New York (second game, rain).
Philadelphia-Chicago (rain).
Washington-St. Louis (rain)

GAMES TODAY.
Cleveland at Boston, 3:15 p. m.
Detroit at New York.
St. Louis at Philadelphia, 2 games.
Chicago at Washington, 2 games.

Eastern League

Bridgeport 8, Providence 2 (first game).
Providence 3, Bridgeport 0 (second game).
Springfield 3, Waterbury 1 (first game).
Springfield 4, Waterbury 2 (second game 8 innings).
New Haven 12, Pittsfield 8 (first game).
Pittsfield 8, New Haven 4 (second game).
Hartford 4, Albany 3 (first game).
Hartford 7, Albany 6 (second game).

STANDING OF THE CLUBS

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Providence	78	47	.607	Albany	61	64	.488
N. Haven	73	51	.589	Hartford	60	65	.480
Bridgeport	73	53	.579	Waterb'y	64	67	.453
Springfield	68	56	.548	Pittsfield	41	81	.336

GAMES TODAY
New Haven at Springfield.
Providence at Pittsfield.
Bridgeport at Pittsfield.
Waterbury at Albany.

International League

Buffalo 10, Newark 7
Baltimore 4, Rochester 3
Toronto 3, Jersey City 0
Reading at Syracuse—Rain.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Toronto	87	49	.640	Rochester	66	70	.485
Baltimore	86	58	.618	Jersey City	60	73	.451
Newark	81	64	.600	Syracuse	43	77	.358
Buffalo	79	59	.573	Reading	30	99	.233

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Standing of the Clubs

	W.	L.	Pc.	Win	Lose
St. Louis	71	61	.582	.583	.577
Pittsburgh	69	62	.527	.581	.573
Cincinnati	70	62	.574	.577	.569
Chicago	64	67	.529	.573	.525
New York	59	60	.496	.500	.493
Brooklyn	59	66	.472	.476	.464
Boston	48	72	.400	.405	.397
Philadelphia	43	74	.368	.373	.364

GAMES TODAY
Boston at Chicago.
New York at Pittsburgh.
Brooklyn at Cincinnati.
Philadelphia at St. Louis.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS
St. Louis 4, Boston 3 (11 innings).
New York 2, Cincinnati 1.
Brooklyn 5, Pittsburgh 1.
Chicago 3, Philadelphia 2.

Twilight League

Fore River 5, Lynn 4.
Dorchester 12, Somerville 8.
Waltham 8, [illegible] Boston 1.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Lynn	13	5	.813	Dorchester	9	7	.500
Fore River	12	6	.667	Somerville	8	11	.316
Malden	9	6	.600	Waltham	1	13	.077
So. Boston	8	6	.800

Somerville at Lynn.
Fore River at South Boston.
Dorchester at Malden.

American Association

Milwaukee 8, Toledo 3 (first game).
Milwaukee 3, Toledo 1 (second game).
Minneapolis 7, Louisville 5.
St. Paul 7, Indianapolis 3.
Kansas City 7, Columbus 2.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Milwaukee	84	67	.661	Kan. City	65	87	.428
Louisville	78	69	.612	St. Paul	61	92	.399
Indianapolis	78	84	.481	Minneapolis	57	71	.445
Toledo	66	83	.308	Columbus	50	94	.334

New England League

Lawiston 8, Lynn 5 (first game).
Lawiston 4, Lynn 3 (second game).
Manchester 5, Salem 3 (16 innings).
Lawrence 6, Portland 5 (first game).
Lawrence 3, Portland 2 (second game 8 innings, darkness).

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
M'chester	80	39	.672	Salem	59	61	.492
Lynn	71	55	.563	Lawrence	56	64	.472
Lewiston	62	56	.525	Nashua	53	66	.445
Haverhill	61	61	.500	Portland	39	82	.322

GAMES TODAY.
Manchester at Nashua, N. H.
Haverhill at Lewiston, Me. (two games).
Lawrence at Portland, Me.

Over two billion smoked a month!

—what better proof could you ask?

Doesn't such popularity speak for itself?

OVER two billion Chesterfields smoked every month. Some cigarettes! But likewise—some cigarette!

Natural tobacco taste—nothing can take its place, and smokers are finding it out. The character and goodness of fine tobaccos brought out to the full—that's what smokers want. And they're finding it in Chesterfield—for natural tobacco taste and Chesterfield are one and the same thing!

Chesterfield
CIGARETTES

They Satisfy

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

They are saying Max Bishop of the Athletics, is about the most improved player over last year in the American League

EVENING AMERICAN SPORTS

The placing of Henry (Nick) Cullop, outfielder, by the Yankees with St. Paul recently, brought up the question of the two-year rule.

RICKARD SAYS CHAMP FIGURES WILLS SECOND RATER

TEX RAPS AT MIXED RING BOUT

Famous Promoter Reveals Dempsey's Insistence on Duel With Brown Panther

New York, Aug. 26 (A.P.).—Jack Dempsey has never ducked Harry Wills, and would rather have fought the negro champion than Gene Tunney if the bout could have been arranged, Tex Rickard today told the Associated Press.

"To say that Dempsey fears Wills is a joke," said the promoter. "He considers him a cleaning, outmuscle citizen, but a second-rate fighter."

At the same time the promoter, in a detailed statement defending the champion's course, revealed that his own offer to stage a Dempsey-Wills match were in part the reason he had given up the idea of getting the tickets for the fight promoted.

Opposition on the part of the State Athletic Commission was the barrier to the match, it developed, as only the boxing authorities had the power to veto. New Jersey put up a similar ban and Rickard gave up all thought of trying to hold the contest.

"My experience with the Jeffries-Johnson bout long ago convinced me that a Dempsey-Wills match would not be a good thing for boxing," said Rickard.

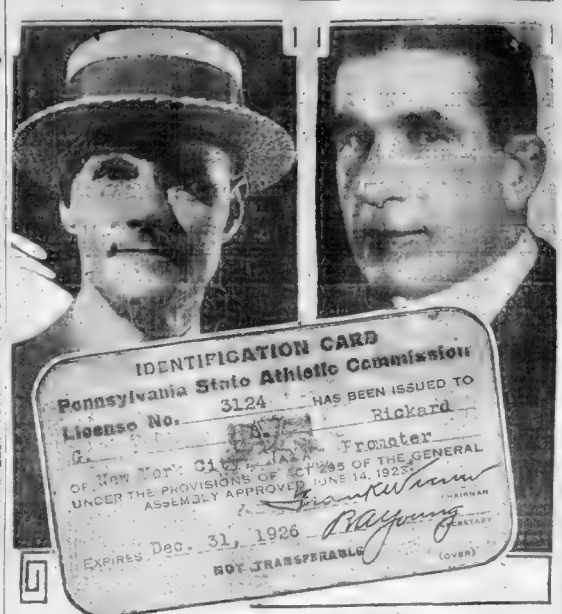
"As I became better acquainted with the game and talked with persons of influence I saw it would be to change my opinion.

"I have made more negro champions—among them Jack Johnson, Tiger Flowers and Joe Gans—and promoted more mixed bouts than any other man in the ring game, but I did not think it wise to hold this particular match."

Dempsey, however, Rickard disclosed, had repeatedly urged him to obtain Wills instead of Tunney for a title match. The promoter exhibited a series of telegrams to prove this assertion.

"Aside from my personal conviction that a Wills-Dempsey match is not probable, I do not believe I have any chance of appearing for the champion, I firmly believe that the mixed title contest cannot be held," Rickard declared.

SCRAP OF PAPER BALKS FIGHT FOE



PROMOTER WINS BOUT WITH EX-CHAMPION

Herewith are Tex Rickard, left, and Jim Corbett, with the license issued by the Pennsylvania State Boxing Commission authorizing Tex to stage the Dempsey-Tunney fight, despite the objections of Jim, who claims to have a contract with the Sesqui Exposition officials. (Photos by International Newsreel.)

ARGENTINE 4 TO PLAY IN R. I.

The first appearance of the four crack players from Argentina will be made at the Point Judith Club, Narragansett Pier, R. I., next Saturday afternoon, when the famous Latin American players will cross mallets with a picked Anglo-American four. The public is invited to witness this game which is free to all.

This will be the first time the Argentines have appeared in the country this season. On the Argentine team is the famous Louis Lacey, the hero of the last International tournament at Meadow Brook.

The feature of the game will be the debut of the 16½ Stanley Argentina, Manuel Andrada, who is said to be a sensation. Andrada is said to equal the great Lacey exhibition, who began his polo at the Myopia Club. At back is the sensational horseman Luis Lacey, while Lacey, among the players covering over half the length of the field.

On the Anglo-American team will be Rodney Wanamaker, one of the best of America's younger set of players.

FINISH IN NET TOURNEY AT TEDESCO TODAY

Finals in the North Shore junior tennis champ ionship tourney are to be played at the Tedesco Country Club clay courts today, along with one semi-final match in the junior boys' singles, when W. Hughes, Jr., of Mill n Archer, is to meet Francis Smith, Jr. Also Louis MacFarland of Lynnfield, Cal. is to meet Virginia Rice in the women's side final singles. Credit Claude Champ of Swampscott.

Any article beginning with any letter from A to Z is found in alphabetical order in the classified ads on the next to the last pages. Philadelphia offices.

SCRAP OF PAPER BALKS FIGHT FOE

Kearns Eludes Guards to Carry Off Shelby Battle Receipts

By JACK KEARNS

DEMPSEY was out of that Shelby arena like a flash, not taking time to put even a robe over his shoulders. He hopped into a fast car that we had staked off and he caught the first special out of Shelby, dressing on the train as it sped toward Great Falls.

Jack Kearns

I remained behind. I had to face the music. The worst part of my worry was over. I had got my man in and out without trouble and I was thankful for that.

But tough sledding remained for me. The lynching talk hadn't entirely subsided, and I was far from being out of my difficulties.

There was less danger of mob violence as the fight crowd spread out and went every which way. The more they spread the less tough they got. That's the way with mobs. Like a guy at a ball game calling the umpire "robber" when he's safely surrounded by other spectators.

I wound up with $90,000 in cash out at the arena. I put the money in bags and picking my deputies I started back to town followed by about twenty other deputies and revenue men.

We went into an old deserted bank to count up. This took until two the next morning. The governmint men were hanging around for their 10 per cent. I put the money into two suit cases and announced that I would wait until the banks opened to deposit it.

Everybody sat around, nobody trusting the other fellow enough to take a wink of sleep. The revenue chief demanded that I not only give him the 10 per cent. agreed upon but that I pay him a revenue on all the money I had received up to date.

Their agreement was to take 10 per cent, and turn the balance over to me. Dan McKetrick came in about this time and, putting him in charge of the money, I went out to get a cup of coffee. The town was deserted.

CHIEF EMITS SQUAWK

When I came back the revenue chief was squawking about getting a government cut on all the money that had been paid to me. I overheard that I'd have to get my money without any great assistance from him. I spoke to him:

"Chief, as soon as the bank opens I'm going to play safe with this money. I'm going to have these two suitcases taken across the railroad track there to the bank. We'll put the money in the bank and then all of us fiscers will go up and have breakfast, come back to the bank and settle up."

While I was talking to him my mind was on another track. What of leaving out of the God forsaken place? Would there be one at all?

TRAINMASTER AIDS

The trainmaster had been pretty long to me and I decided to look him up.

"Are there any specials out of here this morning," I asked him.

"Nothing until 1 o'clock," he answered.

"Nothing to Great Falls before that time?"

"Nothing."

"Can I hire a special train to Great Falls?"

"You can't have a train, but I could get you an engine and a caboose, but it would cost you $600," he replied.

"Sold," I snapped back. "When can I have it?"

I told him the importance of getting away quickly and the reason. He agreed with me.

ENGINEER JOINS PLOTTERS

"I'll have her ready in 20 minutes if you'll be ready," he said. "When I got back the whole bunch was still there sitting around sleepy eyed. I told McKetrick of the special that he'd arranged. Also about the stuff on the bank windows. Dan got it all in a flash. The revenue chief was not there at the moment. One of his men tipped me off that the old bird had gone over to get the district attorney to get out papers to arrest on me.

SHERIFF PROVES FRIENDSHIP.

The sheriff who had stuck to me sent over one of his deputies to put me wise. He felt that I was being treated unfairly.

It wasn't his business to collect it then or at any time. I had turned the government's 10 per cent. on $90,000 so my conscience was clear. I kept looking over out of the window carelessly every now and then for a sight of the Kearns caboose. Finally she came puffing along.

Turning to the crowd of sleepy deputies and the rest I said "Boys, we'll take these two grips over to the bank there across the track. We've got it all fixed with those fellows over there to move this money in where we can sort it out and everything like that. We'll have McKetrick here carry the grips over and when we see it behind lock and key, we'll all step out to breakfast."

Placed the two grips in McKetrick's hands and actually shoved him out of the door with them just as I see the engineer haul up the water spout and start to move his engine.

(Copyright, 1926, by the Chicago Daily Syndicate.)

In tomorrow's installment of this vivid story Kearns tells of plans for the Firpo bout.

A cool sail to the Tip of CAPE COD and return. S. S. Dorothy Bradford. See Tour & Travel Page.

NEW YORK BY AUTO
In a "NORAKE" through Picturesque New England by daylight DAILY from Hotel Westminster 8:30 A. M., $7.50.

TWO-DAY TOUR
to New York via Deerfield Valley, Mohawk Trail, Berkshires, and Stone King Highway and West Point.

ALL EXPENSE TOURS
By Motor Coach connecting with Lake, River and OCEAN Steamers, to MONTREAL QUEBEC
Niagara Falls, Adirondacks, White Mountains, Mohawk Trail, Thousand Islands, Semi-Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia. Daily Departures, CHICAGO and the NORTHWEST LAKES — SHORT SEA TRIPS—TOURS through EVANGELINE LAND — BERMUDA — CUBA—the NATIONAL PARKS—CANADIAN ROCKIES. Also about the storm on the bank windows. Dan got it all in a flash. The revenue chief was not there at the moment. One of his men tipped me off that the

MARSTERS TOURS
248 Washington St., Boston
Telephone Main 4718

$800,000 in Cash Box for Philly Scrap

By DAVIS J. WALSH,
I. N. S. Sports Editor

New York, Aug. 26 (I.N.S.).—Back on the old home grounds today for a short series with his local problems, Tex Rickard made the almost incredible statement that advance orders for the Dempsey-Tunney match at Philadelphia had reached a total of approximately $800,000.

He made the announcement as box offices here and in Philadelphia were being thrown open for a public sale of tickets for the first time since the fight became a possibility some months ago.

A total of 20,000 tickets, he said, had been shipped to his headquarters in Philadelphia for the opening of the sale and added that more were to follow as the demand increased.

The promoter next imparted the information that he had had printed only 130,000 tickets. Rickard says he is having 50,000 additional tickets printed.

According to his present plan, Rickard will put on the big bout at 2:30 o'clock on the night of September 23, with a preliminary match to follow it in order that a large proportion of the addicts may wander away into the night and take themselves off his hands forever.

As to possible trouble from Jim Corbett, former heavyweight champion, who the party had seen a few one of those rubber promises by Philadelphia officials to conduct a honest fight, Rickard declared he was intimated that he was sleeping in shoes with a revolver across his chest as I understand it, doesn't want to spoil the show," Rickard added. "His heart is in the right place and they tell me he would do nothing that would interfere with the success of the fight. I know a number of his personal associates with Philadelphia officials.

Table of Runs
DAY'S HIGH—LOW SCORES

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Wednesday Feb.—Detroit 18.
Wednesday, Low—New York 0.

	S	M	T	W	T	F	S	Ms
BOSTON	.....	*1	*10	11	11	6	15
New York	.....	*5	*1	6	*16	6	15
Cleveland	.....	x16	*5	*1	*7	*7	56
St. Louis	.....	*5	6	6	*6	4	1	16
Washington	.....	x3	*3	*7	*1	*1	14
Chicago	.....	*5	*1	*5	6	5	14
Detroit	.....	*5	*x15	1x5	*1	*7	37
Philadelphia	.....	6	4	*1	*5	5	*5	26
Totals		29	36	35	34	17	15	10	196

*No game.
xTwo games.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Wednesday, High—St. Louis 4.
Wednesday, Low—Cincinnati 1, Pittsburg 1

	S	M	T	W	T	F	S	Ms
BOSTON	.....	x5	*	x7	5	*	8	25
Brooklyn	.....	0	x5	1	3	3	3	15
St. Louis	.....	4	*	x7	4	6	6	26
Cincinnati	.....	11	7	4	1	1	5	29
Philadelphia	.....	*	1	x4	2	x7	x7	21
New York	.....	3	6	3	2	1	2	17
Chicago	.....	2	*	x15	3	2	1	23
Pittsburgh	.....	*	x13	10	1	x5	*	x18	47
Totals		29	36	34	18	19	10	41	216

*No game.
xTwo games.

TITLES DEPEND ON MELROSE SWIM MEET

By STED CHANDLER

Saturday afternoon is Fish Day in Melrose. All of the Lynn fans who can boast of the adjective "stellar" will be there to compete in the amateur swimming races to be held under the auspices of the Melrose Chapter, American Red Cross, and under the management of Ted Levins of the Boston Swimming Association.

Three New England titles will be decided, there will be several local events, and the fields entered in each surpass any which have heretofore performed.

The meet feature is slated to be the N. E. A. A. Junior mile race. The entry list boasts of sixteen names, and seven of these boast of New England titles. Dales Frantz, former Huntington School captain and 100 yard Junior champion; Tom Kenney, former 440 yard titleholder; Carl Tammi, who holds the 220 yard title; Carrington Noel, junior breast stroker, Carl Larsen back and breast stroke champ of New England the present 440 and 880 yard leader, and Adam Liscano in the defending mile champion, will all be in action.

The Junior 440 yard mile also will be determined, and in this event we find such names as Lloyd Temple, Noel Chi Lawson Lloyd Osborne, Brooks, Maury, and Bert Mulkanin.

The final championship race in the junior 440 for women, which will feature Margaret Harrop of the H. S. A. and Jean McSherry of Whitinsville, sister of the talented Marguerite McSherry. Other swimmers of prominence include Edith Moccia, Cecelia Connelly, and Margaret Long, all of the H. S. A.

Boxing Tonight

At Madison Square Garden, New York—Harry Person vs. Johnny Risko, Alfred Pernia vs. Knute Hansen, Ted Lawson vs. Sergio Kid, Jim Connell vs. Monte Munn and Rolle Lee vs. Joe Cavalier.

At Fort Hamilton—Lenny Bridgelello vs. Red Griffin, Max Maloney vs. Johnny Murphy, Angelo Rivera vs. Joe Miranda, Jack Powers vs. Jimmy Dehn and Eddie Harlow vs. Ray Mercino.

You can't go wrong by following the classified ads on the next to the last page.

FENWAY PARK
Today at 3:15 P. M.
RED SOX vs. CLEVELAND
Seats at Horace Partridge's, Liberty 0918

DUXBURY CREW TO DEFEND CUP

Capt. John Wilbor and his Duxbury Yacht Club crew will race in the finals of the International junior championships, defending the Sears Bowl, which it won last season. Either the Eastern Yacht Club the Wadsuck Country Club crew of Stonington, representatives of Rhode Island, will be the opponents.

These two crews met this once yesterday, as a split 10 hayard block dimbled one of the boats and stopped the third match of this semi final. The Eastern crew won rapidly. As a result, the series is even for the Stonington crew had won the first match Tuesday afternoon.

Yachting Today

Eastern Yacht Club Junior Sailing Championship for Sears Trophy off Marblehead.
San Francisco Yacht Club Pacific Coast Sailing Championship.

Amusements

Amusements

2 MORE DAYS
GEORGE BEBAN and company of 27 players in STAGE both SCREEN "The LOVES of RICARDO"
A movie comes to life before your eyes!
More! Lloyd Hamilton in "Up in Town" "Mel" Quarters and Many Novelties

The Screen Sensation of All Times
VARIETY
Starts Saturday with EMIL JANNINGS LYA de PUTTI
Acclaimed by all who see it as the most gripping and original drama ever thrown on a screen
Also—John Murray Anderson's "Melody a la Shawl"
Harry Langdon Comedy
The 4 Aristocrats in Syncopation
Del Castillo etc.
KEEP COOL METROPOLITAN THE ICE PLANT COOLS IT

EXCURSIONS
Sunday, August 29
Old Orchard $2.50 Lake Sunapee $2
Train leaves North Station, 8:30 A. M. (E. S. T.). Stops at No. Law. Train leaves North Station, 8:15 A. M. (E. S. T.). Stops at Tenn. Junction (Ft. Devens) 8:50 A. M. Manchester and Penacook (Ft. Devens) 9:00 A. M. Returning, leaves Old Orchard 6:15 P. M. Lake Sunapee 6:00 P. M.
Avoid Motoring Worries and Enjoy Your Week-End at These Famous Summer Resorts
BOSTON and MAINE RAILROAD

LABOR DAY EXCURSIONS Boston & Maine
Friday, September 3
QUEBEC $12
Special train leaves North Station 8:35 P. M. (Standard Time). Returning, leaves Quebec 3.00 P. M. Monday, Sept. 6.
Friday Sept. 3, or Sat., Sept. 4
MONTREAL $10
Tickets good on all day or night trains leaving North Station either day. Returning leave Montreal all day Monday, Sept. 6.
Round Trip—Coaches Only
TICKETS GOOD FROM
Boston, Ayer, Berverly, Chelsea, Clinton, Gloucester, Haverhill, Hudson, Ipswich, Lawrence Lowell, Lynn, Manchester, N. H., Marlboro, Maynard, Nashua, Newburyport, Rockport, Salem, Waltham, Worcester.
Passengers Must Carry Credentials to Revenue United States
Boston and Maine Railroad

HOWARD BURLESQUE FRENCHY with Tenny Lewis, dance, comedy and picture. Something doing 2 this 11.

THE TREMONT LAST 6 DAYS COOL $2 MAT. DAY
Engagement Extended 3 Days
Last Performance Wed. Night, Sept. 1
Dearest Enemy
Exquisite Musical Success with HELEN FORD & HARRISON BROCKBANK

PHOTOPLAY DIRECTORY
DNIGHT AT YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD THEATRE

ALLSTON
CAPITOL Comm. Ave. — Priscilla Frederick in "HER HONOR, THE GOVERNOR" Also Nelson "The Palm Beach Girl" Visit the Starlight Promenade
ALLSTON Commonwealth Ave. — Wanda Hawley in "MEN OF THE NIGHT" Dorothy Devore in "Senor Dare Devil"

BOSTON (SO. END)
COLUMBIA Washington at Columbus — Johnny Hines in "THE BROWN DERBY" Percy Marmont in "The Miracle of Life"

CAMBRIDGE
CENTRAL Cambridge — Pola Negri in "GOOD AND NAUGHTY" Big Vaudeville Show
HARVARD North Cambridge — Barbara Bedford, Conway Tearle in "The Sporting Lover" Rudolph Valentino in "THE SHEIK"

CHELSEA
OLYMPIA Chelsea — Pola Negri in "Good and Naughty" Dolores Costello in "Bride of the Storm"

DORCHESTER
DORCHESTER Theatre — Rin Tin Tin in "Clash of the Wolves" Constance Bennett in "WANDERING LINES"
FRANKLIN PARK — Lon Chaney in "OUTSIDE THE LAW" Special Cast in "PERILS OF THE GOAT GUARD"
STRAND Codman Square — Richard Barthelmess in "RANSON'S FOLLY" Tully Marshall in "ANYTHING ONCE"
CODMAN Codman Square — W. C. Fields in "IT'S THE OLD ARMY GAME" Wanda Hawley in "MEN OF THE NIGHT"

EAST ROCHESTER
FIELDS CORNER — Wanda Hawley in "Men of High" Art Acord in "The Scrapping Kid"
HAMILTON — Evelyn Brent in "FLAME OF THE ARGENTINE" Serial Comedy News

GROVE HALL
NEW SHAWMUT Shawmut at Tremont — Chas. Ray, Jane Crawford in "PARIS" Fred Thomson in "The Two Gun Man" Blackbird Pig Contest
NEW HOME Washington at Geneva — Milton Sills in "PUPPETS" Thurs. Only in "The Unchastened Woman" By Arte Aurea 4 Continents

JAMAICA PLAIN
JAMAICA Centre at Lamartine — Norma Talmadge in "HARD BOILED" 4 Acts New York Vaudeville

MALDEN
STRAND Main at Pleasant — Tom Mix in "HARD BOILED"

ROSLINDALE
OLYMPIA Roslindale — Lloyd Hughes, Dolores Del Rio in "PALS FIRST" Big Star Cast in "SUNUP"
RIALTO Roslindale — Percy Marmont in "The Miracle of Life" Harry Carey in "SATAN TOWN"

ROXBURY
DUDLEY Dudley Sq. — By Popular Demand Gloria Swanson in "MANHANDLED" Thurs. & Fri. Lorna Duve in "Back Home and Broke"
NEW RIVOLI Dudley Sq. — Gloria Swanson in "YELLOW FINGERS" Norma Talmadge in "Mysterious Eyes"

SOMERVILLE
STRAND Theatre — Olive Borden, Antonio Moreno in "YELLOW FINGERS" Norma Talmadge in "Mysterious Eyes"

Amusements

MODERN BEACON
The HONEYMOON EXPRESS — IRENE RICH WILLARD LOUIS
CHRISTINE OF THE BIG TOPS — PAULINE GARON CULLEN LANDIS

KEITH-ALBEE BOSTON
The Season's Greatest Western Thriller
TOM MIX in "HARD BOILED"
"JANE'S INHERITANCE" Comedy
Vaudeville A Gypsy Camp, Runaway Four, Gordon & Gordon, Ray & Harrison, Brown & Denoit, Kramer Brothers, Faibe, Foblet, Tropics

B. F. KEITH'S Telephone HANcock 5700
300 Orch. Seats Mat. 50c, Eve. $1.10
GRACELLA & THEODORE
MILLER & MACK, Harris & Holley, Hinson, Bingham Sisters, Weber Sisters, Nevue, Noel Lester, Amazon & Hite
JOE RIMES with EARL NELSON & ORCHESTRA
RADIO, MOVIETONE STAR

OLYMPIA Washington St. Big VAUDEVILLE Bill
CORINNE GRIFFITH in "Into Her Kingdom"
Next Week—Colleen Moore in "To Bed Is Love"

THE NEW RICHARDSON SCOLLAY SQ. OLYMPIA
DANIELS "The Big Body Cop" TALL STAR ACTS
DOUBLE FEATURE PLAYS IN THE HEART OF NEW ENGLAND

LOEW'S STATE
"THE BETTER THEATRE"
Mass. Ave. Doors at 12.30 Continuous from 1
ANOTHER GREAT SHOW! ON THE SCREEN:
MONTE BLUE
PATSY RUTH MILLER
in "SO THIS IS PARIS"
Sensational LUBITSCH Production
AND ON THE STAGE: IRVING AARONSON'S
CRUSADERS
(Under Personal Direction of Frank Cornell)

LOEW'S ORPHEUM
Continuous 9:15 A. M. to 10:30 P. M.
ON THE SCREEN: Norma Talmadge in "The Voice of a Dream"
ANOTHER and DIFFERENT MERRY WIDOW
Now... STARTLING SURPRISES
Watch for Announcements
ON THE STAGE: "Masterpieces" A Unique Impression of LADY and BEAUTY
ALLEN & NORMAN, in "The Gladiators" OTHER ACTS

BOWDOIN SQ. THEATRE CONTINUOUS
ADELYE RUSSELL (in person) in the dramatic sensation "THE WOMAN ACCUSED" Also "The Wolf Hunters" with Mildred Harris, The Colleen Moore with Joy Reed and Lil Dagover, Monday Bargains. Tel. Lang 0 Comedy "The Fighting Marine." Tonight Maiden Night.

NORUMBEGA
NOW IN FULL SWING

EVENING AMERICAN SPORTS

Mike Gazella has been filling in at third base for the Yankees, with Joe Dugan laid up with a split finger, received in the Cleveland series.

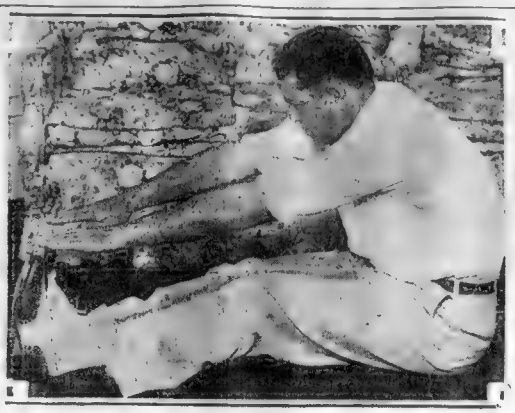
Frank Shaughnessy, former Syracuse and Reading manager, has signed as scout for the Detroit Tigers.

TUNNEY'S FIRST HARD PUNCH HIS LAST--DEMPSEY

DEMPSEY'S DAILY DOZEN IN HOTEL ROOM SHOWS THAT HE KEEPS FIT, EVEN THOUGH IDLE

GOOD FOR THE CHEST

Although the heavyweight champion is not actively engaged in his profession at the present time, he gives conclusive proof that he is keeping fit.



HELLO TOES!

Jack plucks a leaf from the book of Water Camp and goes through his daily dozen each morning in his hotel room before beginning the daily grind of training. Some people think these exercises are a grind, but not Jack. They keep him fit.

STRAIGHTEN YOUR KNEES, JACK!

Of course this stunt should be done with the knees absolutely stiff, but if Jack had done that maybe he couldn't have gotten in the picture. He doesn't look feeble, and here's a good reason why. (Photos by I.N.R.)

Dempsey Sees Quick End to Philadelphia Title Encounter

By JACK DEMPSEY
WORLD'S CHAMPION.
Written Exclusively for the Boston Evening American and Other Hearst Newspapers

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 26. Now that Gene Tunney has decided to take my advice about socking me with right-handers, almost to the exclusion of all else, I want to give him a little more advice—like this:

"When you do nail me with your right be sure—for your own best interests—that you win a championship with the first shot or two. Otherwise you may get mussed up."

A fight really isn't a fight with me—until I'm banged and hurt. I need a good sock on the chin to get me into real action. Having been hit—and really hurt—well that's when the fun begins, the customers see the money's worth and my fury I usually gets himself a beating that he rarely forgets.

Jack Dempsey

Whenever I'm hit and hurt, something happens to me. I just can't explain it unless it is to say that I forget it's just a boxing duel and I get to feeling that I'm going to be crushed unless I crush the man before me.

PIRPO KNOWS NOW.

I probably do throw caution and skill and whatever science I have to the four winds—but I haven't ever lost my marksmanship, nor my hitting power in such moments.

Ask Luis Firpo—he knows. He hit me with a right hander—nearly ripped my head off. I guess I became a wilder man than the wild bull himself after that. I didn't do any further boxing, nor sidestepping.

Carpentier and I were going along nice and refined like for a while—and then Georges connected. Bang! Bang! Bang! He rattled his right off my chin.

Right then and there Georges wrote "finis" on his ambitions to be heavyweight champion of the world. For those blows caused me to see red; they made me forget all else except that I had been hit and the man who hit me must be annihilated.

GUNNER LIVES TO REGRET

Gunboat Smith hit me with a righthander years ago when I was little more than a boxtinner. It was his fight up to that time. After that—well, the crowd insisted that from the time the old haymaker landed until the four-round quarrel was over, I knocked the gunner all around the ring and won the fight by a mile.

I slapped Jess Willard around rather lustily in the first round. Then I decided to rest up a bit. Near the end of the second Jess spoiled my plans. He cracked me with a righthander. Right then and there I stopped resting. I tore into him in the third and when that round was over Jess was so badly used up he had to quit.

Yes, practically all of them have gushed out right handers and nailed me flush on the chin. But what happened afterward—and where are they now?

Tunney says he's going to crack me with a right—and then some more rights. Chances are that he will. But when he does, the customers can begin packing up preparatory to going home.

(Copyright, 1926, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

DRIVERS START TUNING UP FOR AURORA RACES

Aurora, Ill., Aug. 26 (I.N.S.).—More than a score of drivers entered in the automobile races at the Central States Fair and Exposition at Aurora next week began tuning up their machines on the mile track today.

Fellow Passengers Honor Gertrude

ABOARD S. S. Berengaria, Aug. 26, by radio to New York, Aug. 26 (I.N.S.).—"I am proud to be an American girl, bringing home to America an honor," declared Gertrude Ederle during the ship's concert, when she made her first public appearance since she swam the English Channel in record time.

Miss Ederle, attired in a charming pink evening gown, was justly cheered by 700 first cabin passengers when she mounted the platform to tell briefly of her feat.

"I'd like to swim off of here," she said, as she looked down into the crowd of faces before her and was apparently somewhat embarrassed. "I am an American girl and so I used the American crawl stroke.

"I lost five pounds during that swim. I'd like to lose some more."

Miss Ederle answered the numerous questions of passengers and was paid a high tribute by ex-Governor Slaton of Georgia, who declared she had done what Bonaparte was unable to do—cross the Channel.

The Berengaria is due to arrive at quarantine at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

League Leaders

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Batting—Hargraves, Reds, .368.
Hits—Brown, Braves, 163.
Runs—Cuyler, Pirates, 86.
Doubles—Bottomley, Cardinals, 35.
Triples—Walker, Reds, 19.
Homers—Wilson, Cubs, 19.
Stolen Bases—Cuyler, Pirates, 28.
Pitching—Haines, Cardinals, won 10, lost 2.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Batting—Fothergill, Tigers, .388.
Hits—Burns, Indians, 175.
Runs—Ruth and Gehrig, Yankees, 115.
Doubles—Burns, Indians, 57.
Triples—Gehrig, Yankees, 20.
Homers—Ruth, Yankees, 39.
Stolen Bases — Hunnefield and Mostil, White Sox, 21.
Pitching—Dauss, Tigers, won 10, lost 2.

HEAVIES CLASH IN NEW YORK RING BOUTS

By MURRAY LEWIN,
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.

New York, Aug. 26.—For quick unadulterated action the heavyweight scraps in the Garden tonight should take the cake. Although Matchmaker Jess McMahon has arranged for 40 rounds of brawling, consisting of three 10-rounders and a six and the usual four-round opener, the mob will undoubtedly be treated to a few good tumbling feats.

The feature event, will show Harry Persson the highly recommended Swedish heavyweight champion against Johnny Risko, that rough tough Cleveland person. Bob Lawson, colored mitt artist, who a few weeks ago, flattened Jack Johnson will take on Sandy Seifert of Pittsburgh in the semi-final.

Knute Hansen, another Swede who has been making rapid progress along the Pacific Coast the last two years, will take on Alfred Pesio the South American fifth holder, in the first six-air number.

The six special event, will show Monte Munn, the promising Nebraska youngster, paired with Jim Sigmund, the navy boss. Paul Cavanor of Bayonne will tackle Rollo Segero, a Cuban, in the opening frai

Boxing Notes

Salem will hold the full house with a pair of aces slated to box in the feature bout of 10 rounds in the North Street Rink, under the auspices of the Salem A. A. tomorrow night. The two best on the card will be Lou Rogers and Tommy Robert of Malden, who is a willing sitter from the first going to the final.

Then there will be the usual semi-fina and preliminary bouts which should give the North Shore residents a real kick for their dough

Harry Goldstein, New England flyweight champion, swings into action tonight fa ing Duke Menard of Biddeford at Bangor, Me.

Brockton fans may look forward to seve mighty fine shows pure shows during the indoor box ng season. With the possible ex of one or two other clubs having action, the City Arena of the Fraternal Order of Eagles are preparing to swing into the first date of the season.

Manchester, N. H., is having a boxing show tomorrow night with Johnny Harkins mixing with Sylvio Mirquardt. This is to be held for the benefit of Jimmy Briscoe Lynn Aerie No. 278, Fraternal Order of Eagles, announces a 3-way entry list for their amateur boxing show on Monday night at General Knight Field, Lynn. Entries for the 112, 130, 147, 160 and heavyweight classes close with Louis Feeney, No. 22 Church street, Lynn.

THREE GAMES ON TWILIGHT LEAGUE CARD

Somerville at Lynn.
Dorchester at Malden.
Fore River at South Boston.

Only one game is scheduled in Boston for the Greater Boston Twilight League, while Lynn has another and the third will be played in Malden.

The Boston diamond tussle will find Fore River of Quincy playing over on the Christopher J. Lee grounds, South Boston, against the nine representing Southie.

Fore River, during the days of the war and even before the hectic struggle, was popular in athletic promotion. This being their first year in the Boston Twilight circuit they have been going at a steady clip, showing lots of mettle when it comes to diamond fighting of the right kind

In the present fight for first place in the second half of the league, the lads from the Granite City are just about 100 points better than South Boston. This means little as the sun goes down a wee bit early these nights and the team getting the jump collects the laurel wreath.

Dorchester is ready to give Malden a good battle over the rough bed of the Twilight trail on the Pearl Street Stadium, Malden. Dominick Mulrenan is the pitching selection of Joe Kendrick's of Dorchester to face Malden, Coughlin will likely use Howard Queen

Somerville should be an easy win for the Lynn nine on the General Electric Field

Tigers Recall Two Players

Pittsburgh, Aug. 26 (A.P.)—Louis Koupal, big right-hander sent under option last year to the Buffalo Club of the International League, has been returned to the Pittsburgh Pirates. Koupal, who has been one of Buffalo's leading hurlers this year, was returned at the request of the Pittsburgh Club. He was expected to report today.

The Pirates also announced that Walter Mueller, former Pirate outfielder, has been reinstated by K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball and had rejoined the club

SCOTTISH SOCCER STARS SIGNED BY SPRINGFIELD

Davie Gibson of the Springfield soccer team, has signed Dennis Lawson, Scottish international outside right

Dennis made a great name in soccer circles when in the ranks of St. Mirren, Scottish first division outfit where, along with Gillies, he formed one of the strongest right wings in Britain

Lawson should be the sensation of the American pro soccer league this season, for he is a whirlwind of a winger, possessed of all the necessary qualifications. He is ideally built, standing fully 5 feet 10 inches besides being very rugged, weighing over 170 pounds

VERMONT GOLF LINKS MECCA FOR GOLFERS

The real golfer, like the real fisherman, goes where the course is best with variety, with interest and only a sporting chance of a normally low count. So he goes to Vermont, because Vermont landscape is the most Scottish landscape in America. And like Scotland, the mother of golf, the Green Mountain state is country built for golf. The rolling, plunging, sea-like character of the natural setting is apparent also in the roll and plunge of the courses themselves. The wealth everywhere of hills, terraces, ravines, lakes and streams is composed into courses with tees, bunkers and such turf on greens and fairways as can be grown only in this fertile state.

ALEKHINE TO CHALLENGE CAPABLANCA FOR TITLE

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Aug. 26 (A.P.)—Alexander Alekhine, Russian chess master, plans to challenge Jose Raul Capablanca, Cuban holder of the world's chess championship, to a championship match to be held in Buenos Aires early next year.

Alekhine, who is here for matches of the Argentina Chess Club, announced his plan to President Alvear, who received him yesterday. The president promised his support to the enterprise, and Alekhine intends to cable his challenge to Capablanca immediately.

Fights Last Night

Providence—Fidel La Barba, flyweight champion, defeated Happy Allerton, Indianapolis, 10. Non-title, Emil Paluso, Salt Lake City, defeated Kevie Peters, Chicago, 10.

Waterloo, Ia.—Sailor Lorgen, Chicago, outpointed Beau Ridley, Chicago, 10.

All your wants are waiting for you in alphabetical order in the Classified Ads on the next-to-the-last pages.

Have a smoke on us!

FREE CIGARS

Three days only—August 26-27-28

on all sizes of

RICORO
LA RESTINA
LA TUNITA
EL TORO
RICORO { INFANTAS / OPERAS / LITTLE RICOROS

One cigar free with every five purchased

This is purely a sampling proposition. These United Cigars are running so fine—the quality is so superior—that we want every smoker in town to try them now. Therefore we are coming as close to giving them away as possible.

1 cigar free with every 5 purchased 5 cigars free with every 25 purchased
2 cigars free with every 10 purchased 10 cigars free with every 50 purchased, etc.

Price Range 5c to 15c

UNITED CIGAR STORES

Largest in the world because we serve the people best
3000 stores selling our cigars and pipes

Mail Order Department, Flatiron Building, New York

TWO comic pages every day. Full of the funniest of "funnies." A great treat for the kiddies by the cleverest artists.

Magazine Page

The Origin of Enameled Tiles

THE first enameled tiles were perfected by Luca della Robbia, the eminent Italian sculptor, who worked at Florence and Rimini in the early fifteenth century. He adorned the Italian churches with tiles as well as with altar pieces.

BUDGET DEVELOPS PRIDE IN HOME

How to Succeed in Keeping Outgo in Bounds

Budget Talk No. 137
By MARTHA LEE

THE nicest thing about Budget is that he develops pride in the home. He can't help it. A mother starts budgeting, and discovers that by following up every dime that she can stretch it a little further and begins to see hope for a new dining room rug.

She works for that rug, and every member of the family works for that rug. The day comes when it is finally rolled out and laid upon the floor.

Are they proud of it, and do they treasure it carefully and wish their friends and neighbors to see it? They certainly do. The first thing they know, they are just as proud of their home as they can be, and start saving for a coat of fresh paint, or a sleeping porch.

If you can give the children a real pride in their possessions, a genuine thrill of pleasure when they bring a friend home for supper, you have given them the best inspiration to work and save there is.

It's a good idea to start with fresh curtains, if the old ones are hanging limp and dingy. Fresh curtains are so cheery and worth while.

You may have to save by pennies. Make the home meals less expensive stew once a week, and roast beef's Fall hat. But it can be done, a tuck here and there, and fresh curtains will hang at the windows by Thanksgiving time to welcome the folks home.

Budgeting isn't a bit or miss method of saving. You can't Budget successfully any more than you can diet successfully by scrimping today and indulging tomorrow.

It means a steady, purposeful study of where the money goes and how to make it go a little farther, so that it is better, stay with you long enough to accumulate and buy something really worth while.

Our Budget charts are a tremendous help. If you will make out the little form and send it in, we will send you one. It's a good time to start right now, for three months Budgeting will store up a goodly sum for the Christmas party.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Mrs. I. N. H., with $55 a week, asks for a Budget for three in the family.

I am sure you can get along nicely on $11 weekly for shelter including business lunches, $14 for food, also conveyance to and from business, $8.25 for clothing, $5 for operating, $5.50 for savings and $3.25 for personal.

Miss H. K. D., making $18 a week, asks how much she can afford to pay for board. Eight dollars and ten cents should cover room, board, business carfares and luncheon. This will leave you $1.80 for saving, $1.20 for operating, which means on an individual Budget, toilet articles, all service such as shoe shines, manicures, [illegible] laundry, [illegible] $1.20 for [illegible] $1.20 for personal, out of which must come your vacation [illegible] expenses for health, gifts, [illegible] magazines and daily movies, etc.

Mrs. G. E. C., a young mother with five children, writes that her husband makes $42 a week, but she cannot tell where it goes. Is not wasteful. Goes on no good times except automobile trips.

Pays $5 weekly rent, $15 for food, $1.60 for gas and light, $1.50 insurance, $1.50 for smokes, $5 instalments, $3.50 for expenses of running car. At the end of the week she has about $5 left. Should she put $18 in the bank at the first of the week and live on the remainder? Commencing next week husband will be making $52 a week.

Budget will cheerfully give you spending money.

DO you have to coax reluctant dollars from Dad?

Practical Hints on Spending by a Plan add wants to save $15 a week.

You certainly place the right value on the importance of saving, but I am afraid you are going to find it difficult to save $15 a week with a salary of $42 with five children to feed and clothe, especially when Uncle Sam tells us $18 a month is the minimum expense for running a family.

A $42 Budget should allow $6.30 for savings, including insurance, $10.50 for rent and business carfares, $14.84 for food, $6.90 for operating, $5.60 for clothing and $7.46 for personal, out of which must come the instalments, husband's smokes and expenses of the automobile. You are going to be short under this personal fund but you will have a surplus under shelter which you can use here.

Dear Mrs. F. C.: While your list of expenses is very well arranged, I am sorry to tell you that you forgot to give me your total income. If you will send it, I will be glad to make an individual budget for you.

Mrs. J. L. H., with a weekly income of $30, wants a Budget. Husband's lunches and spending money $4, co-operative bank $10, rent $25 unheated, lodge dues 75c a month, insurance $2.25 on one monthly policy and $1.85 on another weekly one, $2 electricity a month, oil 60c a week, milk $2, furniture $2 weekly goes $7.45, church 90c a week, charity $9.80 annually, dog licenses $2. Four in family—two adults, boy of 21 and girl of 24. Owes $25.50 on an old coal bill, $14.60 on a back grocery bill.

The only fair way is to Budget your total family income. This will allow weekly $3.90 for savings and insurance, $7.80 for shelter, $5.53 for operating (meaning heat, gas, light, oil), $4 for clothing and $5.52 for personal which must cover all charity, husband's spending money and lodge dues. Insurance comes out of the savings fund, furniture payments out of personal.

H. R. H. has decided to marry on an income of $22 weekly. Rent $20 unheated. And she should be allowed for various bills, rent, etc.

A $22 Budget is going to give you plenty of opportunity to develop a firm backbone if you are going to live within your income. It will allow you for shelter only $4.40 weekly, which should also include business carfare. It will give you $7.66 weekly for food and business luncheons. $2.20 for clothing, $2.20 for operating, $2.20 for savings and $2.20 for personal. Good luck and best wishes for a speedy increase in your salary.

A SMART SPORT BLOUSE

Looking a Wallflower is the very last thing one would suppose a young girl would wish to do, and yet printed velveteen jaquette blouses in wallflower colorings and modernistic patterns are considered very smart for sports wear among the Fashion tops.

A DAINTY FROCK FOR A GROWING GIRL

5060. Embroidered voile, printed crepe or chiffon, as well as batiste or taffeta may be employed for this design.

The Pattern is cut in 4 Sizes: 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. A 10 year size will require 3 yards of 40 inch material.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in silver or stamps.

8960. Girls' Dress.

Cut in 4 Sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. If made of one material a 10 year size requires 4 yards 32 inches wide. Price 12c.

FASHION BOOK NOTICE

Send 12 cents in silver or stamps for our UP-TO-DATE FALL AND WINTER 1926-27 BOOK OF FASHIONS, showing color plates and containing 600 designs of ladies', misses', and children's patterns, a CONCISE and COMPREHENSIVE ARTICLE ON DRESSMAKING ALSO SOME POINTS FOR THE NEEDLE illustrating 20 of the various simple stitches, all valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

Boston Evening American Pattern Coupon

IMPORTANT— Many orders come without name and size. Select and fill out your name, address, size and number of pattern on coupon.

Pattern No.

Size

Name

Street

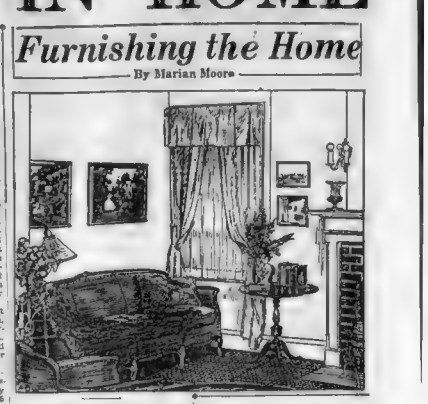
City

State

Print CAREFULLY and mail (enclosing 12 cents—stamps or coin) to Boston Evening American Pattern Dept., Box 159 Times Plaza Station, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Furnishing the Home

By Marian Moore



THE woman who receives a caller in this inviting corner of her home couldn't help but give the impression of charm and cordiality. There is rare personality in the very simplicity of selection and arrangement shown here.

After all, just good sense in selecting comfortable furniture of simple line, with the addition of interesting pictures well framed, is what makes this spot so alluring.

To adorn the wall-space above the couch there are two color prints of French paintings; and at either side of the mantelpiece are hung two small prints (one pair of these can be seen in the illustration).

The potted vine at the left and the vase of flowers on the small table add their full share toward beautifying this cheerful corner, with their generosity of pattern, and feathery lines.

For you may be sure that the colors in the bouquet are in harmony or pleasant contrast with certain tones in the pictures, in the drapery and in the upholstery.

To "bring out" certain spots of color in a room is one of the most artistic and restful atmospheres.

This is done by selecting small accessories, such as a vase, a pillow a lampshade or even a row of neutral books such as these on the table in colors which will echo the colors found in the furniture, draperies and pictures.

Another article on the beauty of pictures in the home will appear tomorrow.

(Write to Marian Moore, care of this newspaper, for advice or information about rest spots, furnishing problems, making unusual address savings for needy.)

Copyright 1926, The Boston Evening American

Martha Lee's New and Reliable Pointers and Recipes

LAST week I had a beautiful ride through the charming little towns of the Cape. The villages looked so substantial, so contented, and they smelled so good. The fragrance of drying hay, ripe fruit, and, fairest of all odors, that pungent spicy suggestion of fresh pickles.

Pickles, little pickles, big pickles, chow-chow, catsup, chili sauce or carves and all those relishes that are hand-in-hand with baked beans and meat, fried fish, in fact every dish that needs a halo of extra goodness to make it right.

But preserving, like charity, begins at home. It helps a lot to have the children safely off to school, for one of the first essentials is a clear kitchen and a few hours of uninterrupted quiet.

The second essential is fresh vegetables. Furthermore you want to select the cooking utensils wisely. Aluminum, porcelain lined, the best granite ware, earthenware, or glassware are good choices. Use the bread, open pan rather than a deep, narrow one, so that the vegetables will not be cooked in layers. A wooden spoon is the safest one to use for stirring.

Oil Cucumber Pickle.—Slice very thin 300 very small cucumbers, sprinkle with salt and let stand overnight. In the morning drain, mix together with one cupful of olive or salad oil, one ounce of celery seed, two ounces of black mustard seed, and two ounces white mustard. Pour this over the sliced cucumbers and add enough vinegar to cover. Pack in hot, sterilized jars. It requires no cooking.

Pickled Beans.—Snip off the ends of tender beans but do not cut them up, sprinkle with salt, cover with water and let stand over night. Then drain and rinse in cold water. Drain again. Pack in fruit jars add, mean while black and white mustard seed and bits of horseradish. Fill jars to overflowing, with scalding hot vinegar. Seal tight.

Pickled String Beans with Peppers.—Use tender beans, without strings if possible. Snip off the ends but do not cut them up. Make a brine in the proportion of one-fourth cup of salt to one quart of water and cover the beans with it. Let them stand over night. Drain, rinse in cold water and dry on a clean cloth. Pack the beans in carefully sterilized jars. A few chili peppers added to each jar will improve the flavor and appearance. For each quart jar take one quart of vinegar, one-half cup of brown sugar, one teaspoon white mustard seed, and one half teaspoon of celery seed. Heat to a boiling point and fill each jar to overflowing. Seal tight.

Pickled Beets.—Cut and scrape the desired number of carrots and cook until tender in boiling salted water. Drain and pack into cold, hot, sterilized jars. Meanwhile, prepare a vinegar solution in the proportion of one cupful of salt, one cupful of sugar, and one cupful of mustard to one gallon of vinegar, the amount made depending upon the number of jars to be filled. Bring this solution in the boiling point and pour at once over the carrots. Seal. These pickled carrots will be especially appreciated when added to a salad in mid-Winter, when fresh vegetables are high and food tastes flat.

Pickled Cauliflower.—Cut up two cauliflower, one pint of small onions, and three red peppers. Dissolve one-half pint of salt in enough cold water to cover them and let stand over night. Drain in the morning. Heat two quarts of vinegar with four tablespoonful of [illegible] and [illegible] hours. Then add the [illegible] and boil [illegible] minutes. [illegible] Pickled [illegible] the desired number of onions and cover with hot water and salt, letting a strong brine. Let them stand twenty four hours, drain and cover with another hot brine. Next day drain again and make a fresh brine, setting to the boiling point, and adding the onions. Boil [illegible] minutes. Drain and put the onions in jars with bits of mace, bay leaf, a few whole peppers, a few cloves and slices of red pepper. Fill the jars with hot vinegar, allowing one cupful of sugar to four quarts of vinegar. Seal at once.

Faithfully yours,

MARTHA LEE

Correct Manners

By Mrs. Cornelius Beeckman

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

What is the correct way to acknowledge a wedding anouncement? Are gifts always sent?

I have just received two from neighbors, but that's the extent of our relation.

A READER.

SINCE apparently you do not know these neighbors very well, a short note of best wishes and felicitations would be proper as your acknowledgment of these wedding announcements. It was kind and friendly for these neighbors to in-

[illegible] lists, and this courtesy should be acknowledged. It is not necessary to send a gift to these people whom you know so slightly, and especially if it is not necessary since you appear by have no "urge" to send a gift.

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

Would you please advise me if it is appropriate to send flowers to an engagement party?

C. M. B.

IT is most appropriate to send flowers to an engagement party. Indeed, they seem especially adaptable to such a party and, too, they are often used as a decorative back ground for the receiving party

Copyright 1926, Premier Syndicate, Inc.

Points on Shampooing the Hair

By Charles A. L. Reed, M. D.
Former President of the American Medical Association.

TO care for the hair means to render it attractive, to keep it clean and to preserve it by maintaining the vitality back of it.

First and foremost, see to it that your brush and comb are kept scrupulously clean. Your comb and brush are probably the chief means of the conveyance of local diseases of the scalp. For this reason the first requisite of them is that they shall be clean.

When purchasing your comb see that you select a comb with teeth that are smooth and wide apart and that have blunt tips.

Your hairbrush also should have its bristles set wide apart. The stiffness of a brush and sharpness of its bristles should depend upon the sensitiveness of your scalp. The brush should be stiff enough and dull enough to allow you to brush the hair and scalp vigorously without injury.

Your comb and brush should be kept clean by frequent washing with water and soap or ammonia and subsequent thorough drying, preferably in the sun.

In shampooing your hair, care should be taken to clean the scalp thoroughly as well as the hair. It is very agreeable if the soap is an olive oil, or cottonseed oil green soap.

I find that many people shampoo their hair either with the white of egg alone or add the white of an egg to the shampoo which gives the hair some temporary gloss and prevents dryness. This, however, can better be attained by the use of a minute quantity of olive oil or, in the case of men, with a little white vaseline.

Use plenty of warm water in rinsing your hair. After your final warm rinsing, dip the hair several times in clear, cool water. This closes the pores and reduces the danger of your catching cold.

Should you find your hair dry and difficult to control for a day or two after washing, you can remedy this by one or two applications of lanolin and the use of a little oil or vaseline as suggested above.

A certain amount of oil in the hair is necessary to keep it in the best condition.

Copyright, 1926, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Advice to Lovelorn

By Beatrice Fairfax

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

About five months ago I met a certain young man with whom I am in love. We agree on mostly everything, and he is polite to me. In the company of others he acts as though he cares for me.

I met his mother and his sisters and they are nice to me. I like them very much, and they seem to like me.

He attends college and works every other night. He is a good worker, full of ambition, and would like to make a lot of money. But when I am alone with him he acts just like a caveman. It seems as though he cannot possess himself. I really don't know what to do.

I often ask him to take another couple when we go out, but only once in a while will he take his sister along with a friend.

He often speaks of getting married, but we haven't enough money. And sometimes I think he is too young. He is twenty-two years of age and I am twenty-one.

I am not quite ready to settle down, but if I should [illegible] on I would be very lonesome [illegible] him very much. Please advise me what to do?

ANSWER.

A year or two, when your friend has finished [illegible] college work, there will be time enough for you and him to come [illegible] marriage won't there? By that time you may feel more like "settling down."

Meantime keep [illegible] good friend. But do not permit [illegible] caveman tactics." If by this term you mean rudeness or anything that is disappointing or repulsive to your finer self-respect.

Advertisement

Summer-Spoiled Skin Removed by Absorption

As undue summer exposure usually leaves an undesirable surface of tan redness or roughness, often freckles, too the sensible thing to do is to remove such surface. There's nothing better for this than ordinary mercolized wax which actually absorbs an unwholesome complexion. The thin layer of surface skin is itself absorbed, gently, gradually, so there's no inconvenience, no detention indoors. Spread the wax lightly over the entire face at bedtime and take it off in the morning with warm water. If you will get one ounce of mercolized wax at the drug store, use it for a week or so you may expect marked improvement daily. When the underlying skin is wholly in view your complexion will be a marvel of spotless purity and beautiful whiteness.

Sykes Comfort POWDER
Heals and Soothes the Skin
Chafing, Rashes, Itching, Scalding, Sunburn, Bed Sores, all Skin Soreness of Infants, Children & Adults

"Fed up" on ordinary Cereals?

THE finest thing you can do for yourself and yours at breakfast is to provide a change in menu. Appetites grow stale and people weary of eating the same old "seven and six" breakfasts.

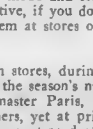
Try Quaker Puffed Wheat. It's different in every way from any other cereal known—whole wheat steam exploded to 8 times natural size, then oven crisped to rare deliciousness. Tastes like toasted nutmeats.

Get Approximately 20% is bran but you would never guess it. Children love it like a confection. For the Great Adventure of a change, get a package at any grocery store—just try it.

Quaker Puffed Wheat
The "something different" you crave

QUICK! Mosquito Killer
El Vampiro
Safe Pleasant Odor
Ready to Puff

The August Fur Sales Reveal the Smartest Modes of the New Season



FURS, like jewels, to be in good taste must be authentic in mode and setting. That's why it is imperative, if you do not know furs, to purchase them at stores of known integrity.

Most Boston stores, during the August Fur Sales, offer the season's newest creations inspired by master Paris, London and New York designers, yet at prices made possible only by the urgent need of famous manufacturers for out of season business.

Now, of all the year, while choice and terms are most liberal, is the time to make the crowning glory of your Winter wardrobe one of the stunning new coats described in the fur advertisements of today's Boston American and Boston Advertiser.

The Moon's Center of Gravity

THE center of gravity of both the earth and the moon, or the point about which they both actually revolve in their course around the sun, lies within the earth. It is 1,050 miles below the surface. The tides are caused mainly by the moon.

Fiction Page

This Day in History

THE historic city of Louvain, Belgium, the center of Catholic erudition, was sacked and in large part burnt by the Germans on August 26, 1914. About one-third of the city was destroyed, including the famous University Library and its treasures

The Taxi Dancer

by ROBERT TERRY SHANNON

A Thrilling Story of Night Life and Night Clubs; a Mad Whirl of Adventure

CHAPTER XXXIV

THE blood receded from Joslyn's face and she sat like an exquisite figure of marble in the chair. She was filled with horror at the new danger that threatened Kelvin.

Her mind was totally occupied with the sinister threat that James Kelvin's escape might be permanent. "He would just be gone," Brierhalter had said. It meant he would be done away with, that Joslyn would forever be in shuddering doubt as to the gruesome details.

She looked at Brierhalter with horror-stricken eyes. "You must be a fiend," she said, amazed at him. "A fiend in human form."

"My dear girl," he smiled at her patiently, "You have such melodramatic ideas. No—I'm just human, probably too much so. The only difference between me and most men is that I have the resources to carry out projects which the other can only dream about and hope for. I'm not at all cruel, rather the reverse.

"The thing that seems strange to you is that I'm perfectly frank in admitting the present day utility of methods used by our honorable barbaric ancestors. Their ideas, of course, have to be refined considerable before they are adaptable to modern conditions—but Machiavelli was not the last man who knew how to use the human mind."

The sense of being held in a velvet grip came stifling to Joslyn. Brierhalter's hold on her was unbreakable because he, figuratively, had Kelvin by the throat. With only herself to consider, Joslyn with her flaming spirit, might rave defied him with hot-headed disregard of any possible consequences.

But Kelvin's terrible danger was another matter. His fate, his very life, was in her hands and the suspense tortured her instincts of loyalty and affection until all considerations of self were blotted out in the anguish of a great, sacrificial emotion.

"This can't go on much longer—this awful game," she said, with a note of resignation. "I'm alone—I don't know how to beat you. But I know that I can't let anything awful happen to Jim."

"I was right," Brierhalter said with wry satisfaction. "You care enough for him. Well, I can't control your heart—the most I can hope is to influence some of your actions.

"What do young men think of girls who go to public dance halls?" asked "Perplexed," in a letter in this column.

"Dear Miss Fairfax," writes correspondent in reply to the letter of "Perplexed."

"In my opinion, any girl who goes around dance halls toils cheapens herself. I hope to meet some nice girl like "Perplexed" some day—one who thinks more of being what she should be than of good times. Then I'll be happy."

Many a girl who is morally straight and remains so attends the public dance halls. But she meets all sorts and conditions of men there. At best, the cabin system in vogue at dance halls gives every stranger present in the hall, regardless of who he is, the right to dance with her.

Of course there are well-bred gentlemen who frequent dance halls to which none of the above applies.

Let us hear from other readers. Correspondent who signs herself "From a Miss" writes: "Perplexed is one woman out of [illegible] who considered representing all that is good and [illegible] girls.

"To me, all women are sacred until they prove themselves otherwise."

Tell Perplexed," writes F. R., "what regardless of what her girl friends say, she is absolutely right in the stand she has taken. Any other man will tell her the same thing, unless he is one of the 'dance hall cake eaters' she mentions in her letter."

So it all depends, doesn't it, dear girls, on the kind of friends you wish to make?

Are you willing to tag yourself cheap, shop-worn, handed down? Or do you prefer to keep yourself very sweet and precious, so that Mr. Right Man will find in you the Girl of his Heart, his life-long inspiration as sweetheart, helpmate and wife?

Copyright, 1926, International Feature Service, Inc.

Is the Dance Hall an Aid to Romance? -:- By Beatrice Fairfax

Girls Go to Dances to "Pick Up" Sheiks While the Sensible Girl Stays Home Some Day She'll Meet the Right Man And Be Happy as His Bride

"What Is It You Demand for Kelvin's Safety?"

Joslyn hesitated. "What is it you demand—for Jim Kelvin's safety."

With all his ruthlessness, Henry Brierhalter had, too, a distaste of the obvious. "Why not," he suggested, "let the succession come—from you? I am not a brute to outrages your feelings beyond all decency."

This, Joslyn knew, was hypocrisy, with a purpose. Aloud she fled from her heart. At last, definitely, she was at the end of her rope. The point of resistance power was passed—it was surrender. And, ironically, the man she hated above all others, he possessed, his arms, his greeting ability, commanded the last shred of respect. Henry Brierhalter was, beyond question, strange—he might be hated, but not, with a decency, despised.

"Mr. I have another drink of the wine?" Joslyn asked, as she smiled bravely at what she had to face.

Brierhalter, with the gallant manner, supplied her immediately, and the warm glow of the powerful cordial brought warmth again to her body.

"What assurance," she demanded, "have I that you would keep your word about Jim Kelvin? Afterward —you might, through jealousy, repudiate anything that you might make."

"What possible assurance could I give you?" he countered. "By the very nature of the case you would have to be content with my word, my good faith "

"You want me to trust you after all this?"

"What else could be done? I have me and will not lie to you. As for Kelvin, I am not jealous of him. Why should I be? The poor devil! No, a lot of people who prate about honor haven't got much of it in their business, but I think when Henry Brierhalter pledges you his word of honor you can rely upon it. I can see from your silence and also frankly honest. I will keep my word generously, and in all respects Furthermore, when you believe them —you know, with all your woman's intuition, that I am not lying."

Presenting all of his amazing potent cures for criminality, Joslyn nodded assent. Then in this, at least Brierhalter was speaking the truth. He would keep his word regarding Kelvin.

A conviction swept over Joslyn that she was bidding farewell to the whole happiness girlish aspiration . . . to the sanctity, the security of virtue. In her heart she knew that, until now she had been stainless; no outward circumstances could change that fundamental fact. The city had better her to the point of surrender was delivering her into because of any innate weakness. In that respect old Minnie Gumbo had been wrong.

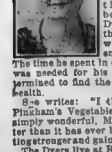
This Catastrophe Was Not Due to Character Weakness

This catastrophe was not the result of any inherited weakness of character and conduct handed down in the blood stream from questionable ancestors. It was she told herself, the reverse. She, Joslyn Poe, was surrendering because of something infinitely fine—because of loyalty—devotion. It was an act of supreme sacrifice; the uttermost a woman had to give. It was, she realized, the balancing of a woman's virtue against a man's life.

Advertisement

SHOULD HUSBANDS DO HOUSE WORK?

How Mrs. Dyer Solved the Problem.



Mrs. Mildred Dyer was lucky. She had a good-natured husband who helped her with much of her housework. Because she was in ill health for five years, it was often necessary for him to do this. But it bothered Mrs. Dyer. She felt that he had to work hard enough anyway, The time he spent in doing her work was needed for his own. She determined to find the road to better health.

She writes: "I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is simply wonderful. My health is better that it has ever been. I am getting stronger and gaining in weight."

The Dyers live at Redlands, Calif., Route A, Box 188.

How often does your husband have to do your housework? No matter how willing he is, no women feels comfortable about it. Perhaps you, too, will find better health through the faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The Beauty of Childhood A Clear Healthy Skin

Make and keep your child's skin healthy by using Cuticura Soap every day assisted by Cuticura Ointment when required. Nothing purer or more effective.

Free Sample each Free. Address: "Cuticura, Laboratories, Dept. 6L, Malden, Mass."

Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c.

"The Woman Game"

Continued from Page 15

epitaph: 'Here lies the body of one who never bored anybody' But I dare say it wouldn't be true I believe in freedom. In everything I abhor rules and conventions. What right has any human being to tell me what I can and cannot do? Who are they, that they should——"

Her voice ceased so abruptly that Jock glanced up in surprise—she turned his head to follow her wide stare. He saw a man approaching a large man, perfectly groomed, all handsome in a well kept careful sort of way.

He inclined his head gravely to Yvonne and raked Jock with cold but insolent eyes. He chose his table next to them. As darkness he was seated, Yvonne rose without a word and beckoned Jock to go to him.

When she returned to her own chair she was distrait. "Would you rather not go?" asked Jock, after two or three unsuccessful attempts to reopen conversation.

"You talk. I'd like to listen "

To his surprise she did listen, attentively, with a quick shaking-off of her recent preoccupation. His could tell by her eyes that she was interested in what he said, and by the questions he asked that she wanted him to go on. Under this stimulus he found himself talking as he had never talked to any girl in his life; talking as he thought. And when they had finished their meal, and Yvonne said he would have believed impossible an hour before, he rewrote over the back of a menu-card the verse he had composed the previous night and slid it across to her

She folded it and put it away in her mesh bag. "I'd rather read it when I'm alone," she said, and Jock liked that.

As they left the restaurant, he was conscious of a swift little hush and a hundred pairs of following eyes. He noticed such marked display of interest to Yvonne's beauty, and it elated him. He felt an immense superiority over all the men in the room with whom she had been lunching "You certainly knock 'em for a loop!" he said in her ear with approval

Mirth . . . and Yvonne. "They look but who knows what they're saying."

She dismissed this as being mere [illegible] meaning nothing

He left his machine outside the apartment house and accompanied her up in the elevator to her own door. "You won't come in, Jock Hamill?" she said with her hand on the knob.

"I want to, but I can't possibly—have to meet some fellows at four and it's almost that now."

"You'll come again soon, though." It wasn't a question, it was a statement of recognized fact

"Of course."

Jock thought, waiting for the elevator to come for him again, how appropriate to herself were even the smallest things Yvonne did. Not commonplace. Not orthodox. Effective, different, like her appearance and her speech. "If she'd said good-bye, and thanked me for the luncheon, she was any other girl would have," he told himself. "I'd have had a let-down feeling sort of

"I've Just Read the Poem and I'm Sorry for You"

After an interval he added more matter-of-factly, "Speaking of letdown feelings, where's the damn elevator?

One finger punched the bell, and his handsome nose was thrust through the iron grating in an effort to determine what was wrong below, when Yvonne's door opened again. "Come here, Jock Hamill," she called softly.

Jock went, in two strides.

"I've just read the poem," said Yvonne. And rising on her tiptoes, put her lips against his

When she withdrew them, slowly, she said, "Oh, I am sorry for you—" And she was gone again.

Sublime to ridiculous was exactly the distance from Yvonne's apartment to the University Club. There Jock found an uproarious trio, who greeted him with hurrahs and immediate earnest requests to "drink up."

"As soon as you acquire as elegant a bun as we've got," said Dopey Lane, "the expedition starts."

"The expedition started at quarter of five. It may best be described as seven sailboats, two instrumentcases, three traveling-bags, three bags of golf clubs, a steamer trunk and four young gentlemen in sardine formation, all moving along Union and about an equipage of an ilk not to be easily determined, because there was little to be seen of itself except the wheels.

For a time the collective mentalities of the four young gentlemen were bent upon the intricate business of getting out of New York. But once they were out, and on the open road, they relaxed and became themselves. They hooted. They sang. Bill Olmstead rode for some time astride the hood, playing his saxophone, so that they might sing the better

The return to college after a three months' vacation is always an event.

Tarnished Wings'

By BEATRICE BURTON

CHAPTER LXII

HE went on [illegible] business—[illegible]

"Yes," Merry nodded briefly

"Well, Lilla Mae tells me that you've quit her And I've been wondering if you wouldn't like to take a job with my firm [illegible] selling women's [illegible] do it, you know, with your [illegible] Girl, you've got em

His voice was [illegible] with [illegible] of reverence as he spoke of her [illegible] She heavily that [illegible] finer and more [illegible] than had been years ago

"You got the world [illegible] Kid," he said He was sitting [illegible] close to Merry, now [illegible] she could feel his breath on [illegible] cheek and also [illegible] could model clothes [illegible] selling em You would have to [illegible] go out on the road, [illegible] could stay right there at [illegible]

and I'll bet you'd be a knockout at the game

Merry was just opening [illegible] say "No" when he added [illegible]

"Here, Baby, most [illegible] is done by men," he explained. "[illegible] come to the factory [illegible] could tell em You [illegible] along, and sell 'em [illegible]

A bright look [illegible] Merry's face It was a dangerous [illegible] Lester Purcell did [illegible]

He had known [illegible] Locke who knew how [illegible] to "Jolly and shower [illegible] time But he did not [illegible] who sat beside him

"These birds [illegible] come for a good time [illegible]

"They're mostly old married men who think they're painting the [illegible] if they take a good look [illegible] me you'd for dinner," he [illegible] "That's [illegible] you'll [illegible] you surrender and give it to [illegible] Here's [illegible] good sport, and a darn good looker, too."

He winked [illegible] and [illegible] up [illegible] Merry's [illegible] Merry [illegible] Merry [illegible] Merry

THE THIMBLE THEATRE

Courageous Son—By SEGAR

Copyright, 1926, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain Rights Reserved

ISN'T LOVE WONDERFUL, MOTHER?
YEAH—WHILE IT LASTS
NOW ABOUT OUR HONEYMOON DARLING—SHALL WE GO TO FRANCE OR SPAIN?
OR ITALY OR SHALL WE TOUR AMERICA?
CASTOR, LETS JUST GO TO A MOVIE AND LET IT GO AT THAT SUITS ME!
DAD—LEND ME FOUR BITS

KRAZY KAT

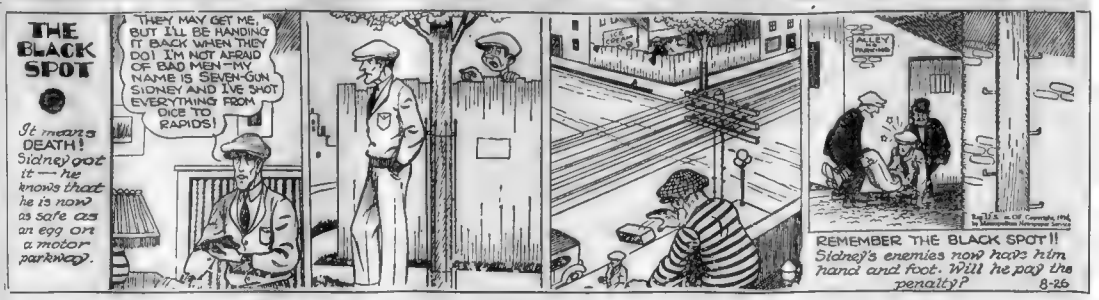
Masquerade—By HERRIMAN

Copyright, 1926, Int'l. Feature Service, Inc., Great Britain Rights Reserved

ELLA CINDERS

Seven-Gun Sidney

By BILL CONSELMAN and CHARLIE PLUMB



THE BLACK SPOT
It means DEATH! Sidney got it—he knows that he is now as safe as an egg on a motor parkway.
THEY MAY GET ME, BUT I'LL BE HANDING IT BACK WHEN THEY DO! I'M NOT AFRAID OF BAD MEN—MY NAME IS SEVEN-GUN SIDNEY AND I'VE SHOT EVERYTHING FROM DICE TO RAPIDS!
ALLEY RUNNING
REMEMBER THE BLACK SPOT!! Sidney's enemies now have him hand and foot. Will he pay the penalty?
8-26

GOLDBERG'S CARTOONS

Life's Little Jokes—No. 430,996

Copyright, 1926, by R. L. Goldberg

By Rube Goldberg

A GUY BY THE NAME OF VAN PORTERHOUSE MOOSE WENT AWAY TO A SUMMER RESORT TO REDUCE.
WHILE A SKINNY GAZABO NAMED SKELETON BLAINE WENT AWAY TO THE GREAT OPEN SPACES TO GAIN!
I'LL BRING THE REST LATER
BUT MOOSE GOT A DEAL THAT WAS TERRIBLY RAW, FOR THEY FED HIM SO MUCH THAT HE GAINED A LOT MORE.
WHILE BLAINE COULDN'T PICK UP AN OUNCE, STRANGE TO SAY, FOR THE MEALS WERE SO SKIMPY HE WASTED AWAY!
FOOLISH QUESTIONS NO. 664,309
GOODNESS, ARE YOU DRINKING MILK?
NO, THIS IS PASTE TO MAKE THE PAL STICK TO MY WISKERS
McNaught Syndicate, Inc., N.Y.

FILLUM FABLES

A Friendly Warning

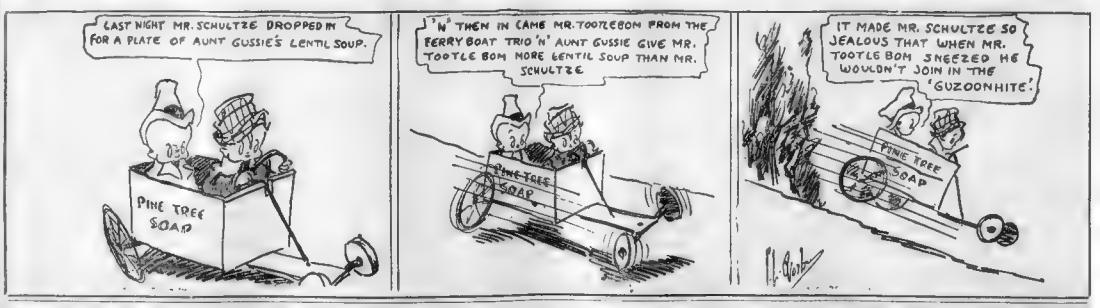
By Chester Gould

EPISODE 17
TRAILS
WHEN THE DUBBINSES AND ART CHIPPER ARRIVE IN DES PAIRO, MEX., TO SEE THE SIGHTS, THEY HIRE A GUIDE WHO INCITES THE SUSPICION OF 'RT
I TELL YOU MR. DUBBINS THAT GUIDE IS NONE OTHER THAN MORTIMER MUGGS IN DISGUISE
COME = COME CHIPPER = PULL YOURSELF TOGETHER! GET AHOLD OF YOURSELF = YOU'RE ALL UNSTRUNG = GUIDE'S AN OLD MEXICAN
MR. DUBBINS I'M WARNING YOU ALL IS NOT WELL = SOMETHING IS BREWING! SOMETHING IS BREWING
OH GOSH = THAT REMINDS ME = WOULDN'T YOU LIKE A NICE BOTTLE OF BEER RIGHT NOW!
MEANWHILE THE GUIDE MAKES AN IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT
"THIS MADAM FEG DA "HOOCH CACTUS" = DRINK DA SAP AN' YOU GET MUCH DRUNK = SAVY?
WHAT'S THAT?

Skippy

It Made Him Jealous

By Percy Crosby



LAST NIGHT MR. SCHULTZE DROPPED IN FOR A PLATE OF AUNT GUSSIE'S LENTIL SOUP.
'N' THEN IN CAME MR. TOOTLEBOM FROM THE FERRY BOAT TRIO 'N' AUNT GUSSIE GIVE MR. TOOTLE BOM MORE LENTIL SOUP THAN MR. SCHULTZE
IT MADE MR. SCHULTZE SO JEALOUS THAT WHEN MR. TOOTLE BOM SNEEZED HE WOULDN'T JOIN IN THE 'GUZOONHITE'
PINE TREE SOAP

MEDBURY SAYS—

By John P. Medbury

ALTHOUGH thousands of wives are away on their vacations half of them are doing their husband's washing by mail.

ONE woman said she never received a letter that didn't have a couple of pairs of socks in it.

SHE has to rinse them out and send them back by special delivery.

ONE town is accommodating the married women by putting wash tubs in front of the postoffice.

BY doing this, the husbands can get their laundry work done quicker.

IT'S a lucky thing for women that men can't send their soiled clothes by telegram

IF they could, they'd be, wiring their washing all over the country.

ONE man sent his wife a batch of dirty duds by parcel post.

HE enclosed a note and said that the pots and pans were coming by express.

IF he'd thought about it he could have sent her the rugs and had her sweep them.

HE said he loved his wife but he wasn't going to let her vacation interfere with the housework.

IT'S too bad they didn't own a portable home so that he could stup it to her and let her clean it.

ONE woman wanted to spend her vacation at a small Summer resort in the mountains but she couldn't go there because they didn't have any wash tubs.

SHE had to arrange her trip so that it wouldn't jeopardize her husband's laundry.

HE had two shirts. One on his back and one in the mail.

HE used to go down to general delivery twice a week to change his linen.

HE finally decided to buy another pair of socks and take life easy.

A CHICAGO woman has been doing so much laundry work for her husband this Summer that she wants to sell her flivver and tour the country in a washing machine.

DAILY SHORT STORY

GEORGE MERVEN, president of Gilford and Merven, brokers, glared at his assistant-cashier and pounded the desk to enforce his bellowings.

"A raise!" he shouted. "You'll get no raise, Gilford. Think because your name's like the one on this firm's stationery that you own the place, don't you! Well, I'll tell you this, young man, Sam Gilford got his name there because he saved his money. You're not like that; you're always having money advanced! Always broke! When I come back I'm going to fire you, you waster!"

Bert Gilford writhed before the portly boss' denunciation. Merven was leaving for a holiday that morning, and it had seemed a good time to ask for a raise. He had not expected this storm. He rose slowly from his chair.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Merven. I did the best I could. I like to work for Gilford and Merven . . . sort of pride in the name, though, of course, I'm no relation of Gilford's."

"Right, you're not," snapped back Merven. "Sam would have been ashamed to own you. What do you spend your salary on . . . women?"

Young Gilford flushed, but proudly held his tongue. Merven looked disgusted.

"I've learned that you live alone," continued the boss, "no one to support. I asked because I liked you—was interested in you. I won't say now I think you spend your money, but——"

Bert did not wait for more. Merven was a hard man. The young ster had been with the firm almost a year. He had made good except for those faults that Sam Merven spoke about; Bert was always broke, often having money advanced or borrowing it from the fellows who worked in the office.

Sam Merven promptly forgot his clerk in the joyous prospect of a week in the Maine Woods . . . moose to hunt, trout to tempt with the fly. Two days after that stormy session in the office, Merven, booted shirted and belted for the woods was at the jumping off place in Maine.

The country was familiar to him so he took no guide. He made straight for a lake where he had camped a few years previous. It was night when he got there and a neat string of profanity perforated the still air, scaring the birds in their sleep, when Sam found the camp gone. The lake shore had been cleared of trees and a great stubble-field stretched away into the darkness. The march of agriculture had destroyed a tired business man's favorite stamping-ground!

Sam stood there in the darkness. Rain began to fall, gently at first then furiously. Sam recollected an old ruin of a farm up on the hill. He had never gone there, but now it was a case of any old port in the storm. Watch dogs growled at his approach. The door opened.

"Come in, stranger," a tall man called. "Ma an' me's just finished supper, but there's plenty mooseteak left."

It was like a bid into heaven for storm-tossed Merven. He stamped into the room and threw his bags in a corner. Then he looked around. He had never seen a room so comfortably home-like. There was a fireplace, a big sofa, deep chairs, a turkey-red carpet, good pictures.

"Say—" exclaimed Merven 'n his abrupt way, "was this place always here?"

A little old lady had come to join them. She was plump, kindly.

"No, sir" she said. "Just this year we could afford these comforts and hire men to work the farm. Pa's too old for that, you know. We've always craved nice things but we had to wait till we got prosperous. What's your name, stranger?"

"Merven," growled Sam, impressed by their utter amiability and it was like a bid into heaven for storm-tossed Merven. He stamped into the room and threw his bags in a corner. Then he looked around. He had never seen a room so comfortably home-like. There was a fireplace, a big sofa, deep chairs, a turkey-red carpet, good pictures.

"Say—" exclaimed Merven 'n his abrupt way, "was this place always here?"

A little old lady had come to join them. She was plump, kindly.

"No, sir" she said. "Just this year we could afford these comforts and hire men to work the farm. Pa's too old for that, you know. We've always craved nice things but we had to wait till we got prosperous. What's your name, stranger?"

"Merven," growled Sam, impressed by their utter amiability and the excellence of the old lady's cooking.

"Be you from the city?" demanded pa. "Our son Bert has a partner o' that name. Bert's in the brokerage business, Gilford and Merven. Bert sends us heaps of money—fifty dollars each week till we get our compmoney. You ain't Bert's partner now, are you, Mr. Merven?"

Sam nodded and gave the old folks a glowing account of their son's accomplishments. As he pulled the home-made patch-work quilt over his body that night in the farm house bed-room, he made up his mind that he must trek back to the railroad station next morning. He'd have to send a wire right away, straightening things out and ordering Bert's salary increased—well, a thousand a year at least!"

BERT GILFORD—SPORT!

By Merlyn Swift

BRINGING UP FATHER

Jiggs Gets Maggie's Goat

By George McManus

I WAS ARRESTED TODAY FOR SPEEDING BUT YOU CAN BET I'LL NOT PAY THE FINE-
OH-ARE YOU GOING TO STAY IN JAIL?
NO-YOU IDIOT-I WASN'T GOING THIRTY MILES AN HOUR-NOT EVEN TEN-THESE POLICEMEN MAKE ME TIRED-
YES-
I'LL TELL THAT JUDGE SOMETHING TOO. WHY I WAS ALMOST AT A STANDSTILL WHEN THE OFFICER-
LOOK OUT MAGGIE-YOU'LL BE BACKIN' INT SOMETHING YET-
SAVE A CUP FOR BREAKFAST, MAGGIE!
© 1926 BY INT'L FEATURE SERVICE, INC
8-26

POLLY AND HER PALS

Nothing to Leave

By Cliff Sterrett

PA, PETE. HE WON'T BITE YOU!
THANKS A LOT FOR THE TIP POLLY.
MR. PETERS TO SEE YOU, SIR
YOUNG PETE PETERS SHOW HIM IN, BUB!
MR. PERKINS ID LIKE A POSITION WITH YOUR FIRM.
THEY AIN'T MUCH DOIN 'ROUND HERE JUST AT PRESENT, PETE, BUT Y'MIGHT LEAVE YOUR ADDRESS!
AH, UH, AHEM. UNLESS YOU GIVE ME A JOB I SHANT HAVE ANY ADDRESS!
CLIFF STERRETT
8-26

US BOYS

Their Master's Voice

By McNamara

AW, YA DO NOT PRESS DOWN WHEN SHE GOES TEE TEE TUM!- BUM DE DA IS WHEN YA PRESS!
WELL I GOTTA PRESS THE ONE ON THE LEFT WHEN SHE GOES DOO DEE DI!
AW, YOU'RE A BUM PIANNER PEDDLER PUSHER - I TELL YA YOU PUSH DOWN THE ONE ON THE RIGHT WHEN SHE GOES DOO DEE DI!
AW, TURNIN MUSIC IS EASIER THAN PUSHIN PEDDLES ANYHOW!
LETS SEE NOW:- YOU GOT ME ALL BAWLED UP. I FORGET WHETHER I TURN ONE DOO DEE DI, OR DEE DI DO DEE DI?
AW, YOU GOT A CINCH. SHE ALWAYS KICKS YOU IN THE SHINS WHEN TO TURN!
COME BOYS- WE MUST HAVE A GOOD LONG REHEARSAL TO-DAY THE PARTY IS NOT FAR OFF!
AW, I WISH IT WAS ALL OFF!
Piano Recital by Gwendolen De la Florett. Frolic of the Frogs encore. Corn in Bloom, encore. Twinkling Twilight
HERES THE BILLING EMILY HAS MADE OUT FOR HERSELF USING HER STAGE NAME BUT GIVING NO CREDIT FOR ASSISTANCE TAINT RIGHT,-SKINNY AND OOFTY SHOULD BE IN THERE SOMEPLACE
© 1926, by King Features Syndicate, Inc. Great Britain rights reserved
McNamara
5-26

ABIE THE AGENT

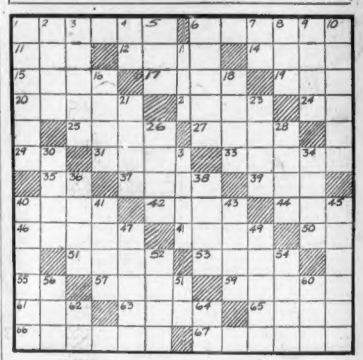
Beats Him to It

By Hershfield

PHOOY = ANOTHER WEEK AND NO RENT FROM THIS BLECHOS
AUGUST
POSITIVELY SORRY I COMMENCED TO OWN A BUILDING = TENANTS ALL GOT THE SAME IDEAS
MISTER BLECHO?
YES = WHO IS IT?
THIS IS YOUR NO GOOD, CHEAP CROOK OF A LANDLORD, ASKING FOR THE RENT = YOU SURELY COULDN'T REFUSE TO PAY ME NOW!!
8-26

Today's Cros Word Puzzle

THE MOUNTAINRAILS, NO. 281



HORIZONTAL.

1—free from obscenity
6—love of self
11—extinguished
12—pertaining to the mouth
14—being at liberty
15—busy little insects
17—to travel on a vehicle
19—slippery fish
20—step on each side of a wall
22—to mollify
24—refusal
25—animals' home
27—a shower of anything
29—therefore
31—to inhabit
33—approaches
35—a single article
37—to exist
39—to perish
40—to walk
42—definite period of time
44—permit
46—in advance
48—an uproar
50—perform
51—mire; dust
53—paradise
55—we two
57—a girl's name
59—to improve the reading of 61—part of the foot
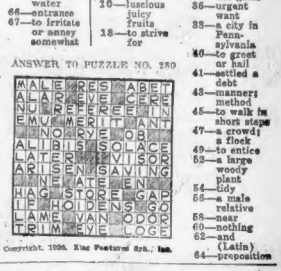
63—to forbid
65—an open vessel for carrying water
66—entrance
67—to irritate or annoy somewhat

VERTICAL.

1—slides down hill on a sled
2—to go in search of
3—garret
4—toward
5—to mistake
6—senior; older
7—from
8—wrath
9—witnessed; observed
10—luscious juicy fruits
13—to strive for
16—a thin flat piece of wood
18—ardor inspired by enthusiasm
21—wicked
23—secured
26—to publish
28—part of the finger
30—an imprecation
32—always
34—tall grass
36—urgent want
38—a city in Pennsylvania
40—to greet or hail
41—settled a debt
43—manner; method
45—to walk in short steps
47—a crowd; a flock
49—to notice
52—a large woody plant
54—tidy
56—a male relative
58—near
60—nothing
62—and (Latin)
64—preposition

ANSWER TO PUZZLE NO. 280



Copyright, 1926, King Features Syd., Inc.

SPOILING THE CHILD

By L. Lamar Matthews

DAINTY MARIE sat on a ross silk pillow in a corner of the window seat and strummed her small guitar. Her mother was washing the luncheon dishes while she prepared dinner at the same time. Then, in the midst of the early evening rush, in came Mr. Roberts—the alleged head of the house.

"Daughter, why don't you help your mother?" he asked.

"I'll get my dress soiled," the child replied.

"Now, Ralph, don't start that old argument all over again," interposed the mother. "I'm not going to have Marie washing dishes and sweeping floors—not while I'm able to do menial tasks myself."

"I can't see that she is any better than you are," answered Mr. Roberts, determined to have his say.

"Well, if you must know the truth, I think I am too good, myself, to do a servant's work; but it seems that there is no help for it," she said in an injured tone. Then she continued:

"When a girl does housework, it leaves its mark upon her. It shows in her hands, in her attire, in her manner. It simply stamps her as a member of the laboring class."

"It hasn't hurt your looks any," declared Mr. Roberts in an effort to restore peace. And he did.

And so Marie grew up—a perfectly groomed, beautiful, idle girl, with an exalted idea of her own importance and a firm conviction that housework is degrading.

Then, before she reached the age of twenty, she lost her head and married a boy who barely earned enough for the necessities of life. He took her to live a thousand miles away from her mother and found a room in a boarding house.

A year after, the baby came and it was necessary to make a nest of their own. But as a nest maker Marie is a total loss. Now she and the boy are both utterly wretched and neither of them knew what to do. If Marie only knew how to manage they could live comfortably on his small salary—but she doesn't. Consequently they feel poverty-stricken, and life is bleak and comfortless.

If that silly mother of hers had taught the girl how to keep house with the pride and dignity which home-making deserves, Marie would know what to do with a two-room apartment.

Despite all the modern ideas about feminine freedom, women are women, right on. They have always been the makers of home and the angels of home comfort and they always will be. It is more than second nature. It is inborn, innate—inherited if you will.

Copyright, 1926, International Feature Service, Inc.

Where are you living? Want a better apartment? Turn to the classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages.

MEDITATIONS OF A WIFE

By Helen Rowland

ALL the fifty-seven varieties of love-making are interesting—but "petting" isn't one of them!

• • •

Petting is one of the Seven Deadly Arts, such as doing the Charleston, playing the Uke, and Face-lifting.

• • •

Petting is to love-making, what a peanle railway is to a trip abroad, or what near-beer is to champagne.

• • •

Petting, like a street fight, is merely an exhibition of the human soul in dishabille. It is the immodest exposure of the primitive emotions.

• • •

It is revealing the heart in negligee!

• • •

It looks as though you were so HUNGRY to be loved! And SO "hard up"!

• • •

It is cheerfully and meekly accepting the scraps from the table of a man's affections.

• • •

It is standing in the bread-line, with the sentimental failures and the romantic bums.

• • •

It is accepting a "hand-out"—instead of demanding an engraved invitation to the love-feast.

• • •

It is cheaper than wearing second-hand clothes and a borrowed hat.

• • •

It is playing penny-ante with the blue chips.

• • •

It is admitting that you are delighted to be "anybody's darling" for the evening or the week-end party.

• • •

It is parking yourself on Mike's East Side with the second-hand flivvers and the push-carts.

• • •

It is giving yourself away like a premium at an auction sale.

• • •

Sin may sometimes be alluring or thrilling—but petting isn't sin. It is merely cheap sport. There are some things that simply CANNOT be idealised, even by adding soft music and moonlight: an ash-can, a cheese sandwich, a soap factory—and PETTING!

• • •

No man who has his fill of ham sandwiches and pink ice-cream, has any zest or appetite for a real dinner; and no man who has indulged in nauseum in easy petting and cheap caresses, has any enthusiasm or desire left for real LOVE!

• • •

Wood alcohol may poison the stomach and rob a man of his digestion; but free-and-easy petting poisons the soul and robs a woman of her life's greatest necessity—ROMANCE!

Why pet?

Copyright, 1926, King Features Synd., Inc.

Advertisement

Powerful, Penetrating Antiseptic Oil Heals Eczema and Other Skin Diseases

Must Give Results in 7 Days or Money Back, Says Your Druggist, Who Will Gladly Return the Purchase Price if It Doesn't Help You

Make up your mind today that you are going to give your skin a real chance to get well.

Never mind what caused it—you've probably been like a lot of other people convinced that the only thing to use was an ointment or salve; some of them are very good; but in the big majority of cases these sticky salves simply clog the pores and the condition primarily remains the same.

Go to any other good druggist today and get an original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil.

The very first application will give you relief and a few short treatments will thoroughly convince you that by sticking faithfully to it for a short while your skin troubles will be a thing of the past.

Don't expect a single bottle to do it all at once but one bottle we know will show you beyond all question that you have at last discovered the one and only sure way to restore your skin to perfect health.

Remember that Moone's Emerald Oil is a clean, powerful, penetrating Antiseptic Oil that does not stain or leave a greasy residue and that it must give complete satisfaction or your money cheerfully refunded.

Advertisement

FRECKLES

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily

Here's a chance, Miss Freckleface, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes your freckles, while it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling. Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any drug or department store and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove your freckles.

SMART SAYINGS OF CLEVER CHILDREN

The Boston Evening American will pay $1 for published smart sayings. Address "Smart Sayings," Boston Evening American.

My cousin, aged four, when asked by his father to wash his hands before sitting at the dinner table, replied:

"Aw, daddy, what's the use? I'll only get them dirty again."

CATHERINE J. McCARTHY.

No. 961 South street, Roslindale.

THE BEST JOKE I EVER HEARD

The Boston Evening American will pay $1 for "Best Joke" published. Address "Best Joke," Boston Evening American.

First tramp—That last place I dined at was a preacher's. He told me that we would be judged by our works in de hereafter.

Second tramp—Den we're safe; we never done any work.

GLADYS STEIN.

No. 25 Houston avenue, Newport, R. I.

BACK SEAT DRIVING

By Lucy Lowell

OUT in the great wide West "where men are men" there is a big engineer who imagines that because he can run a railroad train successfully, he can also drive an automobile without assistance. But his wife didn't think so—she didn't think so at all.

When he took her out for a spin she sat there with her nerves drawn into knots and her eyes feverishly scanning the road ahead. She told Claude when to put on the brakes, when to blow the horn, and how to make the curves. She not only did that once, but she kept on and on. If there was anything that Mrs. Claude adored doing, it was "back-seat driving" in her own car. The court records do not affirm that she grabbed her husband's hand at the most critical moments, but the chances are that she did.

Claude stood it for some time and finally he decided that a man, whose wife insisted upon doing his driving, had just cause to leave home. So he applied for a divorce.

The lower courts refused the decree. But by that time Claude was set upon being free to drive his car to suit himself. So he appealed the case, and on the 8th day of June the news was flashed over the wires that California State Supreme Court had granted the divorce.

That seems rather absurd to most women, but they can let it be a lesson to them, anyway.

Many a day's outing has been spoiled; many useless tears have been shed and many placid, contented husbands have been converted into red-faced dumb brutes because a shrieking helpmate persisted in helping him drive too much.

Most men have an idea that it is because such women are domineering and interfering and seize upon that method of tormenting a downtrodden husband. But it is more often the scary, nervous kind who tortures her liege-lord thusly.

Just whether Mrs. Claude is an aggressive, bossy lady who drives her household as she does her car or the irritating, clinging kind is not shown by the printed evidence. But anyway Claude got his divorce.

There is no more unpopular person in the world than the man or woman who interferes with another's driving. In a critical moment when the driver is concentrating his mind and will-power upon getting out of a tight place, he wants no suggestions from anybody. Strange to say, it is always the inexperienced driver, or one who cannot drive at all who is so free with advice and admonitions. Those who can manage a car themselves know the necessity of being left alone.

When this constant irritation spoils the pleasure of an automobile ride, it is too much to expect the driver to return home in an amiable frame of mind. The chances are that before next morning the man and his wife have dragged out all the old arguments and grievances and rehashed them thoroughly.

That is doubtless what happened time after time, when Claude and his wife returned from an automobile ride. Now they are separated.

So let other wives beware. Either drive from the driver's seat or not at all.

You will find the best home bargains in the classified ads on the next-to-the-last pages.

STOPS FALLING HAIR

Lucky Tiger is a real germicide and removes the cause. Corrects dandruff and scalp troubles. Gives dry, shaggy hair soft and lustrous beauty. Don't wait. Get a bottle today. Use as directed. Watch results. Money back if not satisfied.

LUCKY TIGER

DEMAND PROTECT Your Doctor and Yourself.

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

SAY "PHILLIPS" to your druggist, or you may not get the original Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years.

Refuse imitations of genuine "Phillips"

25-cent and 50-cent bottles contain full directions and uses.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1874.

Advertise Your Wants in the Boston Evening American

VALENTINO'S EARLY STRUGGLE IN U.S. ARE TOLD

Continued from First Page.

sailors. And hadn't my most distinguished ancestors tilted the salt of their estates? Perhaps I might become a great landed proprietor and re-create the legendary glories of the family. That mother of mine, she knew how to reach my heart and touch the strings of romance.

Once again I started forth to school, this time with a high and firm resolve. I would succeed, as my father had commanded, for Madre e Italia.

PUPPY LOVE

Although I was then entering the lovesick period of life, when a man is liable to play the fool, I feel some satisfaction in the success I really did achieve at the agricultural school, from which I was graduated with the highest honors of my class. It gave my mother happiness.

Rudy's Father

Fate was a cruel one in my absence. I was always in love. Young Italians always are. In Italy love thrills everything we do. It is in the sensuous perfumed breezes, the colors of heaven and sea, even the ruby glances of Chianti, and the moonlight there is a downward line of Titian lady's hair.

If the Italian is the most poetic and ardent lover in the world, it may be because he is the most restrained. Rigid convention denies him all the contact with the lovelier girls, who never are free from chaperonage. His ardor is inflamed by the imagination, prompted by languishing glances and stealthily exchanged notes. An American may speak love with his lips the Italian must say with his eyes. The one, passionate lover, perhaps, the other, most formal. Where the man is a less conventional prime minister, with emotion by holding hands or steal ing a kiss now and then, the young Italian must pour out his soul's love in poetry. I used to amuse myself copying passages from Tasso and Ariosto. Tasso is particularly rich mine, for that medieval poet was madly in love with the Duchess of Ferrara. The melancholy of his songs just suits the Italian lover. To be in love is to be sad.

The melancholy Dane is the life of the party compared to an Italian in love. I was never in a more nauseating posture. I might well have served as the horrible example of Richard Burton's "Anatomy." Sighing like furnace with a woeful balladmade to his mistress's eyebrow." In the period of my poetical hysteria I compared the fair ones to sunsets that flame and die, to roses, the flowers that dance at the feet of Greek temples, the little clouds kissed silver by a lover's sighs. My language was comparable only to that of the pioneer subtitle writers.

OFF TO PARIS

In such a mood it was little wonder that I was ready to cast aside all obligations to family I rushed off to that courtesan of cities and for several months played among the smiles and jewels of her boulevards. I was a little vain of my social success—until my money was gone. I pleaded for money from home, dashed away to Monte Carlo to retrieve my fortunes and a few weeks later enacted that perennial tragedy, "the return of the prodigal."

Certainly I had done nothing thus far to win me the title of pride of the family. The honors I achieved at the agricultural academy of no beap offset by my escapades later. My family, including my uncle, who had taken care of my father's estate, met in solemn conclave.

Their decision was that I had better be shipped to America. "It be's going to turn out something," observed my uncle, "it is better he do so in America where he will not disgrace us." The prospect of adventure in America pleased me so much that I didn't stop resenting the aspersions on my character, I agreed that Italy didn't offer much of any opportunity for criminals. And so my mother got together about $4,000, all that she could spare, and gave it to me.

It was the memorable morning of December 10, 1913, as they would say in history, that I set sail on a boat of the Hamburg-American line, arriving at New York on the following day 23rd.

Before I even reached these shores I was indebted to America. An American saved my life. It was during a big storm at sea, when, foolishly, I had stood up on the bow, supporting myself securely, so I thought, by grasping one of the metal ropes. Suddenly I felt a great weight crush down upon my shoulders and pull me backward. A moment later a wave leaped over the bow. The weight I felt on my shoulders was the hands of an American, who saw me pitching and knew that it could easily sweep me away.

This act surely saved my life was in line with my beliefs concerning Americans and America. For that I have always had a reverence and gratitude for America and Americans really know.

The thousands who have come over here and make money never forget you, or they return home.

So I approached America "flaming like a God," as Rupert Brooke says, and entered the Golden City of the World. New York, I was to go through the test of suffering and struggle which either makes or unmakes a man.

Through a cold December fog our boat steamed up the harbor, and clinging to the deck rail, strained my eyes for the city of my adventure. Suddenly a shaft of sunlight struck through the mist—and before me, as in a radiant spotlight, arose great limpid towers of gold.

"The skyscrapers!" I said. I asked an A... was the word. When it he replied, "Romance-ing! I thought, cugs and [illegible], as poetic as the picture before me.

For New York was like one of those ethereal visions in the paintings of old masters, in which towering city seated on the clouds. A little it resembled the hill cities of Italy, built of white stone, as you see them on misty mornings, the houses arising one above the other with their campaniles and old battlements.

NEAR CHRISTMAS

And so with my illusions still bright and my heart very gay, I landed in Brooklyn just two days before Christmas, December 23, 1913.

After the visit to the Custom House and the usual formula, I started for New York. On the boat I had met an Italian who had been in New York before. He had given me some instructions about finding my way about, and had taught me a few necessary words, for I knew nothing of the English language at that time.

Taking the 23rd street ferry across to the docks at the Battery, I went directly to Brown Brothers in Wall street, and, with my trunk, was drawn on them by the Credito, Italiano.

I had run short of money on the boat and as I had only the original of the draft, Brown Brothers could not been mailed to Brown Brothers—the purser could not cash it for me. So I had to wait three weeks aboard until I could get the money and settle my account.

My friend had told me of an Italian place, Giolitto's, in West 49th street, where I could get spaghetti for ten cents. Following his suggestion, I took the subway to Grand Central Station. There I got out and walked up Fifth avenue, which he had described and was the dividing street of the city.

At Giolitto's I obtained a bed room, parlor and bath in the front of the house. Nothing was too elegant for me then, as the four thousand dollars my mother had given me seemed as inexhaustible fortune.

It was useless to look for work until I had learned something of the language, and so I used to promenade the streets, learning the city and picking up words here and there.

One day I went into Bustanoby's Cafe, where I could speak with French with the waiters. I must have looked very lonely sitting at my table, for I attracted the attention of some fellows who were enjoying themselves merrily. One of them came over and introduced himself.

"Wouldn't you like to join us?" he asked in French.

"Thank you very much," I said, feeling far more grateful than those formal words could express.

MET COUNT SALM

So I made my first friends in New York. One was George Raguid, whose father was the agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in France. The other two were Count Otto, of Austria. Alex, who later taught me to dance, was a splendid fellow. He was called Some on the strength of the war and died fighting, an officer of the Black Hussars.

Otto never got abroad, but remained here and married the daughter of J. P. Morgan's partner. If it hadn't been for these three noble musketeers, Georges and Otto and Alex, I think I might have followed my resolution to return to Italy, or at least to Paris. As I say in history, I'd crossed so many times my first day.

Every night from then on I would go with my friends to some cafe where they would introduce me to the girls they knew, and I would try to dance. The tango and the one-step were then in vogue, but I knew only the old-fashioned waltz, mazurka and lancers.

Words fail me to describe my first day.

Don't be satisfied with a rehash of old newspaper clippings. Get the Sheik's own story, published exclusively in The Boston Evening American.

THE BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
CLASSIFIED CORNER
Summer and Devonshire Sts.
Liberty 4000
Classified Advertising
Indexed, Standardized and Popularized.

All ads are restricted to their proper classification under the most comprehensive style of type.

Advertising orders and all classified inquiries follow the same time insertion rate.

Count the words in your ad.

Ads stopped before expiration will only be charged for the number of times and at the rate the ad was published.

Rate per line for white space, 50% above the regular rate.

Publishers reserve the right to edit or reject any classified advertising.

Telephone Liberty 4000.
Ask for an Ad-Taker.

Announcements
Phone Ads to American—Liberty 4000

Deaths 1

CAMPBELL—In Melrose Hospital, Aug. 23, Sarah Frances, wife of Frederick Campbell. Funeral Home 25 Myrtle St., Melrose, Thursday, Aug. 26, 8:30 a. m. Solemn mass of requiem at St. Mary's Church at 9. Interment in the family lot, Forest Grove, Cemetery.

CANNON—In Lowell, by accident, Aug. 23, Elwood F. Colgate, age 16 years. Services at the home of his parents, Grove Ave., Wilmington, Mass., Thursday, Aug. 26, at 2 p. m.

CROWLEY—In Brighton, Aug. 24, Timothy, beloved husband of Norah Crowley (nee Kilkenny). Funeral from his late residence, 38 Wexford St., Thursday, at 8 a. m., thence high mass at St. Columbkille's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

DAVIS—In South Boston, Aug. 24, Victor Rodney, dearly beloved son of George B. and Florence Baker, aged 7 months, 20 days. Funeral services at the home, 19 Vinal Ave., Dorchester, on South Boston, on Thursday, Aug. 26, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

DUNN—In Dorchester, Aug. 22, Ellen A. (Newell) Canty, beloved wife of the late Michael T. Canty. Solemn high mass of requiem at St. Peter's Church, Dorchester, Thursday, Aug. 26, at 8:30 a. m. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend. Interment will be at Mount Wallaston Cemetery.

Personals

BABY buy for adoption, 2 weeks old; must be healthy. Address J. M. D. this paper.

MY WIFE—Henry Wolesky will not be responsible for any bills acquired by my wife, Helen Wolesky, of 105 Cherry St., Cambridge.

MY WIFE having left my bed and board, I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by her. Timothy F. Connors.

For information concerning LOST and FOUND ARTICLES, call at the LOSERS' SERVICE BUREAU, Liberty 4000, Classified Corner, 92 Summer St., Boston. Ask for Lost and Found, Boston Evening American Advertiser.

Lost and Found 10

REWARD

If person who found black bag containing valuable papers, Saturday, Aug. 21, on Gloucester boat from Commonwealth Pier, Boston, to Gloucester, will return same to owner suitable reward will be paid. Address Box 1, Boston Post Office, Station 2, Market St., Lynn.

DIAMOND BRACELET

Lost at Revere Beach Aug. 17, call owner, Her. 0290. Reward; no questions asked.

FOUND—Gold watch, Aug. 22, on Beacon st. cal. German automatic revolver. No. 118.; also white-gold ring, set with pearl and white stones with name pearl stripe, white gold bracelet watch, set with pearls and diamond, Camden St. Watch—Gold w. f. Waltby and Waltby, 18 jewels, Gilt Yellow and white, St. Bernard dog, has collar and license. Call at 49 p. m. Aug. 23, 1926. Reward $5. Irving, 1 Marked St., Lynn.

REWARD—Camco, white gold with diamond, lost at Revere Beach Aug. 17, call owner, Her. 0290. Reward; no questions asked.

REWARD—Lost, near City Hospital or Revere Beach, Aug. 17, pair of glasses in case. Reward. Kenmore 7511.

BAG—Silver mesh, lost near City Hospital or Revere Beach, Aug. 17. Reward. Ken. 7511.

BAR PIN—Diamonds, set in two solit buttons, lost, Saturday, August 21, Aug. 21, 1926, vicinity Commonwealth ave. Reward. Return to 1 Marlboro st., Boston.

BRACELET—Gold chain, initials M. C. on it. Lost Aug. 20. Telephone 6096 after 5 p. m. Reward.

BRIND RING—Lost Thursday, in front of Boston Telegram, Portland St. Liberal reward. Return to Telegram Publishing Co., Press Breakers 1217.

DOG—Cocker spaniel, female, black and white, "Bonne," lost Sun., Maponet Woods, below Pyle, Revere. Also, James S. Torbert, 200 Marlboro St., Bos., or Mrs. Torbert, Maponet Woods, Revere, Mass.

DOG—For terrier, smooth haired, white body, brown face, answering to name of Jack. Notify Liberty 4000, Miss Beale, or Liberty 4000.

DOG—German police, dark back, light markings, answers to name of Rex, old, has been lost, N. H.; reward, Lib. 6000; Miss Beale.

DOG—Male Airedale, answers to name of Jack; $10 reward; lost July 2nd. Tel. Porter 2-0-3.

DOG—White English bull terrier pup, lost near Malden Mid. Reward Bos. Howard. Call Howard, Everett 0044.

DOG—Irish wolf hound, lost; buff color, tail missing, Aug. 23. Reward. 87 Harvard st., Everett, Tel. Salem 103-R or 2071.

DOG—White bull terrier bull, answers to name of Bobby, lost, Malden, Return H. Finley, 421 Revere st., Revere.

DOG—Airedale, 1 yr. old, black saddle; collie, lost near Lexington Sign Post, Arlington, 9 Oregon St., Bost.; reward.

DOG—Lost, Boston, Gem, police, age, Wolf, Liber. res'l, West Newton 0223-M.

GLASSES—Tortoise shell, lost barber, Som. Reward. Return to 1 Somerset st., Bost.

KEYS—6 on ring, mkd. Weirs, N. H., lost Saturday, reward. Regent 1000, Ext. 2.

NECKLACE—Lost, white gold chain with pearl pendant, Aug. 23, Lib. 6000, Miss Beale, Columbia 8821.

PARROT—Small, color green, lost vicinity of Spring Hill. Notify Marion. 207 Summer st., Somerville.

PEARL NECKLACE—Lost, Aug. 17 medium length string, artificial pearls, diamond in gold center pearl clasp. Reward. Return or corner Berkeley and Arlington Sts. Telephone Back Bay 0000.

SUITCASE—Small black, lost from auto between Boston and Lynn, Aug. 20. Reward. Thurs., Aug. 19. Reward. Parkway 0185, Mrs. Brown, Brookline.

FOUND—Wedding ring at Nantasket. Write Box 1, Boston Post Office, Station 2, Worcester.

LOST—Gold pin with amethyst on Dorchester ave. or subway car Aug. 24. Call University 2000 before 9 a. m. after 5 p. m.

RAILROAD PASS—Lost, New York, New Haven & Hartford R. R. Lavys H. Mayo, 109 Linwood St., Brockton. Tel. 394-R.

FOUND—Bracelet at Franklin Park, Aug. 19. Liberty 4000, Miss Beale.

Special Notices 11

NOW OPEN

DREAMWOLD HALL INN

Egypt, Mass.

Well-known Mansion of the late Thomas W. Lawson, Dreamwold, Is Now the Famous Dreamwold Hall Inn, Operated in Most Modern Ways. Music by Jimmie Hooley and his Orchestra. Dancing Every Evening in the Wonderful eight-courses dinner three dollars per plate.

No Cover Charge

Telephone Reservations Now—Scituate 309

FREE GIFT IN OPENING WEEK

Charlestown, Mass., Thompson Sq. 270 Main St. Thompson Sq.

Landlord's Bottling Supplies.

ATLANTIC FISH MARKET—"All kinds sea food"—Lunches; delicacies. 45 South Ave., Whitman. 198-J.

AUTO Sales Service Co.—Willard Battery Service Station, 732 Washington St., Stoughton 386; prompt service.

BARRY'S Electrical Shop—Motors, heating, sheet metal work. 94-98 Weir St. Tel. Malden 2000. Night, Mal. 1000-W.

CUSHMAN'S ICE CREAM—Serve it and you please all. "The aristocrat among ice cream." 28 Prescott St., Taunton 1918.

DORIS & GERARD STUDIO—Anything in photos. Stoughton 77-4 for appointment.

E. BRADLEE'S QUARRY CORNER MARKET—Choice meats and groceries. Quarry and Bradlee sts., Stoughton 400 or 318-3.

LOWE & POWERS—Funeral directors, Stoughton, Canton and Sharon. 14 Porter st., Stoughton. 0300.

MILLER'S Battery Sta., U. S. L. Bat. Sta.; Willard. Makes the battery, sells, charges, specifies, rads A & B batts. Taunton 1926.

M. C. O'CONNELL—Dealer in coal, wood, excavating, rise, gas, oil, 149g, Temple, corner Bedford, Tel. Hancock 2284-M.

MURRAY BOTTLING CO.—M. & M. Ginger Ale, Root Beer and Soda. 732 Washington St., Bay St. Taunton 1020.

REED Hardware Co.; hardware, paints, oils. Ask for Ad-Taker. Liberty 4000. Prompt service, courteous attention.

Business and Professional Services

Phone Ads to American—Liberty 4000

Miscellaneous 15

ATWOOD'S NEW MARKET—Groc., meats, provisions; try us for prompt deliveries. 307 Washington St., Stoughton. 0300.

Bus Trips and Tours 17

THE B & W LINE
MOTOR COACHES
Boston to Worcester

LEAVE TERMINAL, 12 PARK SQ., 30 MINUTE PAST HOUR—8:30 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. PHONE BEACH 8900.
LEAVE WORCESTER, ON THE HOUR—EVERY HOUR—8 A. M. TO 10 P. M. FRANKLIN PARK HOTEL.

Theatre Coach Leaves Boston 11:15 P. M.

Business and Professional Services

Phone Ads to American—Liberty 4000

Bus Trips and Tours 17

SPECIAL COACHES
FOR OUTINGS
Pierce Bus Lines, Walpole, Mass. Tel. 326-W

Attorneys 18

ADVICE—Free in legal matters; all cases, reliable, confidential; reasonable terms; specialists marriage troubles. White's Law Office, 353 Washington St., Room 828.

Beauty Aids 20

PERMANENT WAVE $8
"Marcelle Bob" of 18 Curls, our wonderful permanent wave, guaranteed to serve and please all styles. JANITT BEAUTY SHOP, 1 Park St., Tel. Lib. 7905.

PERMANENT WAVE, $10
Do not make appointments or guess work. It's dangerous. Have your Permanent by licensed operator with dept. store experience. Mrs. Studley, 125 Tremont St., Beach 1505. Ken. 7511.

HAIR COLORING
Guaranteed for perfect shade. Prof. Tuft, 30 Winter st., Boston. 1058.

PARISIENNE OIL MARCEL, $10
Hair work, all kinds, given by expert. Highclass work guaranteed. Miss Lear, 125 Tremont St., 5th Floor. Beach 6034.

PERMANENT WAVE—Special for month of September, Violet Crowther Process, $12.50, including shampoo and finger wave. 1219 Tremont st., Main 0340.

MARCEL, 50c—Bobcut, 50c; scalp treatment and facial, 50c. Mme Benne, 120 Tremont St.

SPECIAL THIS WEEK—Permanent wave with Nestle, $5. Violet Ray, $1. 1219 Tremont St. Ken. 0000. Beach 6034.

Dancing and Dressing 24

MEN'S SUITS to measure, guaranteed pressed, $12.25. All kinds of dyeing and repairing. Liberty 4000, Messenger Pl.

Medical and Physicians 25

Electric Needle Specialist
Moles, hairs, warts permanently removed, no pain or scar. Miss Molly Sargent, 125 Tremont St. Beach 6034.

Detective Agencies 26

Universal Detective Service
Secret, confidential investigations; reliable, bonded; highly trained operatives; reliable, efficient service; reasonable rates. Office, personal, Main 3994, nights, Somerset 5048.

MUTUAL Detective Agency—Expert service and an unblemished reputation. 170 Boylston st., Room 1210. Hub. 0470, nights Sundays, holidays, Myrtle 2498.

RAY Detective Agency—Secret service, investigations, reasonable rates. 70 Pine st., corner Devonshire; service; 20 experienced operatives.

Heating, Plumbing and Roofing 28

RICHARD MULCAHY
KLEEN-HEET OIL BURNERS
Heating—PLUMBING—Tinsmithing
Office, Sou. 0748, res. Arl. 3979-W.

Mason, job'g, chimney work. Save money, have it done before Fall. Brookline 0776-R.

PLUMBING and heating; good material, good workmanship, fair price and the best of service. Why not try us? The Hub Plumbing Co., 1 Main St., Somerville.

PAINING, Papering and Decorating 29

M. A. FISHER
Painting, kalsomining and h. w. finishing, best mat. and work. Chelsea 0499-M.

BARON'S—Painting Co., paper, hang $6; expert workmanship guaranteed. Dolphin 4988.

Repairing and Refinishing 30

MULTIGRAPHS, addressographs, cabinets, supplies; also typewriters, duplicators and desks. Frank Chase, Haverhill St., Boston. Reading, Mass. Tel. 1000.

SHOE REPAIRING, hats cleaned, shoes dyed, ladies' work a specialty. Brown Derby Hat Cleaning Co., 1 Dover st., Boston.

Professional Services 33

Daniel J. Walsh, M. D.
Specialist
Street, Boston, will be closed for vacation from Aug. 23 to Sept. 6, inclusive.

X-RAY

examination and trial treatment with the new light treatment for rheumatism, pain at this office before Aug. 30th, no matter what your trouble is. Office hours, 9 to 12, 2 to 4, 5 to 8; except Tues. and Fri., then 10 A. M. to 12 M. Sundays, 10 to 1.

BATHS

NEW to Boston, the modern sanitary establishment of 25 showers baths, gymnasium and swimming pool; free parking space for 100 cars; dressing apparatus; 1st class female and tailor attendants. Entrance 20 Dalton st., Hancock 3000.

PIANO & PIANOLA MOVING

PIANO & PIANOLA MOVING
Expert workmen, reasonable rates. Call Dr. Harry C. Wood—Better dentistry for less money. Modern equipment. Hours 9-6. 15 Hand Bldg., Harrison Ave.

Educational 35

Phone Ads to American—Liberty 4000

Miscellaneous 37

TELEGRAPHY taught. Palms School of Telegraphy, 2 Boylston st. Individual institutions, best results. 261 Hanover st. Blackstone 6000.

Beauty Culture School 38

STUDLEY SCHOOL of Beauty Culture. All branches of beauty culture thoroughly taught. New methods. 125 Tremont. B. 1058.

GIRLS—Wanted to learn manicuring and all branches of beauty culture. Call Beauty School. 120 Tremont St. Room 506.

Musical, Dancing, Dramatic 40

Loomis, 16 MASS. AVE.
Boylston 0783
PRIVATE LESSONS IN MODERN, STAGE AND CLASSICAL DANCING. DAILY AND EVENING CLASSES.
LENNY HALL—Radio dancing every night; now on sale; sale dance for radio. Radfor Studio, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston.

Trade Instruction 45

1,000 Men & Women
May get free Barbering and Shingling Day and Evening Classes; also day and evening gym. exercise with swimming. Board, room, tools, good position free. Call, write or phone for free catalog. Chartered by State. Tel. Hancock 0455. Hours 9 to 5. 346 Washington St., Boston. Hall University and College of Barbering and Shingling.

Huntington Auto School
624 Huntington Ave., Opposite Y. M. C. A.
Ken. 8370 Day and Evening Classes
FULL LICENSES COURSE, $25.
Course for Ladies—For Information Telephone Ken. 8370 or Call Personally.

Barbering & Bobbing
Expert instruction in most modern system of barbering and bobbing; success assured. Day and evening classes. Call or write for booklet. 1926 Washington St., Boston.

Situations Wanted 47

Detailed information regarding all persons wanted and marked with one star in the Boston Evening American Lend Advertising Service office, 92 Summer st., Boston, Liberty 4000, or call at our Vocational Bureau, 24 Devonshire St. Ask for Miss Burns.

Situations Wanted—Female 47

WANTED—Position by refined American girl with 6 years' experience in insurance and commercial correspondence with some active concern; can furnish best of references. Call Liberty 4000, ext. 261, refer to regard to character and ability. Box S 292, this paper.

Situations Wanted—Male 48

APPRENTICE—Wishes work with first-class tradesman; willing to start for small money. Apply P. 20, this paper.

ELECTRICIAN'S HELPER seeks connections with first-class contractor. Wishes to learn trade. Not afraid of work. Ryan, 1 Arch st., reference. Apply 2-20, this paper.

MALE NURSE desires position accompanying elderly gent traveling this Winter. M 264.

SAVES STEPS IN SHOPPING THE AMERICAN CLASSIFIED WAY

Help Wanted 50

Phone Ads to American—Liberty 4000

Help Wanted—Female 50

GIRLS WANTED

11 years to 17, easy, pleasant work, permanent girls only. Henry M. Robinson, 349 Atlantic St., Boston.

COLLEGE STUDENTS
A national Boston organization (no Sunday) highest standing; will pay the very highest salary of any retail store; also wants for part time subscription work. Apply mornings, 948 Old South Bldg.

STITCHERS

Wanted, Good wages, steady work. Clifton Mfg. Co., 65 Brookside Ave., Jamaica Plain.

GIRLS WANTED—For ward work. Apply Cambridge Hospital, 680 Mt. Auburn St., Cambridge.

LARGE manufacturing concern offers real opportunity for woman who desires business connection; must be neat, tactful and operation will be appreciated; references req.; state age, etc. Box 1, this paper.

NURSE ATTENDANT — Under 50; also housekeeper; 2 in family. Call Lady. 9048 between 10 A. M. and 3 P. M. Tuesday.

PIANO PLAYER WANTED—For rehearsals; must be sight reader. Call at O'Brien's Dancing Class, 1926 Washington st., between 10-3.

FULL SUBSCRIBERS—Wanted for Fall. Training free. Apply Bernice L. Wissler, R. N., Lobby, The Hillside Apts., Arlington Heights, Tel. Arlington 0085.

WANTED—Two girls, 17 to 21 years, general maids. Swampscott Employment Agency, 85 New Ocean St., Swampscott. Beach 0035.

Situations Wanted—Male 48

WANTED AT ONCE

RIVETERS HOLDERS-ON HEATERS
JOINERS
SHEET METAL WORKERS
ELECTRIC WELDERS
PAINTERS
OUTSIDE MACHINISTS
MARINE PIPE FITTERS
SHIP FITTERS

APPLY TO BETHLEHEM SHIPBUILDING CORP., Ltd.
Fore River Plant,
Quincy, Mass.
OR STATE FREE EMPLOYMENT OFFICE,
32-35 PEARL ST., BOSTON, MASS.

Salesmen Wanted

A man over 21 to represent a national concern; no concern for starters Mass. Only requirement is that you will be willing to work. Apply in person to Miss Burns, 92 Summer St., Boston, Mass.

Counter Moulders
Wanted
Harwood Counter Co.
63 Allerton St.
Lynn, Mass.

Wanted—Experienced
SHANK TACKERS
United Shank & Finding Co.
423 Broadway, So. Boston

ADVERTISING SOLICITORS

For Italian weekly paper. Commission basis. Opportunity for good paying proposition to right local hustler proved ability. Room 708, 6 Beacon St., Boston.

Salesmen Wanted

Manufacturer of established scientific electronic appliance has unusual opportunity for men of character and ability; unlimited opening; strictly commission. If confident and aggressive, write Box 1, Bost. Post W-71.

WANTED

1 Engine Lathe Operators. Apply Ashton Valve, 161 First St., Cambridge.

Engineer Washman

At once. Apply Charlestown Wet Wash Laundry, 20 Alford St., Charlestown. 0401-M.

COMPOSITORS, Union, for job and publication work. Penn. J. B. Lyon Co., Albany, N. Y.

LINOTYPE operator, Union, exp. on publication work. Penn. J. B. Lyon Co., Albany, N. Y.

SALESMEN—Experienced men wanted for the life store in Boston; salary $42 a week; also commission on sales; total compensation should be at least $50 per week; splendid opportunity for right man; cash security required. For full particulars call at 131 Clarendon St., Boston.

PROOF READERS, Union, on final publication work. Penn. J. B. Lyon Co., Albany, N. Y.

SALESMEN—Experienced men only. Can have two responsible openings for experienced salesmen; permanent positions; 40 hours; Harvey Bldg., Boston, 3-6 o'clock, Wednesday, Aug. 25.

SALESMEN—Permanent pos. for men with high school education; 40 hours; Harvey Bldg., Bost. 425 Fl't, 267 Washington St., Boston.

SALESMEN—For Catholic specialties; 40 hours; Harvey Bldg., Bost. 4-5:30-7:30.

YOUNG MAN—For immediate position of responsibility; steady employment; salary $1000 and bonus first month. Character and ability more important than experience. Call 4 to 5 P. M.

YOUNG MAN to drive truck and work around store. Hunter Market Co., 148 Hunt Ave., Cambridge.

Business Opportunities—62

Phone Ads to American—Liberty 4000

Barber Shop

For sale with good modern equipment; located in office building on School St.; Boston; rent reasonable. Call Waldron, Ken. 7511.

GAS STATION, $800

Will sell cheap, account other business; good location; 2 pumps; 1 tank; 1 grease rack; 1 air compressor; 1 battery charger; 1 air tank; 1 air hose; 1 air gauge; 1 grease gun; 1 jack; 1 set ramps; 1 set tire irons; 1 set wrenches; 1 set hammers; 1 set screwdrivers; 1 set pliers; 1 set chisels; 1 set files; 1 set punches; 1 set drills; 1 set taps and dies; 1 set reamers; 1 set hacksaws; 1 set cold chisels; 1 set soldering irons; 1 set blow torches; 1 set hand drills; 1 set hand reamers; 1 set hand taps and dies; 1 set hand hacksaws; 1 set hand cold chisels; 1 set hand soldering irons; 1 set hand

Looking For a Room? Here's the Best Room Directory in Town!

Rentals

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000

Apartments, Flats—Unfurnished 57

RESERVOIR
Sept. 1, 3 rms. in new bldg., 2 bed rms., bath, kitchenette, disatfac. location car, elated, pass. license, phone, etc. near R.R. station, street cars; 20 mins. to Park Sq.; $22.50 per wk. Call Mr. Woods, Boston Americas.

BOWDOIN—Furnished 3d, attrac. 5-rm. apt.; ideal location; garage. Newton 0. 3078.

NEWTONVILLE—5-rm. apt., hrwd. floors, 2 pass., sun porch, fireplace, garage; ideal loca. Inf. J. S. Curtis, Hancock 1738.

NORWOOD—4 rooms, bath and hardwood floors, new, heated; $35-860. Norwood 0086-M.

ROSLINDALE—4 rms., bath, only $19 mo. Apply 236 Canterbury St. or Fwar. 2905-M.

ROXBURY—Attractive 4-room suites, all modern imprs., gas, elec., $30-$32 mo. Mr. Yankowich, Ken. 4843-J. Hlg. 2835.

ROXBURY—6 rms., all imprs., fine location, screened or white. Hlg. 4746.

ROXBURY—9 Brinton St., 4 rms., steam, elec., gas imp., vacant Sept 1; adults only. Inq. suite 1 or 3. Phone Ken. 6000.

ROSLINDALE—Sunny 5-room apt., all imprs., 10,145 Ft. Hill, hwd. floors, range, screens, adults. 21 Pass St., Jamaica 2071-R.

ROXBURY—Newly renovated 4-room flat, electric lights and gas, handy to schools and cars; only $17 per mo. See janitor at 60 Longwood Ave.

ROXBURY—Near Huntington and Long-wood Ave., overlooking Fenway, 5 rooms, tiled sunparlor, gas and elec.; rent only $40 month. 166 Ward St.

ROXBURY—Large pleasant rooms, all mod. imprs., janitor serv., steam heat, $20 to $30 Alexander St., Hlg. 1456.

ROXBURY—4 rms., steam ht., jan. service, entrance hot water, $45. Ken. 8219-W.

ROXBURY—2 rooms, bath, $20 month; modern imprs. 291 Rustic St., Hlg. 1636.

ROXBURY—2 rooms $25, 3 rooms $30. Vacation St. Tel. Roxbury 2185-M.

SOUTH END—5-room tenements, bath, all imprs.; $15 and $17 mo. Dewey 7359-R.

SOMERVILLE—4 large rooms, all imprs., near Ford factory; rent, $20. 20 Sargent St.

SOMERVILLE—In dept. brick hse., 5 large rms., elec., steel cut, bath, set tubs; rent $30. Apply 3rd floor, 60 Cedar St.

SOMERVILLE—Wm. Hill, 7 rms., sun porch, splen. loca. Apply owner 11 Beaumont Rd.

SOMERVILLE—2 rooms, bath, all imprs., elec., back, front plaz., $40. Prov. 0181-J.

SOMERVILLE—4 rms., 2nd floor; elec., bath, store heat. Call Liberty 9094.

SOMERVILLE—Spring Hill, 5 large rooms, all imprs., rent reas. Somerset 1371-R.

SOUTH END—Rent 1-2-3-room tenements in the city; next Concord Sq.; $12-$18 a month. Apply 360 Tremont St.

W. WEYMOUTH—5-rm. apt., rent $30. 151 Pleasant St.; call Main 7420.

WASHINGTON ST., 1018—3 rms., $30; also 5 rms., imprs. Hlg. 2724.

WOLLASTON—Attrac. 4-5-6-rm., good loca. Davidson, 66 Beale St.; Ono. 0132 or 1143-J.

WATERTOWN—3 rms., all mod., no parlor, 1-car garage. Ideal. M. N. 5490-0522.

WEST SOMERVILLE—Upper 6-rm. apt., every mod. impt. Rent reas. 9756-M or 7 to 8 P. M.

WOODSIDE—5-rm. mod. apt. heated, centrally located. 3 Bennett St.; Web. 0239-W.

Moving, Trucking, Storage 98

F. A. Hinde & Son.
TRIPS to and from New York, New Jersey, Washington, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Chicago, Pittsburgh and Atlantic Seaboard points. 2 Arched Warehouses. Special rates. 2 Carter St., Tel. Charlestown 0088.

LOADS WANTED
FROM New York, August 24-27, to Pittsfield, Mass., 50. To Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 15. C. & R. Motor Transportation, 18 Woodrow ave., Dor. Geneva 0805. Springs Col. 0686.

OLEM & CO.
Reliable Service. Reasonable Rates.
Tel. Roxbury 0800.

O. G. RIDLON & CO.
Expert piano and furniture movers, 187 Beach St., Hlbrd Square. Hlg. 0585.

AUTO—Trucking, Providence etc. Carroll Trucking Co., 99 Comet St., Charlestown 1217.

Suburban—for Rent 106

FREE RENT
WINTER HILL SECTION
For 3 weeks, new 5-room flats, steam heat, gas stove, range, paint, paper, shades; $45 to 50 Edgar Ave., Somerville, Sea Mr. Jaffrey.

FOR RENT—Beautiful new 6-room apt., all modern conveniences, breakfast nook, front and back piazza, small-in garage, $45 month; beautiful view from each window; very pleasant place. Also 7-room single house, non business med, situated on main road, Providence, 17 miles out. This is a very pleasant place. Apply owner, 203 Main St., Walpole, Mass. Phone Walpole 236 or 0413-M.

SOMERVILLE—To let, 5 rms., all improvements, $40 mo., ready Sept. 15. 50 Jewett St., off Highland Ave., near Tufts. Call Parkway 0126-M.

Business Places for Rent 104

STORE—Suitable for bakery, meat, barber shop, variety or any other line; also drug store; rent reas. on Quincy's main street. Granite 0283-W.

Office and Desk Room 105

OFFICE SPACE—2 rooms, good location. 111 Pleasant St. S. Weymouth. Main 7420.

Wanted—to Rent 108

APARTMENT—Wanted, 2 or 3-room furnished apartment, about Harvard Sq., Cambridge; best of references can be given. Will come to see. Phone B. Call University 0625-W after 6 p. m.

For Sale—Miscellaneous

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000

Furniture and Household Goods 110

AUGUST SALE!!!
Most sacrifice, overstocked 8 floors, complete Furniture Outfits, Walnut or Bigmaut bedroom suits, $115; 10 pc. Wal. or Bigmaut dining suits, $125; 9 pc. Overstuffed Velour set, $110; Rugs, 9x12 seamless Axminster, $25; 9x12 Wilton, $40; goodwill Axminster, $30; guaranteed Jew. Trunks. Open every evening. Sale of high rent dwelling to be torn down.
DANIELS & WILSON FURNITURE CO.
800 Hanover St.
Tel. Rich. 8151.

SANITO Chemical Closets for Cabin Fulda, Coin, Coleman Lamps, Lanterns, 800 candlepower.
SANITO, 4 CO., 18 BEDFORD ST.

FURNITURE for sale; lady's Brookline; library set, mahogany, suitable for small parlor; men; also bedroom, dining sets; good single piano; reasonable. 1315 Beacon St., Brookline.

LIVING ROOM SET, mahogany, bedroom set, oak dining set. Asp. 0639.

Typewriters 111

Corona Distributors
E. A. RAPHAEL CO., 87 Brimfield St. All makes rented, $5.00 two months.

Musical Instruments 114

NORRIS
181 Tremont St.
Whatever you may need for a piano will be found at our warerooms—181 Tremont St., and at our Allston warerooms. Piano department Grand and Upright Pianos. Player Piano our Specialty—we guarantee lowest prices and terms. All makes to rent.
Steinway piano: it is very seldom one of these fine pianos come to us in exchange; see this piano before you purchase; offered at half value.

CHAS. S. NORRIS
181 TREMONT ST.
PIANOS—105, guaranteed, $75 up; $5 monthly. Brooks 119 Sumner St.; evenings.

For Sale—Miscellaneous

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000

Musical Instruments 114

CHICKERING—Upright piano for sale; fine mahog. finish, very cheap. Asp. 0612.

PIANO—Upright McPhail, and bench; good cond. $60 for $60. Call Melrose 2045-M.

Radio and Equipment 115

DE FOREST radio set, with built-in speaker, receiving antenna, $40. Model, but price $150, will sell for $60. 30 Monroe, 118 Washington St., Boston, 3d floor.

Miscellaneous for Sale 119

CANVAS
Canvas Covers for Every Purpose
OLD SAILS—TARPAULINS
HARRY MILLER
Central Wharf, Phone Main 2728

GOLD Medal Glenwood gas range, 1 yr old, $60.00; cost $100.00. Gra. 0180-M.

FOR SALE—2 steam robies, baker's oven. Tel 34 L. Revere, Oregale 0250.

Boats and Accessories 120

GREAT LAKES MOTOR DANCE, speeds 40 miles, 12 horse power, 2 cylinder, engine with reverse gear. Parkway 2906-M.

Jewelry, Watches, Diamonds 123

Cash Paid for Diamonds
OLD GOLD, SILVER AND PLATINUM
RAGEN BROS. & CO.
333 Wash. St. Room 617

Specials at the Stores 125

BENCKES BROS.—Meats, fish, grocery, fresh fruits, 167 M St. cor. 7th St., South Boston 0320; free delivery.

Office and Store Equipment 130

Bookkeeping Machine
Hlbrd-Typewriter, second floor, 3 Winter Place, opp. Jordan Marsh Co. Hub. 0200.
NEW, cheap for cash. Jackson 900.
AUTOMATIC time stamp clock, good condition, reasonable. Call University 0264.

Refrigerators 132

PERELSEN REFRIGERATOR CO.—Store fixtures sold at factory prices. Best work at lowest cost. Goods in stock. 354 Meridian St., East Boston.

Wanted Miscellaneous 137

WANTED—To buy first class wardrobe trunk. Call Malden 2100-W.

Automobiles

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000

Automobiles for Sale 140

BOB MALONE CO.
730 Beacon St. Inc.
"A Safe Place to Buy Used Cars."

August Specials

Oakland '26 coach, nearly new..... $995
Studebaker '25 sp. special 6 Sedan..... $875
Oldsmobile '24 sport tour., perfect..... $495
Chevrolet '25 coach, nearly new..... $225
Overland '24, sedan, repainted..... $295
Hudson touring, mechanically A-1..... $295
Studebaker '23 sport touring; a dandy..... $195
Garford '21 express; very classy; cost $4000; sacr. $75 cash, rebuilt, 4-1 shape..... $375

FORDS, $40 TO $150
35 OTHER CARS ON SALE.
TERMS IF DESIRED
Kenmore 6872. Open Evenings.
At the Bridge just above Kenmore Station.

'25 BUICK COACH
$785
Original paint, olive green and black, red trimmings, upholstery like new, low mileage, motor, wiper; car cannot be told from new; financed if desired. Can be seen; liberal terms. Tomlinson Motor Co., 862 Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury. Talbot 1068 or Geneva 0100.

PAIGE SPORT $275
6-PASS. TOURING CAR
Has very fine cord tires and spare. Fully equipped with all necessary lights. Car for sale is a snappy car at the most attractive price in Boston. Terms if you wish.
N. E. VELIE CO.
952 Commonwealth Ave. Phone Brighton 1313

AUTO GRAVEYARD
SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK
MAISONN, RENAULT
MAXIM, LIBERTY, HISO
Spot cash, for all makes of cars. 309 Court St., Dedham 1284-W.

1924 MARMON
7 pass. sedan; good condition; $1000. W. L. Steeves, 1361 Beacon st., Brookline.

Essex 1924 Touring, $275
Always driven by original owner; new tires; paint, top and upholstery excellent. WILLIS AND CHANDLER CO., 1919 Commonwealth Ave., Boston. Asp. 2870.

FORD TOURING
Model 1926, in good mech. cond. Has balloon tires, shock absorb., etc. Guar. 30 days. CALL SOM. 1900. Ask for MR. HASTON.

ESSEX HEADQUARTERS
Come here for used cars of the better kind. Standish Motor Car Co., 972 Commonwealth Ave., Aspinwall 8700.

1926 Ford Sport Roadster
Wire wheels, every conceivable extra, cash or terms. 1792 Dorchester Ave., Geneva 6781.

'22 4-PASS. BUICK COUPE
New paint, tires; for sale or trade. 1 Galen St., Watertown. New. 2345-M.

1922 STUDEBAKER SEDAN
Newly painted, completely overhauled; good condition throughout, $200. Revere 1946.

1923 Studebaker Coupe
Newly painted and overhauled. Tires, upholstering in excellent condition. Rea. 1946.

FORD TOURING
Driven about 9,000 miles.
Paint, tires, upholstery and mechanical condition excellent; has new spare and many extras; guaranteed perfect in every way. Open evenings. A. W. Woodruff, Inc., 1922 Commonwealth Ave. 6600. Easy terms.

Best Buys in Used Cars
Call 977 Main St., Cambridge. Porter 3405.

BUICK SEDAN—7-passenger, late 1925, 5 almost new full balloon tires, car in new mechanical condition, motor has been overhauled by factory experts; a bargain at $650 for many years of service. Open evenings. 12 Marshall St., Somerville. Tel. Somerset 4997.

1922 STUDEBAKER COUPE
Has been put thru our shop in fine condition, model 46. Paint and tires as good as new. Terms. Only $395.

BUICK—Late, $75; worth $200 more; touring, good motor, tires, new owner. Grant-ite 6311-W.

BUICK COUPE—TOURING—Cadillac green finish; 6 good tires; upholstering, motor and mechanical condition perfect; a beauty good for many years of service; $450. Open evenings. 12 Marshall St., Somerville. Tel. Somerset 4997.

CHEVROLET ROADSTER—1924. Here is a snappy little car that will give you many thousands of miles of enjoyment. Only $125. Open evenings. 1792 Dorchester Ave., Monument Sq. Phone Aspinwall 7100.

ESSEX COACH—1926. Sept. 5 good balloon tires, 9 are new; motor meter, original paint, mirror, spare tire, lock, etc.; mechanically excellent. $400; easy terms. Somerville Motor Co. Prospect 1400.

FORD TUDOR SEDAN—1925; new oversize balloon tires, motor meter, like new inside, speedometer, lock wheel, automatic wiper, etc.; recondition Ford 2-ton and 5-ton trucks, $95; 1923 Chevrolet Coupe, fine motor, good paint and upholstery, $150; 1922 Ford Touring, good running condition, $30; reconditioned Ford 2-ton and 5-ton trucks, panels, open, covered expresses. Somerville Motor Co., 360 Main St. Charlestown 0907.

FORD TUDOR SEDAN—1926. Has bumpers front and rear, balloon tires and many extras, mechanically very fine; clean inside and out; $465. Terms. Boston Pilot Co., 1000 Commonwealth Ave. Phone Aspinwall 7100.

FORD TOURING—Good running condition; starter; exchange Ford truck, dump body. Manuel Bros., 1 Cherry St., Newport, R. I.

Read the Classified Ads in the Boston Evening American

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY — Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000 — Schools and Colleges

Who Can Enter Burdett College?

Ambitious young people of proper age and good character, with the necessary basic education can enter Burdett College. The courses offered vary in time from one to two years. They are designed for those with college, preparatory school and high school training. Applicants with less schooling are eligible for four of these courses. Visit the college for information as to what course of study best fits the prospective student.

Last year's Burdett students came from 36 universities and colleges, 30 high schools, 44 preparatory schools and 130 other business, normal and special schools.

NINE BUSINESS COURSES:

Accounting — Business Administration — Selling
Secretarial — Combined — Shorthand
Normal — General Business — Finishing

DAY—Sessions Begin Sept. 7. Business Administration Course, Sept. 20.
NIGHT — Opening Date, Sept. 20.

POSITIONS
The demand for Burdett graduates is greater than ever; about 2000 positions a year. Send for catalog.
Tel. Hancock 6300

BURDETT COLLEGE
Founded 1879 18 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON Cor. Washington
N. E. Headquarters for Sheldon Salesmanship Courses

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY — Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000 — Schools and Colleges

New England CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

Director GEORGE W. CHADWICK — BOSTON — Year Opens SEPTEMBER 16, 1926
Established 1867

Pianoforte, Voice, Organ, Violin, Violoncello and all other Orchestral instruments; Composition, Harmony, History of Music, Theory, Solfeggio, Diction, Chorus, Choir Training, Ensemble for Strings, Wood-wind and Brass.
Department of Public School Music
A three-year course leading to Conservatory Diploma.
English, Psychology, Education — Languages
Operatic Department
Dramatic Department
Orchestra of Eighty-Five
Free Privileges of lectures, concerts and recitals, the opportunities of ensemble practice and appearing before audiences with orchestral accompaniment.
Dormitories for women students
Write for descriptive, free catalogue

MR. FRANK ST. LEGER
of the Chicago Civic Opera Company will be available for coaching in operatic and recital repertoire for a few weeks beginning Thursday, Sept. 23rd.
Degrees of Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of School Music Granted
Address RALPH L. FLANDERS, General Manager

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY — Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000 — Schools and Colleges

TWO YEAR DAY COURSES TECHNICAL SUBJECTS

PHARMACY
INDUSTRIAL CHEMISTRY — INDUSTRIAL ELECTRICITY

ONE YEAR TRADE COURSES
Automobile Repair and Operation
Electrical Wiring and Maintenance

OPEN OCTOBER 4
Unexcelled Equipment — Practical Instruction
Circulars on Request

Also Evening Courses in Forty Subjects

FRANKLIN UNION
Berkeley and Appleton Streets, Boston

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY — Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000 — Schools and Colleges

Wentworth Institute

Huntington Avenue at Ruggles Street, Boston

ONE-YEAR DAY COURSES
Carpentry and Building.
Electric-Wiring, Plumbing.
Machine Work, Pattern-Making.
Advanced Pattern-Making and Machine Design.
Foundry Practice, Forging, Hardening and Tempering.
Printing, Advertising, Printing, Photo-Engraving, Masonry and Plastering.

EVENING COURSES
Mathematics, Pattern-Making, Machine Work, Tool-Making, Forging, Welding, Metallography, Mechanical Drawing, Machine Design, Structural Design, Architectural Drawing and Design, Power Plant Operation, Foundry Practice, Foundry Chemistry, Plan Reading and Estimating, Carpentry, Electric-Wiring, Plumbing, Hand Composition, Freehand, Photo-Engraving, Building Construction, Applied Electricity and Electrical Machinery

TWO-YEAR DAY COURSES
Machine Construction and Tool Design, Electrical Construction, Steam and Electrical Power Plant, Foundry Management and Operation, Architectural Construction.

LIBERAL ENDOWMENT—MODERATE TUITION
Day Courses Begin September 27
Evening Courses Begin October 4

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY — Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000 — Schools and Colleges

SUFFOLK LAW SCHOOL

Four-Year Course—LL.B. Degree

DAY SESSIONS
10 A. M. to 11:30 A. M.
4 P. M. to 5:30 P. M.

EVENING SESSIONS
6 P. M. to 7:30 P. M.
7:35 P. M. to 9:05 P. M.

Students may attend any division or transfer from one to another. Largest Law School in New England. Highest percentages of any evening law school for nos in all recent bar examinations.

Catalogue Upon Request
GLEASON L. ARCHER, LL.B., Dean
20 DERNE STREET
BOSTON, MASS.
(rear of State House)
Telephone Haymarket 0836

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY — Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000 — Automobiles

If you had a good car you wouldn't be reading this ad.

¶ Stop and reason it out!—a car that enables you and your family to get away and enjoy this wonderful weather, brings health, happiness and contentment.

¶ Can you measure these benefits against the small amount of money that a good car will cost?

A good Automobile costs far less than you think

¶ Here are 47 late models—every one carefully conditioned—to win good will—and priced low to win friends.

¶ Resolve right now that you will come right here and see what a fine car just a little money will buy.

¶ Dependable cars you will be proud to own at prices and on terms you can easily afford to pay. Be here. Open tonight.

OAKLAND MOTORS
655 Beacon St. — Just Above Kenmore Station

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY — Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000 — Automobiles

Your Credit's Good — We'll Trust You

TIRES on CREDIT
$1.00 as low as per Week
Quality and Safety Guaranteed
Prices on Credit at Cash prices
CENTRAL AUTOMOBILE TIRE CO.
119 STAMFORD ST. BOSTON
Nearest Subway to MASS AVE.
Rush the Voice 5107 MASS AVE
OPEN TONIGHT TILL 8 P. M.

$ ANNUAL $ SALE $
SAVE 50%
Special, 50x3½ Cords
One Tire, $11.90.
Two Tires, $13.80.
Mail Cards
One Tire, $7.95.
Two Tires, $13.90.
Bedford Tire Co.,
$ 226 Columbus Ave., Boston $

Professional Services

PLASTIC SURGERY
All Facial Irregularities, Noses, Ears, Face Sag, Defective Noses, Moles and all Blemishes
DR. E. P. REID 180 Boylston St. Room 329
Over 30 Years' Experience—Hancock 1300

Automobiles

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000

Automobiles for Hire 147

Beacon Hill Auto Livery
TAXICAB for all occasions day and night service; 1926 Packard limousine for hire; competent drivers and reasonable rates.

Livestock

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000

Dogs, Cats, Other Pets 150

PRETTY POLICE PUP—2 to 3 months old, $10; also Bull pup, $10; Mexican kitten, $2. If no one at home call Hancock 1300 or write to W. H. Cutler, 159 Broadway, Everett, Mass. Tel. Everett 1459-M.

NEWFOUNDLAND PUPS—Finest in the world; parents American champions; Bella and Buddie; grandparents Lady Becky and Count Carmona Chetlope Jr. Dr. M. J. Fenton, Wellesley, Tel. 0312.

PUPS—Scotch terriers, thoroughbreds, pedigreed, in dark bridle, perfect markings, price reas. Hill 1341 R. St. So. Boston.

Auctions—Legals

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000

Legal Notices 157

BOSTON ELEVATED RAILWAY COMPANY —General Manager's Office, 85 St. James Ave., Boston, Mass. Notice of Hearing. 1775 the Board of Public Commissioners of the City of Boston, Mass.—Gentlemen: The Boston Elevated Railway Company respectfully petitions for leave to construct, maintain and use an alteration of and an addition to its existing locations as follows: Single track crossover on Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, west of Blanford Street, substantially as shown by red lines on plan of H. C. Hartwell, Engr. Maint. Dept., dated July 21, 1926, filed herewith; together with all necessary connections with the present location. Also that permission be granted for the necessary poles; also for permission to maintain the overhead single trolley wire required for the operation of its cars over said alteration and addition to its tracks and use the necessary poles; also for permission to erect the necessary guys and spanwires and to make the underground and surface attachments to the streets necessary for that purpose.
BOSTON ELEVATED RAILWAY COMPANY
By Edward Pans, General Manager.
City of Boston.—In Board of Street Commissioners, August 3, 1926.—Upon the foregoing petition, it is hereby ordered, that the 7th day of September, 1926, be fixed as the time when the petitioner to all parties interested that this Board will meet on Tuesday, the 7th day of September, at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of granting the prayer of the petition, and that notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of said petition and this order in the Boston Globe and Boston Advertiser.
Attest:
JOSEPH F. SULLIVAN, Secretary.
A true copy.
Attest:
JOSEPH F. SULLIVAN, Secretary.

Live Stock

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000

Dogs, Cats, Other Pets 150

BOSTON TERRIERS—3 males, 8 months, registered stock. Tel. Wellington, Granite 1867-W.

FOX TERRIERS—Wire-haired pups; pedigreed; 8 mos. old; reas. $15. 99 Morland Rd., Melrose 1350.

ENGLISH setter pups, pedigreed, bar. Jame K. Travers, Petersburg Ave. Mil. 2132.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY — Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000 — Schools and Colleges

GILCHRIST CO
Used Car Salesroom
705 Beacon St.
Phone Liberty 0011
Nights, Beach 1477
Open Evenings.

ANOTHER SENSATIONAL MARKDOWN

All Our Used Cars Priced for Quick Sale!
Many Refinished, Thoroughly Tested—Your Opportunity.

One Day More
Buy on our "Thrift Payment Plan." Save money
All Cars Have Price Tags
$49 to $849
MOST OF THESE CARS HAVE BRAKES RELINED
ALL BATTERIES RECHARGED
BEARINGS TAKEN UP WHEN NECESSARY
SOME HAVE NEW PISTON RINGS

Dancing

ERNER DANCING SCHOOL 570 MASS AVE. CENTRAL
Tel. Back Bay 8383
BALLET
ACROBATICS
LIMBERING, STRETCHING, HIGH KICKS, STAGE ROUTINES OF ALL TYPES. LATEST BALLROOM DANCING ALWAYS TAUGHT. OPEN ALL SUMMER. 10 A. M. TO 10 P. M.

Latest Ballroom Dances Guaranteed in 10 Lessons
PROF. LESLIE'S 536 Tremont St. Tel. Back Bay 9383
Mass. Ave. Academy, Kenmore
CHARLESTON Collegiate, Ballet, Tap, Acrobatic
STAGE DANCING
Call Mon., Wed., Fri. Studio, Walt. Cla.
Call Mon., Wed., Fri. Studio, Walt. Cla.

LEARN TO DANCE WELL
Class Lessons Private
FLORENCE KELLY
560 Huntington Ave. Tel. Back Bay 7060

DISTINGUISH THE BEST FROM THE REST
PROF. RITTER 536 TREMONT ST.
Tel. Back Bay 9383
STAGE DANCING
For Ballroom Dancing See Us
PROF. WISEMAN 536 Tremont St. Boston
Exhibition Dancing, Acrobatics, Tango, Waltz, Apache

PRIVATE LESSONS
MABEL S. HALL 533 Boylston St. Tel. Back Bay 2142

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY — Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000 — Schools and Colleges

School of Practical Art
797 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass.
For fourteen years this school has specialized in teaching Commercial Art, and is the only school of its kind in New England. Call or write for our catalogue and see what the A. P. A. System has done for others. Day and Evening classes.

Automobiles

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000

Automobiles for Sale 140

AUTOMOBILE COLLECTIONS
WE MAKE a specialty of collecting and adjusting all claims and accounts arising out of the automobile business; prompt and satisfactory service. American Collection Service, 19 Tremont St., Room 845.

1924 FLINT
5-PASS. SEDAN
Recently overhauled; is in excellent condition; just repainted; $600; terms to responsible party.
J. H. MacALMAN
180 Massachusetts Ave. B. B. 8300

Hudson Coach
In very good condition; will sell very cheap. Cash or terms. Porter 3405. Mr. Haston, 977 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Porter 3405.

FORD Tudor Sedan, 1925, 5 new tires, $250; Oldsmobile Coupe, 1924, $150. 961 Commonwealth Ave. Brighton 8700.

FORD SEDAN—1925. Lock wheel, bumper, 5 tires, upholstery and paint nearly as good as new, $290. Terms if desired. Open evenings. Burnett & Sherman, Inc., 1059 Commonwealth Ave., Allston.

FORD SEDAN—Late model; special paint job; 24-hour trial; $375; easy terms or will take Ford truck in trade. 1792 Dorchester Ave., Geneva 6781.

FORD TOURING—'24 model; good motor and good tires; just the car for your vacation; $95. Church St., Harvard Sq., Cambridge.

FORD TUDOR SEDAN—1926; balloon tires, good mechanical condition, $300; terms; also 1923 Chevrolet Coupe, $175. Baker, Inc., Car Dept., 81 Boylston St., Brookline. Tel. Regent 0200. Factory Service.

FORD FORDOR SEDAN—1925; has balloon tires, motor meter, lock wheel, perfect mechanical condition, good paint, tires and upholstering. Open evenings. General Motors Flint Co., 795 Commonwealth Ave. Telephone Aspinwall 7100.

FORD COUPE—1925. Starter, demountables, back mirror, 5 fine tires, excellent motor, $270. Terms if desired. Open evenings. Burnett & Sherman, Inc., 1059 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston.

FORD touring cars and trucks at reasonable prices and easy terms; all models. Harvard Auto. Co., Authorized Dealers, 1280-96 Mass. Ave., Camb. Uni. 9400-1-2.

FORD TOURING—Good cond., good tires; $95; 27 Thorndike St., Camb. Uni. 6146.

HUPMOBILE Coupe, 1923; has been repainted and has seat covers and new tires; $350. Open evenings. General terms. Boston Flint Co., 795 Commonwealth Ave. Telephone Aspinwall 7100.

HUDSON COACH—1924. Motor recently overhauled, body refinished, car in almost running condition; equipped with bumpers, trunk and every other important extra; a bargain for $150. Open evenings. Progressive Motor Sales, 1280 Marshall St., Brighton. Telephone Bennett 4000.

HUDSON COACH—Like new, bargain, Call 977 Main St., Cambridge. Porter 3405.

HUDSON-ESSEX—Touring—Cadillac green finish; 6 good tires; upholstering, motor and mechanical condition perfect; a beauty good for many years of service; $450. Open evenings. 12 Marshall St., Somerville. Tel. Somerset 4997.

HUPMOBILE TOURING—In excellent condition; 5 good tires, bumper, wind wings, motor meter, lock wheel, etc.; ready to step aboard and go; $295. Terms if desired. Open evenings. Burnett & Sherman, Inc., 1059 Commonwealth Ave., Allston.

JORDAN SIX SEDAN—1924; just out from the paint shop; bumpers, trunk, step plates, motor meter, extra tire, lock wheel, economical light car, with an exceptional motor; only $495. Terms. Open evenings. Fierce Arrow Corp. Aspinwall 8000.

MAXWELL touring, 1925; motor, tires, paint, fine shape, $225. Hcd. 5454.

OAKLAND Touring, 1925, glassed inclosure, balloon tires, motor meter, lock wheel, etc.; demonstrate. Call Metropolitan 2606-J.

OVERLAND Coupe, 1925; has room for itself; used about 7000 miles; private party; must sell; $295. Terms if desired. Open evenings. Burnett & Sherman, Inc., 1059 Commonwealth Ave., Allston.

REO TOURING, 1924—Has been completely overhauled and refinished, good tires, motor meter, lock wheel, etc.; ready to step aboard and go; $295. Terms. Boston Flint Co., 795 Commonwealth Ave. Telephone Aspinwall 7100.

REO TOURING, 1926—This car has been completely overhauled and refinished, has new tires, top and upholstering; price, $495. Terms. Boston Flint Co., 795 Commonwealth Ave. Telephone Aspinwall 7100.

STUDEBAKER—Touring, good running condition, engine and tires good condition; price $60. Apply 140 Allston St., So. Bos.

Automobiles

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000

Automobiles for Sale 140

Ford Ton Truck 1923
Must be sold immediately; good tires, good mechanical condition. Baker, Inc., Car Dept., 81 Boylston St., Brookline. Tel. Regent 0200. Factory Service.

'24 Hudson Speedster, $495
This is your opportunity to obtain one of the finest sporting models ever built; cars on the road today at a very low figure. This car is completely refinished throughout and is exceptionally attractive throughout. Open evenings. Terms. WM. HEYLEY-KIMBALL CO., 672 BEACON ST., BOSTON. TEL. KENMORE 6910.

'26 FORD FORDOR SEDAN
This car has had very small mileage and is in beautiful condition throughout; equipped with lock wheel and 5 good balloon tires, mechanically A-1. Price $470. Terms. Ford Sales Co., 1100 Commonwealth Ave. Aspinwall 8780.

SPUTZ SPORT COUPE—Balloon tires, 5 wire wheels, balloons, bumpers, Gabriel snubbers, recently painted, wiper, mirror, trunk, many extras; motor in fine condition. $500 cash. Somerville Chrysler Co. Prospect 1400.

REAL COUPE—1926; run less than 8,000 miles; this car is just like new; price $650; cash or terms. Boston Oldsmobile Co.; open evenings; 940 Commonwealth Ave.; Aspinwall 0300.

LEWIS CARS—Priced from $60 to $650. Gilchrist Co., Used Car Salesroom, 705 Beacon St.; phone Liberty 0011.

1923 ESSEX 4-DOOR SEDAN—Original paint, 4 good tires, motor meter, lock wheel, good tires; good automobile cheap. Inquire 1 Exeter Place, Brookline.

1921 ESSEX touring car; good mechanical condition; good paint and tires. 6 Orange St., Reading 1081-W.

Automobile Trucks for Sale 141

CAMBRIDGE REO
If you are in the market for a good used truck, all makes, call Porter 3746 and we will drive one to your door.

Cambridge Branch
LINCOLN MOTOR CO.
2020 MASS. AVE., CAMBRIDGE

Used Truck Sale
We have the best line of used trucks in Boston. A 50-truck company can't be wrong; all sizes, rebuilt and guaranteed. Also Whites, 6, and 2-ton Federals, Reos, Dodges, Internationals, Fords; easy terms. Noyes Motor Truck & Coach Co., 940 Commonwealth Ave.

REO STAKE
1926 Reo 1½-ton Speed Wagon with closed cab and stake body; tires new, mechanically perfect; new paint and new tires. Terms, $275 cash. Open for small monthly payments. Used Truck Department. LINCOLN MOTOR COMPANY
685 Beacon St., Boston.

Auto Accessories; Tires; Parts 143

Here's Tire Value
60 Per Cent. Savings By Buying For Cash
NEW FRESH STOCK
30x3½, Firestone Cords, at fat quality, original wrappers $7.90
Size, 1st quality 10.00
Size, 1st quality 11.90
Size, 1st quality 12.90
Size, 1st quality 14.90
All other sizes in stock at proportionate savings. Buy your tires at low as $1.00. Write or call.

Western Auto Tire Co.
245 Columbus Ave., Boston
Tel. Back Bay 10288

Special for Week
Stutz, United States 6-ton tubes, $4.50; Robert Tire Co., 275 Columbus Ave. Back Bay 2000.

ALMOST new tires, 29x4.40, $2.50; two for $4.50; write for your size. Boston Tire Exchange, 204 Columbus Av., Boston.

TIRES—Doors, all sizes, for sale; furniture, piano. Now demonstrated 12 Dorr Sq.

TIRES FREE—Stutz, 1st quality, $6.00; write for prices on your size. Royal Tire Co., 206 Columbus Ave.

NEW LOW PRICES ON TIRES—Write for your size. 30x3½ $7.90. Lafayette Tire Co., 262 Columbus Ave., Boston.

TIRE—Special 30x3½, 1st quality cord, $6.95. Write or call. Am. Tire Co., 262 Columbus Ave., Boston.

TIRES—Five Doors, all sizes, good used tires, 62 up. Call Boston Auto Tire Exchange, 200 Columbus Ave., Boston.

RADIO OPERATORS IN DEMAND!
(POSITIONS GUARANTEED)
Complete course training you to become a radio OFFICER in the Merchant Marine.
Thorough instruction under Licensed Teachers in all Government requirements on modern, complete apparatus, including tube transmitters.
Fall Term, Day and Evening Classes, commence September 13th.
Write, call or phone for catalogue.
Eastern Radio Institute
899 Boylston Street
Telephone Kenmore 7578
BOSTON, MASS.
14 Years a RADIO SCHOOL

Automobiles

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 6000

Auto Accessories; Tires; Parts 143

CARS VARNISHED
$10 to $19 satisfaction guaranteed, 1 to 48 hours. Modern Varnish Shop, 42 Concord St., Brookline Village. Regent 5082-J.

Garages 142

JAMAICA PLAIN—Private garage, room for rent; $11 per month. 89 Perkins St. Jam. 1466-M.

Motorcycles and Bicycles 144

BICYCLES—New and used from $10.05 up. Tires $1.75 up. Repairing a specialty. Open evenings. Boston Cycle Co., 12 Washington St., at Dudley Square.

INDIAN MOTORCYCLE—Harley Davidson motorcycles, each in perfect good condition mechanically, tires O. K. Your choice, $85.

EDITORIAL PAGE OF THE ☆ ☆ BOSTON SUNDAY EVENING AMERICAN ☆ ☆ BOSTON AUGUST 26, 1926

Bert M. Fernald

His Passing a Misfortune to the United States of America.

When a reactionary Senate applied the gag rule last January, and voted the United States into the World Court of the League of Nations, the thoroughly American statesman whose funeral is taking place this afternoon up at West Poland, Maine, was one of those who voted, with Borah, Brookhart, Frazier, Johnson, Moses, Nye and Watson, AGAINST it.

There was nothing of the "internationalist" about Bert M. Fernald. Seven generations of Fernalds have tilled the soil of the original Fernald place in Androscoggin County, and the oldest of American principles, no intermeddling in Europe's affairs, was born and bred in him.

Although he was 59 years of age when he first went to the Senate in Washington, and was without previous experience in the House of Representatives, the former Governor knew the United States as it is given to few to know this big country.

This knowledge came from his experience as a traveling salesman—drummers, we used to call them—selling the product of his canning factories from one coast to the other. The single factory he established many years ago has grown to eight, all prosperous, all helpful to a considerable part of western Maine.

Immediately following his American vote against adherence to the World Court, some of the goody-goodies, the sentimentalists and the well-meaning busybodies of whom the Pine Tree State appears to have its share, made considerable noise about it. Senator Fernald squelched them by a simple statement of his conviction that our entrance into the court would be contrary to the best interests of the United States.

No one EVER questioned Bert M. Fernald's integrity. His courage, his candor and his sincerity were admitted, as freely.

His passing is a misfortune not only to the State of Maine but to the Nation. Already, the names of six or eight ambitious men have been brought forward as those of possible contenders for the place he filled so well.

For the good of the Nation, having in mind the best interests of the country, Senator Fernald traveled so often and knew so intimately, let us hope that the nearly 150,000 Maine folk who elected him two years ago will insist upon another Senator who will keep faith with Fernald as Fernald kept faith with Maine.

He may be someone who has been tried in public place and found faithful. He may be discovered out upon the farms, active in the Grange where Fernald was found. Wherever he may be, and whoever he may be, the men and women of Maine who believe with Washington that the plots and the schemes of Europe are no business of ours should draft him for the four years which remain of the Fernald term.

Mothers, on Your Guard!

The Contour of America's Chin Is in Your Keeping

A nation of bulldog jaws and prominent chins is promised America if mothers will keep baby's thumb out of his mouth.

Speaking before the First International Orthodontic Congress, Dr. W. Stanley Wilkinson, eminent orthodontic surgeon, of Australia, told several hundred of the world's leading teeth straighteners:

"Thumb sucking even in the slightest degree during the first six months of life, has a direct inhibiting action on the normal growth of the mandible or lower jaw."

Therefore, if a timid, retreating, undershot chin passes you, be sympathetic. That particular man is reaping the penalty for protracted thumb sucking sprees in infancy.

Or, if a deeply-cleft, protruding Napoleonic or Mussolini mandible looms up ahead, you now know that he had his wrist slapped by fond mother or vigilant nurse when his tiny wavering thumb voyaged to the port of pink pursed lips.

Mothers! The contour of America's chin is in your keeping. More than ever is it up to you to be on guard.

Youth and Its Problems

At the recent meeting of the world conference of the Young Man's Christian Association at Helsingfors there was an open discussion by the youths hardly out of their short trousers as to what is best for them.

In substance they said that if the older generation would simply let them alone they would learn how to behave themselves.

They declared that modern family life is a failure because many parents set unwholesome examples for their children.

They also were of the opinion that sex is the most important problem youth has to confront.

This is in line with H. G. Wells' statement that the two eternal problems before every generation are sex and God.

It is a wise man who has settled these problems in some sort of workable way and is not continually reopening them.

Vacations: When?

The custom of granting scholars a vacation during the Summer time doubtless originated in the days when the young people were needed to work on the farm during the Summer months. As they had nothing better to do in the Winter, they could go to school.

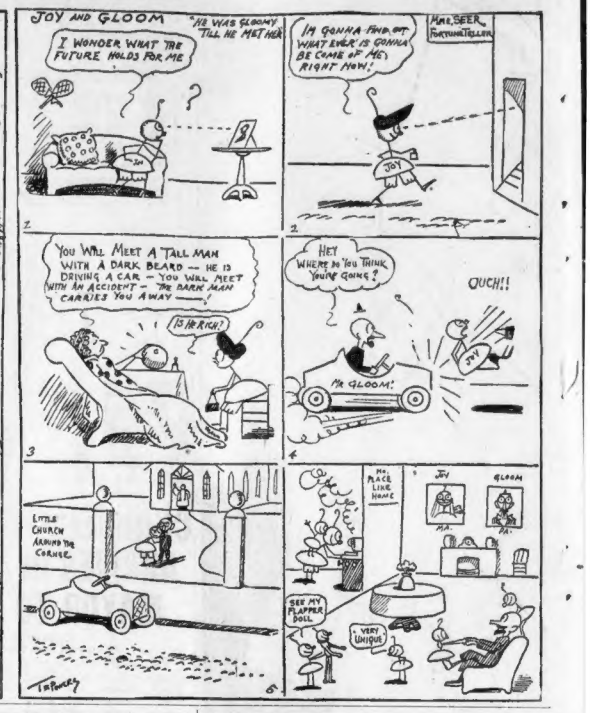
Now that civilization has ceased to be predominantly agricultural, it would seem that the vacation period might be shortened or changed.

There is much to be said for so arranging school work that vacations may frequently occur during the year, and not all be lumped in the Summer months.

The best place for a boy or girl is in school during his nonage, and, if schools were properly conducted, it would be the happiest place.

The Big Fight

-:- It's a Great Gan, but Somebody Seems to Be Always Rady to Tie Up the Works -:- By T. E. Powers



JOY AND GLOOM
I WONDER WHAT THE FUTURE HOLDS FOR ME
HE WAS GLOOMY TILL HE MET HER
I'M GONNA FIND OUT WHAT EVER IS GONNA BE COME OF ME, RIGHT NOW!
MME. SEER FORTUNE TELLER
YOU WILL MEET A TALL MAN WITH A DARK BEARD — HE IS DRIVING A CAR — YOU WILL MEET WITH AN ACCIDENT — THE DARK MAN CARRIES YOU AWAY —
IS HE RICH!
HEY WHERE DO YOU THINK YOU'RE GOING?
OUCH!!
MR. GLOOM!
LITTLE CHURCH AROUND THE CORNER
MR. PLACE LIKE HOME
JOY GLOOM
SEE MY FLAPPER DOLL
VERY UNIQUE
T. E. POWERS

OTHER SENSES IN MEN POSSIBLE?

By DR. FRANK CRANE

SIR FREDERICK MOTTO, one of the greatest living authorities upon the human brain, describes it as containing something like nine thousand million tiny cells.

Referring to this statement a young man writes in with an idea which is interesting to contemplate even if it is highly fanciful.

In this busy beehive of the brain, he suggests, we know that some of these cells record the sensations of sight as brought from the organs of vision. Others have to do with the sensations of hearing as brought from the auditory organs. And so on down the list of senses.

Now, some children are born deaf. Never in their lives have they heard a sound. It is impossible for them to understand what a sound is like. Other children, born blind, have never seen color. It is impossible for them to realize what the different shades of color are like.

They would never realize that such things exist were it not for those around them who have the ability to see and to hear.

In those who are born without certain faculties the portion of the brain dealing with that faculty is unused.

Then, he asks, isn't it possible that somewhere among these millions upon millions of cells there are sleeping senses of which we know nothing?

Isn't it possible that just as individuals born deaf or blind would, if left alone, never comprehend or understand what they are missing, so the whole race is being born without some unknown and unsuspected sense or senses, because none appear with those cells awakened, never suspicious that such senses are possible?

And, if it is possible that some undeveloped, unawakened sense lies slumbering unsuspected among the countless cells of the human brain, isn't it possible that in time the whole race may develop other senses besides the five we now possess?

This reminds us of a bishop who was addressing a Sunday school. "Now, little children," he said, "perhaps you have never had a bishop speak to you before. I would like to know if there is any little boy or girl that would like to ask a question?"

One little boy held up his hand and asked, "Where did Cain get his wife?"

Whereupon the bishop replied, "Ah, that is a very nice question. Now, has any other little girl or boy a question they would like to ask?"

(Copyright, 1926, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

WHY WORRY ABOUT CRITICS? JUST DO YOUR BEST

Sometimes you imagine that certain persons are talking, working and planning against you when as a matter of fact you are not figuring in their conversation or in their plans.

Way back in your mind is the thought that you are failing in some way and not measuring up to what is expected of you.

If you were sure that you are delivering what you should in your job, and that you are conducting yourself as you should, you would not be so concerned about "what people might say."

It is worth a lot to know that, no matter what is said, you are really doing your best.

You will get more out of life if you conduct yourself so that you have nothing to conceal, nothing to make you blush if the facts about your life come up for discussion.

The consciousness of right intention and steadfast purpose to accomplish what is worth while is enough to keep a man busy without worrying about gossipers.

Copyright, 1926, International Feature Service, Inc.

LISTEN, WORLD!

By ELSIE ROBINSON

I WAS sad and I went into a church.

It was not my church. I have no church.

But I have a great loneliness and need and I thought there might be comfort in that quiet, hallowed place.

The shadows lay in a blue mist upon the dark oak carvings and the pictures of the saints. Beneath the high, carved ceilings they thickened into violet pricked with gold.

Bunch of Flowers

Through the blue shadows rays of light cut in flaming swords—light from the windows, scarlet, amber, amethyst and jade. Great swords of color slanting through the gloom—on guard before the altar which rose, dim and tall, heavy with gold and lace.

A proud and splendid church, its very silence like a noble broidered robe.

And there I knelt, a shabby, lonely soul, seeking a hand to guide me through the night.

I had no part with windows set with jewels—with swords of light stained with rich amethyst and jade—with priceless lace and old, carven wood.

It made me feel more strange and set apart—that splendid church.

I turned to go.

And then I saw upon the altar a small bunch of flowers.

Such flowers as some working person might have picked—or little children playing in the country fields. Daisies and blue bells and sweet, meadow grass—wild flowers upon the altar of the King.

No hot house lilies, nor rare orchids, or frail roses grown under glass—just common flowers from a country field, still smelling of the earth and rain and sun.

Lived—for What?

Wild flowers as common as my tangled life. Dust stained, as I was ragged at the edge.

And my hurt heart, that found no comfort in the gilding and the lace, found healing in that bunch of meadow flowers.

For they were bond between my lowly life and His vast source of strength. These only made me feel at home with God; these my small neighbors of the field, brothers with me in all the dust and storm.

And their frail lives were filled with the same mystery as mine—and with the answer to that mystery, too.

They lived and loved and bred—for what? And yet they lived and loved and bred, and God had set the sunrise on their leaves and placed sweet-smelling gold within their hearts and bound the climates and bees to serve their need.

We call them weak — and yet that small, furled bud was strong enough to heave its way through stone. With those slender stems the tides of life went back and forth. Humble they were, and overlooked by men. Yet nothing in God's endless ether was more rare. And nothing was more intricate and strange.

They withered—yet their life went on and on. On, on to what? I could not tell.

I could not tell, but this I saw in that quiet hour — If those wild flowers could hold His secret so — if they were flooded with His beauty and His peace, His strength and truth and everlasting life—why should I feel that I was all alone? Why should I feel that my life had no plan?

Copyright, 1926, King Features Synd., Inc.

WORDS OF THE WISE MEN

Ignorance is a sort of eternity to prejudice and perpetuity to error.
—Hall.

Men are apt to play with their healths and their lives as they do with their clothes. —Temple.

Some are so sour and ungrateful that they are never to be obliged.
—L'Estrange.

Liberty consists in the power of doing that which is permitted by law. —Cicero.

Truth is generally the best vindication against slander. —Lincoln.

Learn on how little man may live, and how small a portion nature requires. —Lucan.

A jest loses its point when the jester laughs himself. —Schiller.

We sleep, but the loom of life never stops and the pattern which was weaving when the sun went down is weaving when it comes up tomorrow. —Henry Ward Beecher.

The consciousness of good intentions is the greatest solace of misfortune. —Cicero.

Immodest words admit of no defence; For want of decency is want of sense. —Dillon.

He who performs his duty in a station of great power must needs incur the utter hatred of many, the high displeasure of more.
—Atterbury.

Praises in an enemy are superfluous, by smell of craft.
—Milton.

No liberal man would impute a charge of unsteadiness to another for having changed his opinion.
—Cicero.

PUBLIC INTEREST IN SATURN GROWING

By Garrett P. Serviss,
Noted Astronomer and Writer on Scientific Topics of Popular Interest

"STREET ASTRONOMER"

A ought to be a very sensitive barometer of popular interest in and knowledge of the heavenly bodies. For that reason I am glad to act upon the suggestion contained in the following letter:

"Your recent article, captioned 'Behold the Planet Saturn,' has created a desire among many persons—who I suspect were formerly disinterested—to view this wonderful object through a telescope.

"As a 'street astronomer,' I have been approached many times by those desirous of securing more information regarding the second largest member of the solar system. Facts concerning the size and nature of the ring system seems to be sadly lacking from the minds of most.

Saturn is the sixth planet in order of distance from the sun. It is the second in order of size, its globe being about 760 times as large as the earth. This means in volume or bulk. Its diameter is a little over nine times that of the earth. The volumes of globes vary as the cubes of their diameters.

Meet in November

Saturn has been conspicuous in the evening sky of the earth this Summer because it has been on the same side of the sun, but, being farther from the sun than the earth is, it appears in that part of the sky which is opposite to the sun.

It was exactly opposite to the sun in the middle of May, since when it has been apparently moving Westward to meet the sun. The "meeting" will occur on November 21, after which Saturn will be a "morning star."

The mean diameter of the globe of Saturn is about 78,000 miles, but there is a great difference between its equatorial and polar diameters, the former being about 76,409 miles and the latter about 69,706. Consequently either pole of Saturn is about 3,850 miles nearer the centre of the planet than is any point on its equator. On the earth, a person at either pole would be only about thirteen miles nearer the earth's centre than one on the equator.

The great oblateness of Saturn (in which it resembles the still larger planet Jupiter) is no doubt due to its very rapid rotation on its axis, which is performed at the rate of a turn in a trifle more than ten hours.

Since the distance around Saturn's equator is not less than 240,000 miles, it is evident that it swings round at the enormous speed of 24,000 miles per hour—twenty-four times as fast as the earth's equator.

The probability is that Saturn's globe consists mainly of gases, or else of matter in a dust—or smoke—like condition. Or, considering the intense cold that prevails there, as far as the sun's radiation is concerned, Saturn might be fancifully likened to a condensed, globular snowstorm, encircled by a concentric series of circular snow flurries, composed of biting pellets of frozen vapor such as sometimes smite the faces of climbers in the High Alps.

Not Solid Globe

One of the best indications that Saturn is not a solid globe is the fact that its mean density is so small that it would float in water. The density is less than three-quarters that of water. It is specifically the lightest of all the planets.

The rings of Saturn—its most peculiar feature—though nearly 170,000 miles across, are astonishingly thin, like vast circular sheets. That's thickness may average less than a hundred miles.

For this reason when they are presented edgewise toward the earth, as occurs once in about every fifteen years, a powerful telescope is required to show them in the form of a slender bar of light, stuck like a needle through the ball of the planet.

There are two principal rings, and inside them a third, called the "gauze" or "crape" ring, whose density is so small that it is partially transparent. Mathematics and spectroscopic evidence agree that the rings are composed of immense numbers of particles.

Saturn has ten satellites, of which only four or five can be seen with ordinary telescopes.

Copyright, 1926, International Feature Service, Inc.

'You Said It, Marceline!'

By MARCELINE D'ALROY

ON "STRIKING MATCHES"

MEN say WOMEN are INCONSISTENT. Yet
If A WOMAN is CONSISTENTLY INCONSISTENT
Does this not make her
CONSISTENT?
MEN ARE SIMPLE
And METHODICAL. WOMEN Are SIMPLY INTELLIGENT.
A MAN'S MIND works
Methodicelly FORWARD.
A WOMAN'S mind works
Intelligently ANYWAY.
A MAN takes a MATCH,
GETS A FLAME,
KINDLES it to a BLAZE
And keeps WARM
While the FIRE LASTS.
A WOMAN takes a FLAME,
FANS HIM into A BLAZE
And then, FINALLY, makes
A MATCH OUT OF HIM.
And a SAFETY match at that.
And ALL THE TIME
She is DOING IT,
SHE keeps cool!
In a MAN'S HEART
Lies a lot of KINDLING,
But almost ANY woman
Is a MATCH for him!

Copyright, 1926, Premier Syndicate, Inc.